Mrs. Hanson Contributes Spareribs, and Pie Recipes

Mrs. Arthur Hanson, 3140 W. 177th St., is the featured guest in today's Favorite Recipe column. The Hansons, Mr. and Mrs., and their three daughters, Janet, Joan and Beverly, moved to Torrance from Westchester in 1955. They came from Harvey, Ill., in 1951.

Mrs. Hanson is first vice-president of Crenshaw PTA, is leader of Girl Scout troop 323 and a Brownie leader since 1955.

Besides her busy schedule as a housewife and mother, Mrs. Hanson's hobbies are music and reading.

Mr. Hanson is tool engineer working for Hermo Mfg. Co. He is also a volunteer deputy sheriff of Los Angeles County.

Their daughters Janet, 9, and Joan, 6, are students at Crenshaw school.

Mrs. Hanson's two recipes are California Spareribs for her adopted state and Harvey's Chocolate Pie named for her hometown.

CALIFORNIA SPARERIBS

3 lbs. lean spareribs

Bake in 275 degree oven for 15 minutes, then baste every half hour with the following sauce:

2 tbsp butter
1 onion (med) sliced
2 tbsp tarragon vinegar
2 tbsp Worchestershire sauce
2 tbsp lemon juice
1 thick slice lemon
2 tbsp brown sugar
1 small garlic clove
1 cup catsup
¾ cup water
1 tsp dry mustard
¼ tsp black pepper
¼ tsp chili powder
⅛ tsp cayenne
1 tbsp paprika (opt)

Simmer onion in butter until soft; add remaining ingredients, including lemon slice and cook slowly for 20 minutes.

Total cooking time of ribs 2 hours, 15 min. Sauce keeps well in refrigerator for several weeks.

HARVEY'S CHOCOLATE PIE

¾ cup sugar
¾ cup milk
⅛ tsp salt
1 env. Knox gelatin
1 egg yolk
3 oz. baking chocolate
½ tsp vanilla
1 cup evaporated milk (chilled)

Cook all ingredients together in top of double boiler until dissolved and mixture thickens slightly. Chill in refrigerator until gelatin begins to set, then whip until smooth. Fold in whipped evaporated milk; pour into baked, cooled pastry shell. Top with layer of unsweetened whipped cream. Chill for 24 hours before serving. For a party touch, sprinkle top with ½ square shaved chocolate.

"This is a comparatively inexpensive chocolate pie," says Mrs. Hanson, "and is good for company as it can be successfully prepared a day ahead."

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

To the People of the 68th Assembly District:

Dear Fellow Residents, 68th Assembly District:

A majority of voters from both the Democratic and Republican parties have again selected me in the primary election to serve another term as your representative in the California State Legislature. This wonderful vote of confidence means that I had foregone the arduous task of campaigning in the general election.

However, while my campaigning may be over, my feeling of gratitude compels me to take this inadequate but nevertheless sincere means of thanking all those whose support has sent me to Sacramento for 18 consecutive years as representative of the 68th Assembly District.

I have had the good fortune to be your Assemblyman since 1941 and I again pledge to all of you that I will use the years of experience and seniority you have helped me to attain by, in turn, continuing to attain many more new improvements and benefits for our District and its fine residents.

Gratefully yours,

VINCENT THOMAS

Assemblyman

Y-Teen Leaders from Area Attend Training Conclave

Y-teen leaders from the entire Harbor area YWCA, including those from branches in Wilmington, Torrance and San Pedro, and a center in Gardena attended a leadership training conference at Camp Ta'quitz Meadows on Oct. 24-25.

"Modern World's Challenge of Today's Youth—Middle East and America" was the theme of the keynote speaker, Mrs. Joel Canby, Torrance branch director.

Following Mrs. Canby's talk the conference divided into discussion groups to consider the implications for Y-teens in this area.

Specific training was included for presidents with Susan Saari and Karen Griffin in charge; vice presidents, Carolyn Taylor and Betty Waite; secretaries, Flora Watson and Joan Marjala; treasurers, Sue Chapman, Toni Budrovich; publicity, Marien Daniels and Mrs. Canby; interclub council representatives, Joyce Keeler, Mary West; chaplains, Terry Neldon and Maren Courtney. In addition there was a group to which members who are not officers were assigned. This was handled by Joy Bebbling and Donna Moore.

