

Adding Glamour to the Football Season

BATON TWIRLERS . . . North High majorettes Pat Vint, Nancy Mooney, Lynne Standley and Karen Husted may be seen in front of Saxon's rooting section and on the field during half time at all league games.

STEPPING OUT . . . Members of Torrance High School majorettes go through routine steps in practice last week. Majorettes are a glamorous part of football. Left to right, Chickie Seiorita, Mimi Cowan, Pat Achenbach, Judy Bowlds and Loretta Robinson.

CUTE FOURSOME . . . Dressed in green and white, Linn Gish, Joyce Templin, Mary Jane Carroll and Susann Swank strut in anticipation of South High's football game with Harvard Military Academy last week.

Entertains

Mrs. V. D. Bernard entertained her club at a bridge-bridge luncheon last Monday at her home, 2147 123rd St. in the bridge games following the brunch first prize was won by Mrs. R. E. Moffitt and second by Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass. Mrs. Bernard's other guests were Misses J. A. Eisenbrandt, William Dookin, Mel Millar and Delbert Thomsen.

Alumnae Party Wednesday

South Bay Alumnae of Alpha Phi will meet for their monthly bridge party at the home of Mrs. H. R. Roemer, Jr., 4032 Via Nivea, Palms Verdes, on Wednesday, Oct. 15, at 7:45 p.m. Co-hostess will be Mrs. George Moll. Refreshments will be served. Any Alpha Phi in the South Bay area who wishes to join the group may call Mrs. Roemer.

Torrance Herald
Social World
EDNA CLOYD, Editor
OCTOBER 12, 1958 TORRANCE HERALD Nine

Clara Conner Named 'Woman of the Year'

Their "Woman of the Year" was the guest of honor at the local Business and Professional Women's luncheon on Wednesday at the Palms restaurant. Paid a special tribute and presented with a corsage was Mrs. Clara Conner, postmistress of Torrance.

Mrs. Conner, who has been a member of the local B&P.W. club since 1950, has resided in Torrance since 1923. She was appointed postmistress by former President Harry Truman in 1950. Mrs. Conner is past president of the Torrance American Legion Auxiliary. She has been active in the local Rebekah lodge and for the past 14 years has served as chairman of the March of Dimes polo drive in the area.

Breakfast Club Travels To Yucaipa

A group of Torrance's oldest residents—the Breakfast Club—had an enjoyable trip last Sunday to Yucaipa where they were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Miller, who moved there from Torrance early this year.

The Millers retain their membership in the club and drive to Torrance on the first Sunday of each month for the meetings.

A buffet dinner was served to 16 guests at tables arranged in the greenhouse. An evening of visiting followed.

Club members from here making the trip were Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum, Messrs. and Mrs. Jack Miller, Fay Parks, Abe Shriner, Arch Lewis, Dave Jones, Fred Bever, I. G. Barkdull and Mr. John Feas.

Also on the trip were the houseguests of the Fay Parks, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Parks of Detroit, Mich., and Dr. R. H. Burdick of Tonopah, Nev.

The group was joined by other former residents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stanger and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Phillips of Yucaipa, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Winner of Crestline.

Others from here attending the convention are Virginia Beck, Bess Tufts, Maxine Bahn, Pearl Good, Betty Nassie, Jean Walker, Muriel Whiting and Ruth Strum, president of the Torrance club.

At Wednesday's luncheon meeting Maxine Hahn presided in the absence of the president.

Mrs. Bertha Keiber, a new member, was present as well as several prospective members.

ISLAND INFLUENCE . . . Junipero Serra High School Mothers' Club has chosen "Hawaiian Holiday" as the theme of its fashion show to be staged Oct. 14 at the school gymnasium. Working out plans for a complete island decor and program are, from left, Mrs. George McNeil, publicity chairman; Mrs. E. P. Vedder, ways and means chairman; and Mrs. Eugene Varro, advertising director. A program of music has also been planned along with the fashion parade.

'Federation' To Be Topic At Club Meet

Mrs. L. A. McCoy, Marina District, CFWC federation extension chairman and member of the Torrance Woman's Club, will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the club next Wednesday, Oct. 15. Mr. McCoy's topic will be "A Glance at Federation."

Her talk will be preceded by a potluck luncheon at 12:30 p.m., followed by a business meeting at 1:30 p.m. conducted by Mrs. Don Wolf president.

Also on the afternoon's program will be the local students who spent the summer abroad under the American Field Service program. They are Rose Ann Wills who visited Greece, and Pat Achenbach, who spent the summer in Sweden. The girls will refer on their impressions of the European countries.

Utah Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Mack Bolton, 4606 Paseo de las Luquias, spent a several weeks' vacation in Utah.

Serra Mothers To Stage Hawaiian Fashion Show

"Hawaiian Holiday" will be the theme of the fourth annual fashion show to be staged by the Junipero Serra High School Mothers' Club on Oct. 14 at 8 p.m. at the school gymnasium, 12850 Van Ness Blvd., Gardena. A social hour will be held from 7 until 8 p.m.

