

A Book Fair for All Children . . .

STORYTELLING HOUR . . . Mrs. Thomas Ellis relates a fascinating story for these youngsters from left, Carla Fink, Lois Laurance, Kathy Sue Costanzo and Carla Costanzo. Storytelling will be a feature of the Book Fair here next week end.

ART APPRECIATION . . . Lilian Beauchamp of Rolling Hills holds one of her enameled and Mrs. Marcus White displays a sculpture "Soot in Limbo" made by her husband. Children looking on are Lois Laurance and Neal White of Torrance. An art display of interest to children will also be featured.

LAND OF MAKE-BELIEVE . . . Big-eyed youngsters watch this puppet display by several mothers. Bob Baker Puppeteers will appear here for two shows on Saturday afternoon for children attending the fair. Pictured here are from left, Neal White, Karen Kenyon, Mrs. Mady Fink, holding the puppet; Carla Fink, Dale White, Mrs. Edison Kenyon holding Kathy, Edison Kenyon, and Elaine Mannick, chairman of the fair.

THE DOWN BEAT . . . Musical instruments will attract all children. A special booth has been set up for this feature. Enjoying the instruments are Edison Kenyon, Dale White, Mrs. Marcus White, Neal White, Carla Fink, Mrs. Roger Cost, Holly Cost, Craig Hogan, Mrs. Charles Laurance and Robert Laurance.

Plan Book Fair For Area on Nov. 14-15

Books, which have been called "the treasured wealth of the world, the fit inheritance of generations and nations," will be featured at the South Bay Books and Arts Fair to be staged at the Torrance Civic Auditorium, 1349 El Prado, on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 14 and 15.

The book fair, to which all the children of the area are invited will have books to suit every taste supplied by a Palos Verdes bookstore. There will be books on science, hobbies, fiction, history, and many other topics.

Storytellers will entertain children between 3 and 4 p.m. and 6 and 7 p.m. on Friday and from 10 a.m. until noon on Saturday.

As a special attraction several authors will be on hand. Attendees will be Leo Polla, author of "Pedro, the Angel of Olvera Street," "Juanita," the story of the Mexican Easter celebration, "Little Leo," a story set in Italy and "Songs of Swallows," a story about swallows and missions.

Also at the fair on Friday will be Taro Yashima, author of "Village Tree," "Plenty to Watch," "Umbrella" and "Crowboy."

Adrienne Jones, author of "Thunderbird Pass" and "Where Eagles Fly" will be at the fair both days.

A children's music center will set up an interesting display of records and children's rhythm instruments.

Bob Baker's Puppeteers of Hollywood will have performed before many local children's groups. They will give two shows on Saturday at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. Tickets may be purchased in advance by calling Mrs. David Manack or Mrs. Roy Gjerston.

Auxiliary Luncheon on Tuesday

Women's Auxiliary to the Torrance Memorial Hospital will hold a luncheon meeting Tuesday, Nov. 11, at the Fish Shanty.

Councilman Nick Drake will be the guest speaker, announced Mrs. William Crooker, program chairman.

Mrs. Paul Roetger, president, will welcome new members who will be presented by Mrs. John Schwartz, membership chairman. They are Misses Lee Clotworthy, Richard Cushman, Glen Giles, Benjamin H. Smith and E. L. Sandgrass of Torrance; James S. Dean and L. Stultz, Rolling Hills; Joel S. Canby, Manhattan Beach, and James Colella, Gardena.

Also being presented are Misses Frank Goetz, Hermosa Beach; Ray H. Reed, Lomita; Harold L. Stein, Los Angeles; Leopold Schleissner, San Pedro; Joseph P. Walter, Redondo Beach, and Wilford Wolff, Palos Verdes.

Members and guests interested in sewing for the hospital are invited to attend the meeting of the Sewing Group on Monday, Nov. 17, at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. H. E. Heinlein 2208 Gramercy Ave. The hostess will provide dessert and coffee. There will be instructions on making "Pinky" puppets as well as the usual hospital sewing.

Garden Unit Conference Thursday

Marina District 18, CFWC Garden Section, will hold its fall conference at the Neptunian club in Manhattan Beach on Thursday, Nov. 13. Registration will take place at 9:30 a.m. and a business session will begin at 10:30 a.m. with Mrs. John W. Thuss as presiding chairman.

Luncheon table arrangements will be made by district garden section members and judging will take place for first, second, third prizes and an honorable mention.

Door prizes will also be awarded.

The afternoon's program will feature Charlotte Mahen, whose topic will be "Holiday Decorations and Arrangements."

Opera Singer Visits Here

Joan Marie Moynagh of the San Francisco Opera Co. has been entertained here by Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Miller, 2762 Lotyview Dr. The artist has been appearing at the Shrine auditorium with the San Francisco company during the past week. She had important roles in "The Bartered Bride," "Rigoletto" and today she is singing in "Le Nozze di Figaro."

Dinner Guests

Recent dinner guests at the Polynesian in Walters were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lindsay of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. James H. Specht of Torrance.

