

MUSIC AND SONG . . . These Freddie Gray orchestra members and their singer will provide dance music and entertainment for guests attending the Nativity Mothers' Club Harvest Moon Ball next Saturday evening. Mrs. Norris Carstenson, chairman, announces that club members are now selling tickets which will also be available at the door on the night of the dance.

Harvest Moon Ball Initiation Set for Saturday

Preparations are complete and the curtain ready to be raised for a festive evening of dancing and entertainment at the Retail Clerks' Auditorium in Harbor City, scene of the Nativity Mothers' Club annual "Harvest Moon Ball," next Saturday evening, Nov. 8.

Music for dancing will be provided by popular Freddie Gray and his orchestra from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Some lucky couple will win a three day expense free vacation in Las Vegas at the beautiful Star Dust Hotel. There will also be several other door prizes and refreshments will be served throughout the evening. Jack Redding will act as master of ceremonies for the event.

Chairman, Mrs. Norris Carstenson, co-chairman, Mrs. Harley Berning, committee chair-

Planned By Rho Xi Unit

Plans for the forthcoming pledge initiation to be presented by the South Bay Area Council were discussed at a recent meeting of Rho Xi chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Mrs. Lester Mayfield, vice president of South Bay Area Council and junior past president of Rho Xi chapter, is general chairman of the event which will be held today at the Palms restaurant in Torrance.

During the ensuing business meeting, conducted by President Mrs. Dave Dawson, intriguing hints about Rho Xi's Halloween party were given by Mrs. John Kestle, social committee chairman. The cultural program was presented by Mrs. Walter Kiasno who discussed the topic "Environment, Health, Work and Play."

At the conclusion of the business meeting, refreshments were served by hostess Mrs. Angus Mitchell. Those attending were James, Bill Jackson, C. J. Eckelberger, Dan Pearson, Dave Dawson, Richard Houston, Angus Mitchell, John Kestle, Paul Herbert, Lester Mayfield, Earl Truscott, Tom

Guilds' Big Rummage Sale On Weekend

All guilds of the Nativity Catholic Altar Society will hold their big semi-annual rummage sale tomorrow and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the parish hall, 1429 Cota Ave., Torrance.

Thousands of real bargains all clean and in good condition will be offered with departments devoted to children's and adults' clothing, hats, purses, shoes, knickknacks, curtains, dishes, toys, furniture and miscellaneous items.

Pickup service can still be arranged by calling Mrs. Gerald Loew or Mrs. John L. Redding. Active in gathering and preparing articles for this big sale the past four months have been committees headed by Mrs. Harry F. Kate, M. J. Bouffreau, F. H. Dishop, and Clarence Junior.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

PROTEIN FOODS
Poultry. Stocks of poultry in freezer storage are at a record high. Ever hear of a three-legged chicken? You'll find them in the market . . . and you'll like the low price tags attached. They're a chicken-and-a-half all packaged for you to pick up. Chicken (whole-bodied or cut) leads the list of budget buys.

Turkeys, too. You can buy whole birds or parts . . . whichever suits your needs. We're promised 78 million turkeys this year, and all sizes will be heavier right from the start. Good, plump birds.

Lamb. Expect an abundance through to the first of the year. They're coming from some of our finest producing areas . . . grow fast and heavy. The cuts are meaty.

Pork is plentiful . . . always is at this season. Many markets are featuring bacon.

Beef. A favorite and lots of it. Keep your menus flexible and make use of your market's "specials."

Eggs are a top value even at regular retail prices. But markets offer "specials" which bring eggs to us at unbelievable prices. Use them often.

In Torrance Markets

fect for bringing color into Emperors.

Melons . . . Look at Casahua if you are interested in melons.

Pears. Some Bartlets (regular and red) in market, but you will see increasing numbers of Winter Nells, Anjou, Rose and Caricee.

Newcomers' Luncheon is Set Nov. 12

Newcomers Club will hold its Harvest luncheon on Nov. 12 at the Fish House at which time members will bring canned goods for the Thanksgiving charity basket.

Those who still have layettes are also asked to complete them and bring them to the luncheon, which is to be served at 12:30 p.m.

The same procedure for baby sitting will be observed with the club paying for the hours 12 to 3 p.m. Any person leaving their child beyond these hours will pay the additional fee.

Membership Chairman Mrs. Joe Carter will be at the door to enroll any new members. All new residents of Torrance are invited to attend this meeting. Interest groups are being formed at each meeting including sewing, bridge, ceramics, mosaic and charity work.

Church Guild Meets Nov. 12

Ladies' Guild of the Central Evangelical Church will meet Nov. 12 at 2 p.m. in the Guild Hall for its regular monthly business session. Mrs. Ruby Smith, president, will be in charge.

Mrs. Kathryn Lane will give the devotionals and serving refreshments during the social hour will be Mrs. Ruth Blackhall and Mrs. Betty Woodman.

Benefit Dinner Next Sunday

Following in the wake of the highly successful "Hawaiian Holiday" fashion show, the Serra mothers are again busy with preparations for a roast beef dinner scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 9.

Mrs. Donald Krietsch, general chairman, announces that her chairmen are as follows: Mrs. Donald Guist dining room; Mrs. Clint Wiley, hostesses; Mrs. Edward Corey, decorations; and Mrs. Carl Noelen. She also reports there will be qualified baby sitters available at no charge.

No reservations are necessary and tickets will be available at the door.

Greet Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Polaly, 3430 235th, are announcing the birth of a daughter at the Torrance Memorial Hospital on Oct. 27. The young lady who tipped the scales at 8 lbs. 2 oz. has been named Peri Leigh.
