

CRENSHAW PACIFIC CENTER... Pictured above is the architect's conception of a $6,000,000 medical building to be erected in Crenshaw Pacific Center, multi-million dollar shopping, professional, and commercial area now under construction by Jefferson, Inc., on a 36-acre site located at Crenshaw Blvd. and Pacific Coast Highway. Housing medical and dental suites and a pharmacy, structure was designed by Harris, Rice & Campbell, architects, A.I.A.

Medical Building To Be Built at Crenshaw Center

Army Pvt. Gladney Calhoun, 24, son of Mrs. Hallie C. Calhoun, 2443 W. Lomita Blvd., Torrance, is participating with the 34th Engineer Battalion in "Sea, Air, and Resc" Shows on the California coast. The exercise will end Nov. 11. Calhoun is regularly assigned as a tool room keeper in the battalion's Company B at Fort Lewis, Wash. He entered the Army in February 1957 and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

Facilities of Crenshaw Pacific Center, extensive new shopping and commercial development now under construction in Torrance, will be enhanced with addition of a $6,000,000 medical building, it was announced yesterday by the master developer, Jefferson, Inc., headed by Albert Lewis and James Bower.

Plans and specifications are being prepared by architects Harris, Rice & Campbell, A.I.A. for a two-story steel frame structure containing 27,000 square feet of rentable area.

THE BUILDING will have medical and dental suites, a pharmacy and will be served by one elevator. It will be completely air-conditioned. Adjoining it will be maximum parking space. When completed the structure will have a two-story panel of brilliantly colored ceramic veneer accentuating the entrance. There will be terrazzo flooring in the lobby. The building, fronting on Crenshaw Blvd., will be just north of Pacific Coast Hwy., adjoining the shopping district.

Russell Dymock, Santa, retiring president of the Palms Verdes Estates Chamber of Commerce and head of the Smith Realty Co., has been named leasing agent.

CRENSHAW-PACIFIC Center will serve the Torrance-Lomita-Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills-South Bay district from its 36-acre triangular site bounded by Pacific Coast Hwy. on the south, Crenshaw Blvd. on the west, and the Lomita-Torrance boundary line on the east. Twenty-four acres will be devoted to shopping structures, with the remaining space being given over to parking areas and professional and commercial buildings.

City Hosts Plumbing Officials

Representatives of more than 70 California cities were in the city Wednesday as the city was host to members of the Western Plumbing Officials Assn. at the Palms.

Arthur S. Moore, senior plumbing inspector for the city of Torrance was chairman for the day.

A number of Torrance city officials, including City Manager George Stevens, several department heads, and members of the city council attended the meeting.

Speaking to the group on the growth of the city was Mayor Albert Isen, who later presented a key to the city to Past President "Red" Hunter of the plumbers' group.

Barth Thompson of Moulded Products Co. spoke on plastic and plastics in the plumbing industry.

Among those attending were William Kuenzler of Manhattan Beach, Harry Van Keckoff of Los Angeles, Frank Donnelly of Santa Monica, and Wyatt Taylor of Inglewood, all officers of the association, and John Baxter, the group's executive secretary.

OPERA OPENS Metropolitan Opera House in New York City was opened April 7, 1880.
