

"Parent, be yourself—realize and accept your limitations" was a point emphasized by Robert Wilson at the October PTA meeting of Casimir Elementary School. The guest speaker is affiliated with the State Mental Hygiene Clinic and spoke on the subject "Outlook at Home." He stressed that positive emotions such as love and anger need to be expressed with children so that they will accept their own emotions as being normal. "A child needs the feeling that he is loved for just what he is," Mr. Wilson stated, "and it is up to parents to supply that feeling."

Beginning a second term of presidency, Mrs. Barton O. Peters called the meeting to order. Following the Pledge of Allegiance led by Carl Steele, Troop 600, S. E. Waldrip spoke on the school bond issue. Mr. Dunworth, principal, welcomed the parents and introduced the faculty.

Mrs. Peters presented the executive board members: first vice president, Mrs. Norman L. Boy; second vice president, Mr. John Dunworth; third vice president, Mrs. Les Auguston; fourth vice president, Mrs. Darphus Omeron; recording secretary, Mrs. Bert M. Cook; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. F. Hunter; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Heberlein; auditor, Mr. W. J. Keberlein; historian, Mrs. L. K. Nelson; parliamentary, Mrs. W. Kimble; character and spiritual, Mrs. R. H. Schroeder; homereading and library, Mrs. Philip Keller; and Mrs. R. W. Gladys; mental health, Mrs. Oziar K. Malini; hospitality, Mrs. Michael C. Agular; and Mrs. Patrick S. Narey; finance and budget, Mrs. L. G. Auguston; honorary life membership, Mrs. T. Rogers; magazine and emblems, Mrs. Theodore D. Wegener; music, Mrs. W. J. Keberlein; membership, Mrs. D. L. Omeron; newslette, Mrs. Thomas W. Knighten; parent education, Mrs. L. G. Graham; publicity, Mrs. G. C. Benson; record book, Mrs. Robert F. Wayland; welfare, Mrs. B. J. Binyon; safety, Mrs. Dean Neidhardt; room representative, Mrs. Don Lynch; and Mrs. T. D. Wegener; legislation, Dale Wickstrom; art, Mrs. R. Gladys; dental health, Mrs. Jack Landsberg; and citizenship, Mrs. Walter A. Remak.

The main topic of business concerned the fund raising carnival which is to be held Oct. 25 from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the school. Mrs. Les Auguston, chairman, reported the need for canned goods and "white elephants" for the various booths.

"Know Your School" will be the theme of the parent education programs. Mrs. L. G. Graham, chairman announced. She urged all parents to sign for a tour of the school which will be conducted every Wednesday morning. The association approved the recommendation from the board to continue support of the milk and lunch fund and also the Torrance Council scholarship fund.

The next association meeting will be held Nov. 12 with the program topic to be "The Tragedy of Dope." An officer from the narcotics bureau will be guest speaker.

Arlington

Arlington Elementary PTA held its first meeting of the year on Oct. 9 with Mrs. Francis Studer, president, in charge. A social hour preceded the meeting with executive board members serving as hostesses.

The teachers and the new vice principal, Henry Behrens, were introduced by Malcolm Richland. This was followed by an introduction of the board members by Mrs. M. H. Spaulding, who read an amusing verse about each one's home state.

The featured chairman for the evening was Mrs. W. E. Inman, who urged all parents to join PTA. She presented a baseball skit and the officers represented the players on the team. A student from each class was the cheering section and each carried a placard showing how many parents had joined in their respective towns. Diane McBye from the 7th grade, won the award for the best essay on "Why Parents Should Join PTA."

An unusually large crowd was in attendance at this meeting and Robert C. Morton, Director of Personnel for the Torrance Unified School District, told of the importance of the bond issue and its purpose in helping to build new schools and new wings to relieve the problem of double sessions.

223rd Street

First regular meeting of the 223rd St. School PTA was held Tuesday, Oct. 14, at 1:30 p. m. in the school auditorium.

The meeting was brought to order by Mrs. James Gonderman, president.

The program for the day was introduced by Mrs. Virgil Johnson, program chairman.

A skit was put on by the children, written and directed by Mrs. Alberta Morris, 3rd grade teacher.

A song and dance skit was put on by six of PTA mothers for membership. In the skit were Nimes Carl Laursen, Donald King, Paul Kelso, Gene Leroy, Harry Hill, Edward Clark.

The rooms of Mrs. Terry and Mrs. Helen Hausman received books for having the most parents present for the lower grades. For the upper grades Mitchell Atlas's room won.

The teachers were introduced by Mrs. Eleanor Kennedy, the school principal.

Nov. 18 will be the next meeting. It will be a night meeting and will be fathers night.

Howard Wood

"Operation Safety" was the theme of the Oct. 16 meeting of the Howard Wood PTA held in the school's cafeteria.

Guest speaker was Officer Don Bartel of the Torrance Police Dept., who highlighted his talk with helpful suggestions on all phases of safety for children and adults.

The new officers of the Student Council were introduced following their election last week at the school.

The Mothersingers of the PTA sang a beautiful selection "Pale Moon" and were led by Mrs. Cecil Davey, music chairman.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by kindergarten mothers.

Elementary

Mrs. J. T. McClure, president, was in charge of the regular Torrance Elementary PTA board meeting at the school on Oct. 8.

