Las Vecinas' Annual Affair Next Sunday

Next Sunday, Oct. 19, is the day of the Las Vecinas Breakfast. In the rotunda at El Retiro Park, Hollywood Riviera, from 7 a.m. until 1 p.m. an excellent Pancake Breakfast will be served to neighbors and friends. Fiestadores Witches Ball Next Saturday

Las Fiestadores will stage its monthly dance, "Witches Ball" on Saturday evening, Oct. 18, at the Palms restaurant with dancing to begin at 9 p.m.

This will not be a costume affair and "dressy" is the keynote for the evening's attire. At midnight, the entire club will go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Clausing, 1542 Post Ave. for a buffet.

The host committee for the dance includes Messrs. and Misses E. E. Clayton, Joe Holphand, Walter Levy, and E. E. Clayton.

Mrs. Lee Washington promises that the Country Store will have more and different merchandise at better prices than ever before. Geissler, A. J. O'Keefe and two provisionals, Mrs. David Halstead and Mrs. Robert Hunt. Mrs. Hunt is doing the art work so that the booth will seem a real pirates' cove.

Fashion - Art Combined For Sisterhood's Show Nov. 3

The art of decorating both herself and her home has long been the foray of the creative woman. An event has been planned by the Sisterhood of Temple Menorah to enrich and stimulate this interest in South Bay women of creative caliber. The event, which is the first of its kind to combine fashion and art, is scheduled for Monday, Nov. 3, 1 p.m. at the Torrance Civic Auditorium, 1349 El Prado, Torrance.

A dessert tea, the affair will feature fall fashions color coordinated to the contemporary paintings of prominent South Bay women. The monochromatic hues and the bold designs of the clothing and the art will illustrate to the audience that the worlds of fashion and of painting are truly aligned.

Mrs. Norman Lumian, Mrs. Robert Eckhouse and Mrs. Vickie Feldon, co-chairmen of the affair, have announced that one lucky guest will receive a chair as a door prize. The affair will feature Ed Siani, prominent master of ceremonies, whose humor and charm will spice the commentaries, adding the appropriate flair to each item and each painting. Mr. Siani is known for his work in television commercials and amateur theatrical groups where he has started in "Country Girl," "Happy Time," "Janus" and "Time of Your Life." His background in theatrics stems from work taken at the Temple University drama group and from his career as an announcer on radio station WIP in Philadelphia. Mr. Siani, a father of three girls, feels he can comment accurately, if not monetarily, on the subject of fashion. The work of seven prominent South Bay artists will enhance the fashion preview. That the basic elements of color coordination, line usage,
