DEADLINE NEARS FOR NROTC QUALIFYING TEST

High school seniors and graduates have only until Nov. 15 to apply for the Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps, F. D. Fields, CSI, Torrance area Navy Recruiter, said today.

Applicants will take the nationwide competitive examination Dec. 13 as the first step toward an appointment as midshipman.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a regular commission while studying at the civilian college of his choice which has an NROTC unit. All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy and the student receives an annual retainer of $600 for four years. During summers the student goes on fascinating training cruises to many parts of the world. After completing the usual four-year college course, he is commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty as a prospective career officer with the Navy's far-flung fleets.

High school seniors and graduates between the ages of 17 and 21 may apply for the NROTC aptitude test. Those who make a qualifying score will be given a rigid physical exam early in 1959. From the pool of qualified young men remaining in competition, approximately 1800 will be selected to begin their naval careers next September.

The NROTC college training program is also open to enlisted men on active duty with the Navy and Marines. Separate quotas are established for ap-

Melodrama to Open Tomorrow At ECC Theater

"Please Marry My Nellie," an old-time melodrama complete with olio acts will open at 8:30 tomorrow evening, in the El Camino College Campus Theatre. Repeat performances are scheduled for Nov. 1, 6, 7, and 8.

Written by Lyle Clark, drama instructor at the college, the original three-act play recently completed a 15-week engagement at the Silver Slipper in Las Vegas.

Beverly Adams will play the title role in the production. Miss Adams can list appearances at the Pasadena Playhouse, UCLA and Occidental to her credit.

Marvin Kirschman from ABC-TV "Talent Varieties" plays opposite Miss Adams as "Truman Goodblood." Kirschman has been in musicals and dramas at The White Horse, Beach Theatre and at Pepperdine College.

Other members of the cast are: K. Lyle O'Dell, portraying the villain; Bonita Flagg, who plays the role of "poor widow"; Margery Ruth, as WCTU leader Sally Vinton; Michael B. Lauman as "Lush" and Gary Thompson, as "the bartender."

Olio acts and a community sing will be led by Buddy Youngreen, assisted by Penny Fry.

Lollipop Set Sets Morning Masquerade

Pint-sized witches and goblins will get an early start on Halloween at a morning masquerade to be held for the children of Coast Nursery School, 4385 Sharyane Lane tomorrow from 9 a.m. to noon.

Occupying the tiny costumed celebrants will be the pasting of black cats and pumpkins. In place of the usual juice and crackers served mid-way during the nursery school morning, orange and black frosted cupcakes and cut-out cookies prepared by the mothers will be served.

Chairman for the masquerade is Mrs. Nelson Pitxley, vice-president of the cooperative nursery. Assisting her will be Mrs. Gerald Billings, Mrs. Guff Worth and Mrs. Bob Burks, and Mrs. John Schmitz, president.

Teacher for the group is Mrs. Azile Kokos.

Local Actors To Perform In Hollywood

The magic and enchantment of Old Persia will be relived at the first Children's Theatre festival sponsored by the American National Theatre and Academy when The School of the Magnolia Theatre takes its musical fantasy "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" to the NBC El Capitan Theatre in Hollywood on Nov. 16 and 16.

"Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" was previously presented at the Chapel Theatre in Manhattan Beach in September of 1957 and in San Pedro at Dana Junior High in March of 1958 before an audience of 1,500 for the Pomona Committee for the Southern California Symphony Assn.

Director is Ridge Walker of 1817 W. 257 St., Lomita. Lois Wright of 456 E. 220 St. plays the female lead, "Scheherazade." Other Torrance residents appearing in the play are Bernard and Charlene French who share the four-legged role of "Nubbed, the camel."