In addition to specific training the girls had an opportunity to exchange ideas on club program and activities as there were "swap shops." These were led by Margaret Huggan, Mildred Hall, Carol Brough, Sarah Guin, Barbara de la Cruz, and Connie Muir.

Adults who accompanied the group are: Mrs. Eliot Graves, Mrs. Harry Knempfer, Mrs. Archie Watson, Mrs. Paul Heger, Mrs. J. B. Brennan, Mrs. Canby, Mrs. Bernice Snow and Mrs. Mark Rogers.

wears nylons she should try to achieve that satin-smooth look, even if it means some "doing";

(e) Light lipstick (discreetly applied) at age 14 is O.K. unless the school objects;

(f) Where does the boy live and who is paying for the long distance call? If it's out of your allowance it's one thing—if it's Papa who pays, take it up with him;

(g) What decisions, Teets? You are welcome.—Ann Landers.

Dear Ann Landers: I've been going with a girl 22 years old for 18 months. I'm 29. I gave her a ring for her birthday in July and we've been looking at bungalows to buy. The wedding date is set for the Sunday before Christmas. I'm very much in love and thought it was the same with her.

Last night she told me she's been thinking things over and the seriousness of marriage is just beginning to dawn on her. She wants to postpone the wedding and "look around" for three months.

I'm so shaken up over this I don't know if I should let her have the three months or tell her to return my ring and look around for the rest of her life if she wants to. Please tell me what to do. I'm plenty muddled up right now.—Nick.

By all means consider this a lucky break and not a heart break. It's far better to call off an engagement than to carry doubts to the altar and THEN look around.

Tell her you're perfectly willing to give her three months to "look around" and make it clear you will be looking, too. Under the circumstances, she should return the ring. Maybe three months is the rat-race will persuade her that you're quite a prize after all. Then YOU decide if SHE'S such a bargain, and call the shots.

Dear Ann: When you told the parents of the 19-year-old private to keep their hands in their pockets and take them out only to wave goodbye, you said a mouthful. Kids who marry young and expect their folks to support them are a disgrace.

My husband is an Army sergeant. We've been married 15 years and have five children. We've had to make it on our own, and it feels mighty good. I've seen times when we took the food from our plates to give it to the kids. They can appreciate a candy bar and an ice cream cone more than most youngsters.

My father lent us money but we had to sign a note and if we didn't pay, we'd have been reported to the company commander, just like anyone else. My dad always said we should stand on our own two feet so we could look him in the eye and say NO to his suggestions instead of feeling obligated. There's nothing as great as the feeling of independence. I feel sorry for grown people who don't have it.—Army Wife.

Confidentially: IGNORED: Never saw a man yet who did not prefer a live doll to a TV picture. Get busy and give that "cuckoo box" some live competition.

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "What To Expect From Marriage," enclosing with your request 35 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Austria Notable Entertained in Torrance Home

Mr. Mandl spoke little English but expressed interest in our facilities for exhibitions and sports events as his country is planning an Olympic type arena. His hosts took the Austrian on a sightseeing tour of Hollywood Bowl, Rose Bowl and the Coliseum.

Joining the group at the Jacobson home were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boulker and Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Greenspan.

An interesting workshop on corsage making was held recently at the home of Mrs. George Shipway. Mrs. Merrill Peavy, president, was leader of this workshop and at its fruitful conclusion those attending the workshop concurred with Mrs. Peavy when she said, "To make a corsage only three things are really necessary: (1) a love of working with flowers, (2) a sense of color and design, and (3) practice."

At the October meeting Mrs. John Glenn was elected treasurer of the club following the resignation of Mrs. Lawrence Murdock.

Members who attended this October meeting did not arrive empty-handed. They brought rummage which was given to the District 2 rummage sale in San Pedro on Oct. 22. Several members assisted Mrs. Agnes Wright, district ways and means chairman, in sorting the rummage sold at the Assistance League of San Pedro.

Mrs. Merrill Peavy attended the District 2 meeting on Oct. 17 at Mottell & Peek's Garden Room in Long Beach and gave a brief report of the club's activities.

Riviera Garden Club was recently the recipient of a prize in the blue whale contest. It won a 32nd place tie and as its award the club received a society membership in the Horticulture Society of England.

Members began a "do-it-yourself" project when they decided to compile a flower arrangement notebook for the club. Magazine photographs of striking arrangements, detailed diagrams of flower arrangement shapes will find their way into the notebook which the members will then be able to use whenever desired.

Riviera Garden Club is an affiliate of California Garden Clubs, Inc.
