Brownie Troop 148
Mrs. Robert W. youth chairman of the Las Vegas, has announced the formation of a new brownie troop for third grade girls at the Riviera school. Troop 148 will meet each Thursday at the home of troop leader Mrs. Paul Johnson, 5337 Via del Valle. Co-leader is Mrs. Gene Voorhes.

Brownie Troop 2080
Brownies of Troop 2080 recently elected Peggy Christensen as president and Lorraine Lindsey to be hostess for the group. Two patrols were formed.

Members of the new troop include: Karen Alexander, Sue Ann Cooley, Pam Kinko, Lois Frampton, Marsha Johnson, Susan Montooth, Diane Rink, Alice Voorhes, Christine Waldock and Maida Wolf.

Led by Cookie Trader, the "Brownie Elves Patrol" will include Rena Pierce, treasurer for the Elves; Elaine DeOrto.

Boy Scout Troop 211
Boy Scout Troop 211 participated in the annual Camporee last week end at Peck's Park, San Pedro. This Camporee has as its theme, the "Gold Rush Days" and was sponsored by the Los Angeles Council of Boy Scouts.

Each patrol and troop entered in all phases of Scout learning skills and earned points throughout the day. By doing this, they each won a neckerchief which was a replica of a gold miner's cap and shovel.

Boys attending were Ronnie Dixon, Billy Wascenberg, Steven Brown, Gordie Jones, John Neuker, Ronnie Cooke, David Ramsey, Jeff Braswell, Larry Melphand, Paul Roy, Bruce Hamilton, David Fischer, Dale and Don Bill, Kenneth Grant, Keith Neilson, Cecil Starratt, and Jack Thomas.

Scoutmaster Don Cooke was assisted by Gordon Jones, Tony Schnell, Jack Roy. The troop is sponsored by Howard Wood School PTA and meets every Wednesday at the school at 7 p.m.

secretary and Lorraine Lindsey, Darleen Eaton, Donna Clayton, Cynthia Dawson and Susan Coleman.

The "Bird of Paradise" Patrol will be led by Judy Duncan and will include Gwendolyn Hawkins, treasurer; Jackie Bonavita, secretary; and Alice Ringey, Peggy Christensen, Gail Kerns and Cheryl Milligan.

Mrs. Ray Bonavita and Mrs. Paul Eaton are the leaders of Troop 2080 which is sponsored by Carl Steele PTA.

At a skating party for families of Brownie Troop 2080 held recently at the Tor-Rol-Drome, prizes were won as follows: Donna Clayton, Brownie race; Brownie Alice Ringey, girls' race; Bobby Pierce, boys' race; and Mrs. Wiley Duncan, mothers' race.

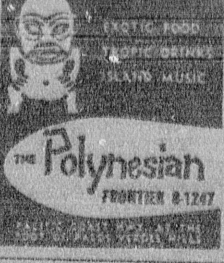

Boy Scout Troop 730
Troop 730 of North Torrance was represented by 22 Scouts and seven adult leaders at the Harbor District Semi-Annual Camporee recently held at Peck Park in San Pedro.

The four patrols, under the guidance of Richard Hayes, scoutmaster; Harold Ramsey, assistant scoutmaster; and Leonard Chanda, Jr., senior patrol leader, participated in the God's Bush Days achievement program.

Patrol achievements included setting up a tent, knot tying, blindfolded, wood lore, compass reading and mapmaking, first aid, wood chopping, and fire building.

The Raven patrol under Wayne Johnson, patrol leader, was awarded the most "gold"

Educator Backs Proposition 3
"Providing adequate academic facilities to meet the pressures which will be placed upon the higher educational institutions is a matter of vital importance to everyone," Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of the Torrance Unified School District, declared today.

Dr. Hull urged passage of Proposition 3, the $200,000,000 state construction bond issue, principally for higher education buildings.

By 1966 the present 94,000 full-time students in the U. S. California and the state colleges will more than double to 215,000.
