

CAMPAIGN SMILES . . . Congressman Pat Hillings of Arcadia smiles broadly when Mrs. John Beeman (left) and Mrs. R. A. Bingham (right) both of Torrance, report to him that his campaign for attorney general of California has gained such impetus, especially in the Torrance area, that victory now is certain on Nov. 4. Mrs. Beeman and Mrs. Bingham are co-chairmen of the Torrance Women's Committee for Pat Hillings.

SEEK NEW BEAUTY QUEEN . . . Preparing to relinquish the title of "Miss Torrance" is Mrs. Norman Lovelady, the former Sharon Starns, whose reign terminates Dec. 31. With her is Lt. A. S. Thompson, president of the Torrance Area Youth Band, who is seeking a successor. Co-sponsor of the beauty pageant is the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

"Miss Torrance" Beauty Contest Seeks Applicants

Entry blanks are now available for the sixth annual Miss Torrance contest, according to James Van Dyck, director of the Torrance Area Youth Band. Van Dyck said that this year's pageant slated for Saturday night, Dec. 6 at the Civic Auditorium, is sponsored by his organization in cooperation with the Torrance Chamber of Commerce. Entry blanks are available now at the Chamber office, 1345 El Prado.

The winner of the contest will be crowned "Miss Torrance" and will act as official hostess at all civic functions for one year. She will represent the City of Torrance on the float in the Tournament of Roses Parade on January 1 and will receive a huge trophy plus other prizes, including two tickets to the Rose Bowl football game.

FOUR RUNNERS-UP will receive trophies and possibly an opportunity to ride in the Tournament of Roses Parade, depending on the final design of the float.

To qualify girls must be unmarried and between the ages of 15½ and 30 years. She must not have held the title previously and be sponsored by a Torrance individual, industry, business, or civic organization with an entry fee of $25.
