Thriftmart Chain Celebrating 25th Year in Food Marketing

Twenty-eight years of steady, upward growth will be celebrated by Thriftmart with a gigantic anniversary sale beginning today, according to R. M. Laverty, president. This significant milestone will be highlighted by scores of specially priced grocery bargains in the 47 markets operated by Thriftmart throughout the Los Angeles County.

The history of Thriftmart markets dates to September 1930. Starting as an operator of grocery departments, Thriftmart soon branched out to embrace other units and eventually assumed the operation of complete supermarkets. Since its formation, Thriftmart has carried forward a carefully planned program of expansion. Its 47 supermarkets in Los Angeles County reflect the growing preference of home makers to do all household buying in one conveniently located and comprehensively stocked supermarket.

TODAY THRIFTMART markets offer a full range of commodities... meats, groceries, produce, liquors, delicatessen items, housewares, cosmetic and drug sundries. Some outlets include such additional departments as gift shops, notion sections, flower shops, snack
