

Mardi Gras Set At Carr School Friday Evening

The spirit of Mardi Gras invades North Torrance this Friday as the pageantry of the famed New Orleans celebration becomes the theme of the Evelyn Carr PTA fall festival.

According to Chairman Mrs. Carl Johnson and Co-chairman Mrs. Norman Wilson, festivities will run from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. and, following the tradition of Mardi Gras, all the children and participating parents are urged to be in costume. There will be a costume parade and prizes to be awarded.

Hot dogs, chili, noodles and tuna, cut pies and cakes, coffee and punch are to be sold in the cafeteria. Cold drinks and popcorn will be sold on the midway. The Sweet Shop is featuring homemade pastries and candy to be taken home.

Mrs. Robert Heyns, midway chairman, has announced that the midway will be attractive as always and there will be many, many prizes. Mrs. S. J. Perry, novelty booth chairman, is prepared with surprises to delight all the children standing.

One of the highlights of the evening will be the student cake contest. Prizes will be awarded for the best cakes, judged from eye and taste appeal. Students will also be awarded prizes for the best "collections" in the hobby display.

Children will be flocking to see themselves in the "Kids You Know" movie. Mrs. John Lopez has been shooting the students on film during their playground activities. Shows will run every few minutes all evening.

The needlework chairman, Mrs. W. G. Schossow, and her helpers have made some fabulous stuffed toys, guaranteed to please young and old. Mrs. R. L. Hohheran is collecting old and new jewelry and promises a very attractive display.

Card Party

St. Margaret Mary's Altar Society will hold its monthly card party this evening at the parish hall, 235th and Eschelman, Lomita. All popular games will be played and there will be prizes and refreshments.

St. Jude's Guild will be hostess. Mrs. Claire Kersten is presiding.

GOLBINS, GHOSTS AND WITCHES . . . The costume parade at 11:30 a.m. will officially open the PTA carnival at Perry School on Oct. 25. There will be games and fun for all. Talking over arrangements (from left, seated) are Mrs. Edward Murawski, first vice president; Mrs. Wendell Morgan, president; Mrs. Ernest Moore, ways and means chairman; Mrs. Glenn Thomas, co-membership. Standing (from left): Mrs. Richard Greenwald, recording secretary; Walter Buettinger, vice principal; and Mrs. James Lamburger, membership chairman.

Carnival at Perry School Slated Oct. 25

One of Perry Elementary School's highlights of the year is the fall school carnival. Food and game booths, cake walk and costume parade is in store for patrons who attend.

The date is Oct. 25, from 11 to 4 p.m. The costume parade starts at 11:30 a.m. Mrs. Richard Greenwald announced the need of White Elephant items for the carnival. Please contact Mrs. Greenwald or Mrs. Edward Murawski.

Headed by Mrs. Ernest Moore, ways and means chairman and Mrs. Wendell Morgan, Perry PTA president, food committee is Miss Ed. Edward Murawski, Robert West, Wendell Morgan, Robert Greenwald, Glenn Thomas, Jerome Lemberger, William D. Lunden and Thomas Depkovich.

Those working on game booths are Misses Willard Wadell, Kenneth Schwarz, Robert Gilliland and John Motta.

The "Cake Walk" booth will be attended by Mrs. Alvin Hansen, Kenneth Judd and T. R.

Art and poster work is being done by Mrs. John Motta and newspaper publicity by Mrs. B. J. Van Meter.

Tickets will be sold by Mrs. Robert Davis and Jack Borland.

COME TO THE MARDI GRAS . . . Tomorrow evening all the gaiety of the Mardi Gras will prevail at the Evelyn Carr School when the PTA stages its annual festival. Shown in costume working out details (from left) are Mrs. Carl Johnson, general chairman; Mrs. John Meyers, jewelry chairman; Mrs. J. R. Allison, president of the PTA, and Mrs. Robert Heyns, midway chairman.

Old West To Spotlight Casimir's 'Fun Carnival'

"Shades of purple people eaters, things are happening at Casimir!" exclaimed Mrs. Les Auguston. "Take a close look—it's a rehearsal of the teachers' Little Theater Group."

Kids, Mom and Dad take this golden opportunity to watch the faculty put on the act. "High Noon" is the title, but mystery surrounds the substance of the show. Only the players are in on the scoop.

It is rumored that show time is 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. and that each performance will last approximately 45 minutes. This extra special act will be only a portion of the festivities offered at the PTA "Mardi Gras" Carnival. This annual fund raising event will be held Oct. 25 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the school.

All the carnival fun fare is

Festival at Arlington On Halloween

All parents as well as the students at Arlington School will celebrate Halloween by wearing costumes and attending the Halloween Carnival to be held on the school grounds, Oct. 31 from 5:30 until 9:30 p.m. Mrs. Walter Vess, ways and means chairman of the Arlington PTA is general chairman of the event.

Games booths with a new giant pumpkin will provide fun for all ages. During the supper hours, a snack supper will be served in the school cafeteria under the direction of Mrs. Hervie Blue and her committee.

After supper, dancing by the teenagers will be enjoyed. Records will provide the dance music.

Mrs. M. H. Spaulding is handling the publicity for the event.

FUNNY, WEIRD AND ORIGINAL . . . Children at the Arlington School are busy whipping up their costumes for the annual Halloween carnival to be held at the school on Oct. 31 from 5:30 until 9:30 p.m. Parents are also asked to come in costume. Modeling what they will be wearing (from left) are Cathy Allen, 6; Millie Anderson, 9; Billy Spindler, 8; Barbara Stuller, 9; Susan Audent, 3; Schott Holmes, 6, and Billy Wilder, 5, as the witch.
