

Las Vecinas Club Welcomes Many New Provisionals

FOR IDENTIFICATION . . . Mrs. Robert Underwood, Las Vecinas membership chairman, presents each new member with a name tag for easy identification. Receiving them (from left) are Misses Clyde Rockey, David Morrison, David Halstead, Daniel Hazelton, and Albert Marzilli.

A TEA TABLE SCENE . . . Mrs. Robert Anderson, tea chairman for last Thursday's Las Vecinas party, pours a cup of tea for new provisionals (from left) Misses Ed

Muhonen, J. B. Traub, James Lettler, Laurence Straus, Robert Finner, Jack H. Brown, Donald Arndt and Robert Heim.

A PRESIDENTIAL GREETING . . . At the Las Vecinas first fall meeting at the Plush Horse last Thursday new provisionals were welcomed by the president. They are (from left) Misses Walter Moss, Curtis Martins, Clair A.

Peterson, Lee O'Malley, club president; C. A. Warnacutt, Thomas Cline, Nicholas Gregory, Ben Russell and John Hamilton.

Expect Grandparents

Looking forward to the month of December are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boylan and family, 2714 Grand Summit Rd. At this time they will have a visit from Mr. Boylan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boylan of Syracuse, N.Y. The senior Boylans have never seen the local youngsters, twins Barbara and Beverly, and Joseph Patrick.

Torrance Herald

Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

OCTOBER 2, 1953

TORRANCE HERALD

News

Roberta Long Is Mrs. R. L. Boynton

Miss Roberta Beverly Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ervin Long, became the bride of Robert Lee Boynton Saturday afternoon, Sept. 27, at a 2 o'clock wedding in the patio garden of her parents' home, 1222 Dale Ave. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. L. Elsie Boyd, Roberta's grandmother, before 150 assembled friends and family members of the bridal couple.

Music drifted over the beautifully decorated patio and garden as arriving guests were seated. Just prior to the ceremony a vocal selection of "The Lord's Prayer" was presented.

At the first strains of Lohengrin, the fern-bordered entrance to the patio opened wide for the wedding procession led by Miss Virginia Stater, junior bridesmaid and cousin of the bride. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations, which matched both her sleeveless silk chiffon dress, made with bouffant skirt and shirred bodice, and her tiara of tulle simulated blossoms.

Mrs. Thomas Long attended her sister-in-law as matron of honor, wearing a ballerina length sleeveless gown of aqua chiffon with bouffant skirt, shirred bodice and soft cowl collar at the scoop neckline. Her headpiece of tulle and pearl simulated blossoms and net was also aqua, and her bouquet featured matching carnations and ribbons. The radiantly beautiful bride was escorted to the improvised altar and given in marriage by her father. Her ballerina length gown of white silk tulle over satin with insets of Alencon lace in the bouffant skirt, was fashioned with a fitted bodice of tiny criss-cross folds at the midriff, a portrait neckline and tiny sleeves of embroidered tulle edged in lace. A circular veil of illusion fell from a crown of pearls and rhinestones. White gladioli and stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet.

Barton Albinson of Brea Park served Mr. Boynton as best man, Jack Walker of Arcadia and Tom Long, Redondo Beach, assisted as ushers.

Miss Susan Boynton was in charge of registering the guests as they came through the house to the patio.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the garden where profusions of blossoms and greenery in baskets, bouquets and flower beds provided a lovely setting for the occasion.

The bride, her mother, and grandmother, Rev. Boyd, respectively.

MRS. ROBERT LEE BOYNTON . . . On Wedding Day

(Portrait by Seaman)

Ewing-Cheney Wedding Is Solemnized in Garden Rite

In a garden wedding at the Ivy House in Inglewood last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock Miss Nancy Eileen Ewing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Ewing, 16608 Ermanita Ave., became the bride of Thomas L. Cheney. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Thomas P. Cheney, of Paramount.

Mr. Ewing escorted his daughter to the improvised altar. She wore a formal gown of white tulle fashioned with a scoop neckline. The sleeveless mesh had a white lace redingote with long sleeves and a high standing collar. The redingote also had a full ballerina length skirt. Her shoulder length illusion veil was secured by a white velvet bandeau and the bridal bouquet was of gardenias and stephanotis encircling an orchid.

Miss Barbara Cairns of Torrance was the maid of honor. She wore royal blue tailored taffeta with a balloon skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Belva Foley, also of Torrance, was the bridesmaid. She also wore royal blue taffeta and carried pink carnations.

