Howard Wood PTA Festival Scheduled for Saturday

Saturday, Nov. 8, will be "Harvest Festival" time at the Howard Wood School when the PTA stages its annual carnival on the school grounds. The time for the affair has been set at 2:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

El Nido

El Nido PTA held its first meeting of the year on Oct. 3, with Mrs. Ira Hon, president, in charge. Girl Scout Troop 1383 led the Pledge of Allegiance. Mrs. Stage, the fifth grade teacher, gave the inspirational.

The association approved the proposed budget for 1958-1959 and agreed to sponsor Girl Scout Troop 1383 and Brownie Troop 2255. Edwin Brown, principal, introduced the teachers for the coming year.

Dr. A. N. Posner was guest speaker on the topic, "Begin to Know Your Schools Better." He was preceded by a panel discussion by five eighth grade students on "What the Eighth Grade Thinks About the Bond Election."

Mrs. H. Muranaka is general chairman of the carnival. Assisting her are committee members Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crossman, Mrs. C. W. Strahn and Mrs. Paul Brasswell.

Down the midway will be colorful booths including a fish pond, string pull, hoopla, skeet ball, tic tac toe, darts, bean bag, rollaway ring toss, movies, balloons and a cake walk. PTA members, teachers and scout groups will handle all games. Foods of all kinds will be offered for sale, such as chili, hot dogs, popcorn, all kinds of sweets and soft drinks.

A Country Store will offer all kinds of items and there will be needlecraft and plants on sale.

Music and square dancing will be new features of this year's affair.

Ice cream, candied apples and homemade candy will be sold by the PTA sponsored Scout troops.

The public is invited to join in the fun.

South High

South High PTA will hold its monthly meeting in the school library Tuesday, Nov. 4, at 7:30.

The topic will be "Discipline, Citizenship and Counseling." Miss Ross, girls' adviser, will outline Guidance Service. Mrs. O'Connor, work experience advisor, Vocational Counseling, Mr. Dean, attendance advisor, Testing, and Mr. Lucas, assistant principal, Citizenship and Discipline. There will be a question and answer period following the panel discussion.

At the October executive board meeting Mrs. David Sokoloff, PTA president, presented the following names for ratification: Mrs. J. P. Freer, welfare chairman; Mrs. Raymond Enright, Newslette and Blam Ouckerman, society.

Dr. W. B. Wagner and Mrs. William Allen thanked the board members for their fine work in helping put through the bond issue. Work has been started on the library, cafeteria and the two story class rooms, the third section of South High. The gym should be in use by December.

GHOSTS, GOBLINS, WITCHES... One of the biggest events on the school calendar is being enjoyed here by youngsters at the Seaside school. Last Saturday the PTA staged its annual Carnival for parents and youngsters. Games, movies, food and a costume parade were the order of the day.

G-W Council

"Counseling for Better Understanding in Child Welfare" will be the program topic for the November meeting of Gateway Council to be held on Monday morning, Nov. 3, at 10 o'clock at San Pedro High School, 1001 W. 15th St., San Pedro.

Featured speakers will be Youth District Chairman, Mrs. E. E. Fish, Emergency Child Relief and Student Aid and Mrs. Glad Myers (Wilmington), Exceptional Children.

San Pedro High PTA executive board members will be hostesses at the noon luncheon following the meeting.

Anza

A record crowd of approximately 350 people attended the first general meeting of the Anza PTA of the year. A "Pie and Ice Cream Social" was held before the meeting. Songs and recitations by the kindergarten classes, introduction of the faculty, and a "Family Circle" made up the program.