Richard Palmer and Bride Now Living in Hawthorne

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Palmer are now at home in Hawthorne following their marriage at the Torrance First Methodist Church on Oct. 26 at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Palmer is the former Charlene Gilmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Polson of Los Angeles.

MRS. RICHARD PALMER . . . Recent Bride

Entertains

Mrs. Ralph Rugraff entertained her bridge club last Tuesday evening at her home, 2375 Maricopa Pl.

At the conclusion of the games, Mrs. Rugraff held high score and Mrs. Jack Marter, second. The hostess served a dessert.

Guests were Misses Laura Feiker, Kenneth Dudley, Jack Marter, Howard Schott, John Melville, Robert Moffitt, and Delbert Thomsen.

Mrs. Moffitt will be this group's next hostess.

From Kansas City

Miss Freida Hudson arrived Thursday evening by plane from Kansas City to spend 10 days here with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Boswell and family, 2442 Onrado.

Torrance Herald

Social World

FDNA CLOYD, Editor

NOVEMBER 9, 1958 TORRANCE HERALD

Seven

OBSERVE ART WEEK . . . Mrs. B. F. Townsend and Mrs. Jack Dean admire an oil painting at the Torrance Women's Club. The exhibit is being held in observance of National Art Week and is composed of art pieces by local artists. The exhibit will be on display throughout the month of November. Junior Woman's Club members contributing art are Misses Edward D. Aiken, E. F. Townsend, Joseph Boylan, Gerson Jacobson, Robert L. Kerber and Jack Dean. Mrs. W. R. Zappas is Penny Arts chairman.

Lioness Club Plans Events

Torrance Lioness club met Nov. 4 at the home of Mrs. Theo Olson, 22402 Meyler Ave. Mrs. Milton Isbell, president, conducted the meeting at which time she appointed a committee to revise the by-laws.

Mrs. Fred Boren is chairman and will be assisted by Misses Paul Burnam, Dale Harter, Albert Isen, Frank Pagac, Albert Peterson, and John Ritchie.

Mrs. Newell Larsen, program chairman, announced that a hayride had been planned for the November social.

The door prize was won by Mrs. W. R. Zappas and the hostess served refreshments.

Lioness members were guests of their husbands at a dinner meeting at the Plush Horse restaurant on Thursday.

You Are Invited To Breakfast

Mothers Club of Senior Girl Scouts 1298 will serve a breakfast to the public next Tuesday morning from 7:30 until 12 at the home of Mrs. A. Krausner, 2318 Sonoma Ave.

Proceeds from the breakfast will go to the fund to assist the girls on their Easter trip.

Breakfast menu will consist of homemade coffee cake, rolls and coffee.

Anyone wishing transportation to the affair is asked to call Mrs. Krausner.

YOUR PROBLEMS
by Ann Landers

"There's a Library On Campus . . ."

Dear Ann: I'm a sophomore in college and the prof is plenty tough. He mentions your column in class quite often and thanks you are O.K.

Our next major assignment is to write a thousand words on "Basic Requirements for a Happy Marriage". There's a lot of reference material around but it's not as up to date as I'd like. You must have all sorts of books on the subject right at your elbow. I'll bet some of the mail on your desk at this very moment is just what I'm looking for—sort of horrible examples.

I'd surely appreciate it if you'd jot down about a thousand words on the basic requirements for a happy marriage. It doesn't have to be in polished form, you understand, just a general outline will be dandy. Thanks a lot, Dimples.

—Rusty
Dear Rusty: All you want is for me to jot down a thousand words? And you're willing to polish 'em up? Mighty noble of you, Rusty. Are you sure you don't want me to type the theme on regulation paper?

Look, I pulled this same stunt on Will Durant 20 years ago, only the course was philosophy. He wouldn't go for it either. Like Will told me, there is a mighty fine library on campus and the information there will be plenty current. Be my guest—Dimples.

Dear Ann Landers: Our 11-year-old son is not an angel but he always tells the truth.

The teacher sent him home from school yesterday in the middle of the afternoon. When I asked the reason for this dismissal, he said he had no idea. He insists he did nothing wrong.

The teacher is a crabby old maid and she's always had it in for my son. Last year she taught music and he had trouble with her then, too.

Why would a teacher be so cruel and sadistic to humiliate a child before his classmates this way? Please give me your views.—V.E.D.D. BIRNBAUM

When an 11-year-old is sent home from school in the mid-

(Continued on Page 3)

A DREAM FULFILLED . . . Mr. and Mrs. Claud Crowell, 2112 Santa Fe Ave., are pictured here with their two adopted children, Jeffrey, three years old and Jennifer, 10 months old. Jeffrey came to make his home with the Crowells when he was a month old and Jennifer when she was only three months old. Jennifer joined the family circle. Both of the children came to the local couple through the Los Angeles Bureau of Adoption. Mr. Crowell is employed by the Douglas Aircraft, Torrance.