and Mrs. John Meyn, Founders Day; Mrs. J. Hunter, Honorary Life Membership; Mrs. J. A. Jensen, hospitality; Mrs. Robert Stamm, co-hospitality; Mrs. John Beckham, inspirational; Mr. James McDonald, legislation; Mrs. John Maxwell; library, Mrs. C. E. DeCamp and Mrs. James Culver; mugs and emblems, Mrs. M. H. Horstman; membership, Mrs. Perry Baker; memo, Mrs. Walter Metz; Newsletter, Mrs. Robert Thomas and Mrs. E. J. Ferry; parent education, Mrs. William Miller; publicity, Mrs. Philip Brooks; publicity record book, Mrs. Stephen Boyko; room representative, Mrs. Jack Latta; safety, Mrs. W. Caton; student welfare, Mrs. Earl Struble and Mrs. L. Waters; co-ways and means, Mrs. Norman Wilson; telephone, Mrs. T. Y. Yamada and Mrs. Robert Kretschmer.

Mrs. W. R. Towell announced the varied and stimulating program for the year. Mrs. Perry Baker reviewed the membership drive to begin Oct. 8. The theme will be "Carry the Ball for Carr."

The proposed budget for the year was presented by Mrs. Carl Johnson.

Mrs. Heyns invited everyone to attend the acquainted tea, "Sidewalk Cafe," on Wednesday, Sept. 18.

Plans for the fall "Mardi Gras" festival are beginning to form and the date is Oct. 24 from 8 to 9 p.m.

Coffee and rolls were served by the hostesses for the meeting. Misses Philip Brooks, Jack Latta, and Merle Love.

Flavian

Flavian held their first PTA meeting for the year Sept. 18 in the cafeteria. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. James Russell, first vice president. Flag salute was led by Brownie Troop 2127.

Mrs. Charles Petersen, ways and means chairman, made a recommendation to the association that the carnival, "Harvest O' Fun Night," be held Oct. 31 between 8 and 9 p.m. Mrs. Petersen also read the budget for the forthcoming year. Committees on legislature, music, parent education, and room representative were named. Torrance Council PTA scholarship revised provisions were read and approved.

Mrs. Ernest Black put on a skit using the committee as a train led by William Clark, principal. The train was a free hand banner train drawn by the art and poster chairman, Mrs. Fred Hobel. "Opportunities Unlimited" is the theme for the membership drive. Mrs. Black introduced Mrs. Woolson Willy, membership chairman of the Torrance Council. Mrs. William Clark introduced his teaching staff and in the absence of the president, Mrs. Kenneth Edwins, Mrs. James Russell introduced the officers and chairman of the association. This was in keeping with the theme program "Meet the Workers." Mr. Clark introduced Dr. Ted Spyer, guest speaker who spoke on the coming bond issue.

Riviera

Riviera board members combined tea and fashions to open the fall school season for the parents. This annual affair gave all parents a chance to get acquainted with new and greet old friends. All the mothers interested in being Room Mothers or helping with their children's room affairs during the year registered.

Highlighting the afternoon, fashions were shown by Riviera mothers under the direction of Mrs. Leo Bereda. Modeling their own creations were: Mmes. Leo Levanas, Markle Sparks, Edward Davis, Robert McMahon, Jay Madden, D. Eckhard, Ray Hedstrom, Merrill Bickmore, Gene Voorhees, Seth Worden, Mel Hefflinger and Carl Whistler. Commentary was by Mrs. Robert Atha.

Setting for the tea was the home and grounds of Mrs. Mel Hefflinger, 528 Via la Seiva, Hollywood, Riviera. Chairman for this function was Mrs. Charles John. Able assistance was given by Mrs. Hefflinger and Mrs. John Glenn, table setting and flowers; Mrs. Edward Davis and Mrs. Seth Worden, refreshments; Mrs. Donald Vockey, art and name tags; Mrs. Leo Bereda, fashions; Mrs. P. S. Huyssen, clean-up.

259th Place

Theme for the National Safety Committee is "School's Open—Be Extra Alert" in cooperation with this the 259th Place School PTA is sponsoring a movement to help with the stenciling of the sidewalks and crosswalks adjacent to the school. Leroy G. Thompson, head custodian has taken time off from his many duties in the first busy school week to help with the paint and stenciling and is being ably assisted by the school safety committee.

The month of September is dedicated to the "Back-to-School" safety campaign in cooperation with the National Safety Council, Automobile Club of Southern California, and the 31st District CPPT.

This widely publicized campaign will appear in newspapers and also in spot announcements on television and radio. All parents and vehicle operators are urged to cooperate. The Milk Industries Foundation will carry the slogan on more than two million cartons in Los Angeles and Orange counties. Bumper strips will be attached to the vehicles of the L.A. city and county schools, California Water and Telephone Co., General Telephone Co., Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., Red Cross, and

Western Union

Another important function being aided by members of the PTA was the welcoming of new parents and students on opening day Monday, Sept. 15. The members who helped with registration and served refreshments were Mrs. R. A. Stalmack, president; Mmes. Palmer Orsath, G. H. Nelson, W. G. Milburn, T. B. Kincannon, H. M. Babjohn and W. N. Kopley.
