Lone Ranger To Appear At Y-Day Event

The indestructible Lone Ranger, now approaching his 25th anniversary with his horse, Silver, will highlight the many stars to appear at the Hollywood Bowl during Y-Day in Hollywood Saturday, Oct. 25.

Joe Wilcox, executive secretary of the Torrance YMCA, made the announcement this week while urging local residents to make their reservations as early as possible for the big Y event, sponsored by the Hollywood YMCA and the Hollywood Advertising Club.

Y-Day in Hollywood will mark its 25th year with a star-studded variety show in Hollywood Bowl and Art Linkletter as emcee. Also included in the bowl show is an amateur contest and prizes.

Wilcox said that radio and television personality Dick Whittinghill will serve as master of ceremonies for the amateur program.

During the afternoon a special section has been reserved for the UCLA-Stanford coming football game at the Los Angeles Coliseum. More than 50 Torrance residents are expected to attend Y-Day this year, said Wilcox. He urged inter-

Tartar Teen Talk

Seniors are very proudly displaying their jackets and sweaters. The senior boy's jacket is beige and coral. The girls' sweater is coral. Both the sweater and jacket are enhanced by a beautiful emblem designed by Senior Class President John Bentwood.

All the Juniors have received their class rings. They are gold decorated with the Tartar crest in the middle. The design also includes the class numerals and initials of the individual student.

The Junior class treated everyone with a cool sno-cone on Tuesday and Wednesday. There was a night charge of course.

There was no football game this week but Friday of next week the Varsity plays Santa Fe at Santa Fe. The "Bees" team will play Santa Fe on Thursday here and the "Ces" team will play on Thursday there.

Next week the girls will be having a "senior week". The Girls League is sponsoring this activity and got it off to a good start by having a movie and talk by Dr. Markham along with a demonstration of good posture by some fellow girl students.

The Boys' League had a Sports and call on Thursday encouraging the boys to go out for sports and showing some of the rules and plays contained in football.

Freshman elections are being held next Friday. These new politicians will be giving their campaign speeches trying for the various class offices.

Everyone was very happy about the spirit and better sportsmanship at the last game. The new system we are trying out is to have all the