Mrs. Harry Toman discussed the progress of the picture taking ways and means project, a Halloween carnival at the school on Oct. 31.

The following chairmen were ratified by the board: Mrs. H. F. Heinlein, teachers luncheon; Mrs. John Taylor, spiritual education; Mrs. W. R. Campbell, magazines; Mrs. Irene Morgan, music; and Mrs. John King, co-chairman of programs.

Mrs. McClure announced that members of the board would be hostesses at the PTA meeting Oct. 16. Mrs. R. Sorenson served as chairman.

The next board meeting will be held Nov. 13 at 9:30 a. m.

Members present were D. Boone Kirk, principal, and Mrs. J. T. McClure, Lee Dutton, B. S. Griffin, J. J. Muller, E. G. Metzger, V. E. Lessinger, Harold Irvine, E. Friberg, R. V. Figueroa, Ted Whisnand, C. R. Rivol, Frank Curantino, N. B. Matulich, R. A. Bingham, D. J. Timmons, George Crabtree, J. A. Roventstein, Harry Toman, R. Sorenson and W. R. Campbell.

Fern-Greenwood

"T in PTA Means Teacher" was the theme of the Fern-Greenwood PTA meeting Thursday evening at the school. A tea panel on Multigrade classes was interesting and informative.

Mrs. Edward Conry, president, announced the ratification of the following chairmen: Mrs. N. S. Goodrich, character and spiritual education; J. S. McGee, juvenile protection; Mrs. Robert Ulrich, movies and TV; Mrs. C. W. Bartholomew, music; Mrs. Alex Egger and Mrs. E. R. White, registration; Mrs. K. M. Peterson and Mrs. R. L. Swartz, room representation; Herman Goodman, safety; and Mrs. D. D. Watkins, telephone and transportation.

Mrs. G. E. Northington, ways and means chairman reported that the paper drive was a success and announced another for the early part of 1959.

She also announced that the Christmas Marionette Show will again be held at the school.

Walteria

Southern draws and eastern humor were separated at the recent general meeting of the Walteria PTA when all the eighty-six attending were seated at tables bearing the name of their native state. Contrary to some expectation, California did outnumber the others.

Part of this first meeting was given to the introduction of board members and teachers.

Guest speaker for the meeting was Dr. Max Applebee of the Torrance Unified School District. Mr. Applebee spoke on the school bond issue and the need for more school financing.

Attendance prize was won by the rooms of Mrs. Elmor Courtney and John Lish.

During the business meeting, the budget for the coming year was presented and approved. Also approved were the plans for holding the annual carnival in January 1959 instead of October. Proceeds from the carnival are designated for the welfare fund including the milk fund, dental health, scholarship and American Field Service.

Next big date for the Walteria PTA is the paper drive on Oct. 29. The next general meeting of the organization will be Nov. 13 with the title "The More We Get Together."

Dr. Ted Cyphert was the guest speaker at the October meeting of Carl Steele PTA. "What do Schools Expect of Parents" was the topic chosen for the evening.

Mrs. Thomas Greene, president, opened the meeting. The Boy Scout Troop 372 led the Pledge of Allegiance and Mrs. Lorman Griffith conducted the Mothersingers as they sang the inspirational, "No Man is an Island."

Mrs. Jerrold Doyle, music chairman, announced that one interested in singing with the Mothersingers should contact her.

Membership chairman, Mrs. David Forbes, reported that many parents have joined the PTA and many more are expected before the drive ends.

Mrs. Greene announced that there will be a paper drive Nov. 21. Parents are urged to start saving for this drive now.

Board members were introduced by Mrs. Greene, the vice president and Mr. R. K. Petrol, chairman. Mr. Petrol introduced the new staff members.

"The Bond Issue and You" was presented by Dr. Cyphert and Mr. Petrol.

Refreshments were served to more than 100 parents, teachers and friends in attendance by Mrs. Ivan Jurco, tea chairman and Mrs. Leo Fischer, hospitality chairman.

Dining Out

Entertaining at dinner at The Polynesian in Waleria recently were numerous localites, among them Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Friedmann of Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Solon W. Hollingsworth of Waleria, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. McBride of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. George George of Torrance.

Southwood National Little League Women's Auxiliary has elected officers for the coming Little League baseball season.

At a meeting held Sept. 18, Mrs. Thomas DePetris, president, turned over the chair to Mrs. Charles Bongard.

21014 Linda Dr. Mrs. Edward Mooney is the new vice-president and Mrs. Raloh Hogue is the new secretary. Mrs. Lester Hanson is treasurer. Mrs. T. Conger, ways and means chairman, and Mrs. DePetris, purchasing agent.

Auxiliary meetings will be held on the first Wednesday of each month.

Named to Board

At their recent annual election and dinner meeting in Catholic Women's Club in Los Angeles, Mrs. Howard M. Owen of Torrance was elected a member of the board of directors of the Past Grand Regents Club of Spurbert, California.

Mrs. Owen served as grand regent of the local group, Court St. Catherine, during the 1949-1950 year.

On Friday evening Mrs. Owen attended her first executive board meeting in Los Angeles at which time plans were made for the annual Memorial Mass for deceased members. Scheduled this year for Sunday, Nov. 2, the 9 a. m. mass at St. Vibiana's Cathedral will be followed by breakfast at the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The PGR Club acts for the state regent in sponsoring this event.