Mrs. Clint Wiley, president, will welcome the guests and Mrs. Floyd A. Woods is serving as general chairman of the event.

Mrs. Jane Musich will serve as commentator for the fashion parade.

Mrs. G. P. Clarke announces that Danny Tyrrell, soloist, will be a special guest and other entertainment will be furnished by the Mathias and Ted Whitting, organists.

Various phases of the show are being handled by the following chairmen: Mrs. Lawrence C. Holland, decorations; Mrs. Edmund Roberts, refreshments; Mrs. Walter Wright and Mrs. H. J. Reagan, table decorations; Mrs. G. V. Clarke, special guests; Mrs. Thomas J. Finckel, door prizes; Mrs. H. J. Reagan, gift opportunities; Mrs. Raymond Souferer, general tickets.

Mr. C. H. McNell is handling the publicity. Mrs. Eugene Varro is advertising.

Mrs. Young Gives Talk

Torrance Woman's Club garden section met Wednesday at the clubhouse. Mrs. Peter Boonstra, section chair, was presiding at the meeting.

Mrs. R. O. Young, guest speaker, was presented by Mrs. John Thum, Mrs. Young's talk was on "Flower Legends and Superstitions."

A social hour followed when cake and coffee were served. Attending the meeting were Meses, Rufus Jackson, R. E. Moffitt, S. J. Dunhouse, G. D. Jeffrey Nelson, H. G. Stevens, Don Wolf, Alvin Smith, George Leverenz, P. L. Hayes, and Miss Lester Maxwell.

Michigan Guests
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loranger, 1144 Post Ave., have had as their guests Mrs. Loranger's nephew and wife, Dr. and Mrs. John Gerald of Royal Oak, Mich. During the visit they will stay the foursome drove to Palm Springs and visited other interesting places in the area.

PAID A TRIBUTE . . . Torrance Business and Professional Woman's Club selected Clara Conner, postmistress, as its "Woman of the Year." She was especially honored by the local club at a luncheon Wednesday and this weekend is being honored at the district B&P.W. convention in Pasadena. At the luncheon table at the Palms Wednesday are, from left, Mrs. Ross Craig, Mrs. Conner and Mrs. Helen Parrish.

Paris Calling

Late, Late Fashion Details For Autumn

Newest fashion details, right from the heart of Paris, are enclosed in a brochure sent by Mrs. King Williams, who is now on a tour of Europe. The brochure comes from 7, Millet Parfumeur, 57 Avenue Franklin D. Roosevelt, Paris 8 (between Faubourg St. Honore and Champs Elysees). These tips on fashion accessories, direct from the world-famous designers, serve to enhance the fabulous new fall fashions.

Newer than new—Dark hued lot stockings, the darkest of all being of course, beautiful black stockings, delicately embroidered along the ankle (Lavinia-Castillo).

Wigs instead of your own hair (Carrin) and wigs instead of hats (Madeleine de Rauch), but, in this case, made of unraveled tweed.

Sweatshirts with long sleeves, collars, capes and ribbons for cuddly clothes (Jacques Heim).

A glamorous black chiffon blouse, with a deep neckline trimmed with black Persian lamb (Balmann).

Ten row jet beads to match with the little black afternoon frock which has made a terrific comeback (Lavinia-Castillo).

Double belts to emphasize the higher waistline—one black, one white (Maggie Rouff).

Fancy coils for fun—a long, pleated leather and round your head in a rather checky way (Swandi), a spring of Holly nestling in a top curl (Jean Patou), a tiny satin hat which fits the top of your head, worn with all the evening gowns (Dior).

A securely smart pull-over made of unraveled fabric, reminiscent of your favorite hoodies (Madeleine de Rauch).

A very Parisian set—two pieces and a pair of gloves made of blue-black (Hanna Green), for morning attire (de Chene de F. Millot).

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"I Was SHOCKED . . ."

Dear Ann Landers: Have you gone out of your mind? My 17-year-old daughter sent for your pamphlet entitled "Necking and Petting and How Far to Go" and it arrived this morning. I waited until she left the house before I went into her room and read it.

I was shocked and horrified to note that in this pamphlet you give advice to young people on HOW TO NECK. Aren't teenagers wild enough without getting encouragement from you? Don't you realize what moral deterioration has taken place these past 20 years? What in the world is the matter with your head that you would put out such dangerous information?

The trouble with kids today is they know too much already. What do you think the teachers and clergymen in this country would say if they saw this stuff? I dare you to print this letter and defend yourself. —Disgusted With You.

Dear Disgusted With Me: I KNOW what many clergymen and teachers would say. But I think they're right. When they read pamphlets like yours they don't know where to go. It's a lot of trouble for you to make them go to Sunday school.

To pretend that high school boys and girls don't have the normal urge to hug and kiss is completely unrealistic. It also indicates a poor memory.

Since necking is here to stay, parents ought to teach their kids how to do it right. —Cope de Chene de F. Millot