Richard D. Elbert of Norwalk was best man and Thomas F. Marquet of Alhambra was usher.

The Rev. Paul C. Cox officiated at the vow exchange. A reception followed at the Ivy House where Miss Marilyn Jordan registered the guests.

The bridal couple then left for a honeymoon in Las Vegas. Their new address will be 18112 Arlington, Torrance.

The bride was graduated from North High School in 1952. Her husband is a graduate of the E. Gene Oregon High School and both are employed at Western Electric.

MRS. THOMAS CHENEY . . . On Wedding Day

(Portrait by Seaman)

Travel Will Spark CDA Fashion Show

"U.S.A. in Fashions" will unfold for the public on Monday evening, Oct. 6, when the Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters, sponsor their annual fashion show at the Nativity parish hall at 8 p.m. This is the court's major ways and means project of the year to support its many philanthropies.

A clever "railroad" theme is being worked out for this nationwide travel fashion display.

Misses Richard Ben, Michael Donah and Frank E. Quinn are the co-chairmen. Working with them is the court's grand regent, Mrs. Lawrence DeRouin.

Decorations and party favors will all be in a nostalgic railroad motif. Conducting this phase of the event are Mrs. M. L. Dominant, chairman; Mrs. Gerald L. Bevel and Mrs. Robert Aguilar, chairwomen; Mrs. Edward L. Schwartz, secretary; Mrs. J. N. Dabbs, treasurer; Mrs. J. N. Dabbs, responsible for the public address system and Mrs. Paul McDonald is model chairman.

The show will develop the "U.S.A. in Fashions" theme by way of kiosk and other travel clothes, according to Mrs. Schwartz. Models, most of whom are members of Court St. Catherine, include Misses James Carlin, Corvin Dean, Marie Isley, Walter Becker, Anthony Leon, Howard Lessman and Gerald Young. Miss Marilyn Dabbs will model fall fashions for the "small fry."

Busy preparing the program for the evening are Mrs. Robert Klages, chairman, and Misses Edward Williams, M. L. Dominant, chairwomen; Mrs. Gerald L. Bevel and Mrs. Robert Aguilar, chairwomen; Mrs. Edward L. Schwartz, secretary; Mrs. J. N. Dabbs, treasurer; Mrs. J. N. Dabbs, responsible for the public address system and Mrs. Paul McDonald is model chairman.

Other members of the committee will assist Mrs. Dabbs with the arrangements

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McMillen, 1734 Watson, had as their dinner guests Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Calvin of Manhattan Beach and Mrs. Dale Ford of Oakland. Mrs. Ford remained for the weekend.

Attend Tea

Mrs. John Warnock and Mrs. S. J. Dunhouse, members of the Torrance Woman's Club garden section, attended the South Bay Garden Club's annual tea at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club on Monday, Sept. 22.

Return Home

Mrs. John Melville and Bill Suzanne, and Margo arrived home last Friday from Catalina where they had spent the summer at their home there. Bill Melville left Wednesday for College of the Pacific to begin his freshman year.

FOR THAT AFTER-FIVE OCCASION . . . Mrs. Ella Schwartz (center), who will coordinate the Catholic Daughters' annual Fashion Show, leads two models, Mrs. Gerald Young (left) and Mrs. James Carlin (right) to a sneak preview of what they will be wearing on the night of Oct. 6. "U.S.A. in Fashions" is the theme of this event which will feature California designers. Nativity parish hall will be the setting.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"I'd Say You've Had It"

Dear Ann: My husband and I have been married for 20 years. We've never had any trouble—until now.

A good friend of ours sued her husband for divorce last June. She caught him in an affair and in spite of their four lovely children, she made an ugly public scandal of it and sang his scalp from the court-house steps.

I'm not defending her husband, but this gal delighted in the muck-raking and at the same time she cried on every wale shoulder in town—particularly that of my husband. Many an evening she'd come over and take him for a ride so they could "talk alone." She phoned him frequently and they had endless conversations.

I was silent through it all but now I've had enough. She wants my husband to accompany her on a 100-mile trip for the dedication of her father's headstone.

He sees nothing wrong in it as they'd be with relatives all the time and return home the same night. I hate to be a jealous wife but I think this is out of line. How about it?—J.L.L.

Doesn't this divorcee know any women? Tell your husband if he wants to go on this 100-mile trip (which by the way would be perfectly all right, since relatives would be present at all times) that he should resist on the presence

(Continued on Page 12)