Gala Dance Saturday Opens Teen-Canteen

Come "rock 'n roll" in a Gay Nineties atmosphere is the invitation extended to teen-agers of the area as their new Teen-Canteen is formally opened with a dance on Saturday evening, Nov. 8, from 8 until 12 p.m. The Teen-Canteen, located in the east wing of the YMCA in Torrance, has been recently redecorated in the "Gay Nineties" decor. Along with decorating the canteen, floodlights have been installed in the parking lot. The Teen Council has been formed to manage the Canteen with the YMCA officials and the Torrance Junior Women's Club serving in advisory capacities. The council consists of the original committee: Norman Bostick, temporary chairman; Mary Porter, treasurer; Paul Slyk and two representatives from each of the local high schools — Barbara Wilson, secretary, and Bob Smith, Torrance High; Bruce Jenkins and Bob Pettipiece, South High; Karen Flaystine and Cappy Phillips, North High. The canteen is a "Build-a-Better-Community" project of the Torrance Junior Women's Club for the youth in this area. The Juniors, under the direction of Mrs. Donald R. DeGaur, will provide the refreshments for the first dance at no charge. Mrs. Joseph Rovian, youth chairman; James K. Lees, John P. Schwartz and Russell M. Clawson will serve as chaperones from the Junior Club. Music for dancing will be furnished by the jukebox and there will be games and entertainment.

Ann Landers Nov. 7 Set Aside As World Day

If your husband has brothers and sisters they should all pitch in and send Mama by train or plane. If he's an only child you're stuck. Ask a neighbor or friend if your son can stay with them for a week while you're away. It's better than leaving him alone and worrying about him. You must get Grandma to the reunion somehow, or she'll never forgive you. If she's in her 90's this could be her last chance. Your husband owes this to his mother and you should put yourself out and do whatever is necessary to see that she gets there.

Dear Ann: We bought a lovely home in the suburbs. My husband is very handy and decided to put in a walk from the garage to the back door. The neighbor's children, 9 and 11, got busy and carved some bad words in the fresh cement. They must have done it at night which makes us wonder why their parents don't keep a closer watch on them. We like to have a good relationship with our neighbors yet we don't think we should let this matter drop just to avoid unpleasantness. How should this be handled?—D.S.F.

Tell your neighbors you like their children in the abstract but not in the concrete. Show them the handiwork so they may be well informed when they speak to their children about it. Be friendly to the kids and invite them to assist in mixing the new batch of concrete. When children assist with a project they seldom wreck it.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for AN'S LAXATIVE now. Let "Help For The Alcoholic" accompany your request. 20 cents in cash and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problem. Send them to her in care of this newspaper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. 17, 1888, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Local Girls' Club Joins Celebration

Pioneer Girls' Club members of the Torrance First Baptist Church are joining with 35,000 other girls in the United States, Canada, and several foreign countries in celebrating Pioneer Girls' Week.

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 4, the girls joined their pals for a banquet in the church Fellowship Hall. Mrs. Delores Mitchell, committee chairman, was in charge and a lively program was given partly devoted to the girls' demonstration of a regular club meeting. The national theme, "Today—Important in Her Tomorrow," was emphasized in a short play.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 5, the club attended the regular midweek prayer and Bible study hour in the church sanctuary.

This week's regular club meeting will be an open house meeting at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 8, in Fellowship Hall, with Mrs. Pat Kardin and Mrs. Terry Ouncough in charge. All girls living in the area are invited to attend.

The Pioneer Girls of Torrance First Baptist Church are members of an international organization started nearly 20 years ago by a few college students in Wheaton, Ill., now sponsored by churches of more than 200 denominations with headquarters in Chicago. Meetings weekly for crafts, games, singing, and Bible study, girls from 8 to 15 have opportunity for well-rounded development, leadership training, and earned achievements in such fields as domestic arts, sports, music, camping and citizenship. The emphasis of the program is on spiritual training applied to daily living.
