

Women Voters League Will Study 'Water Resources'

League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates will hold five unit meetings on Nov. 10, 11 and 12. These will be the final meetings in a series of three units to discuss water resources in California. The meetings will be held at the following times and places: Unit 1 on Monday, Nov. 10, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. W. E. Schroeder, 650 Yarmouth Rd., Palos Verdes Estates; Unit 2 on Tuesday, Nov. 11, at 10 a.m. in the home of Mrs. John Mendel, 4028 Via Opata, Palos Verdes Estates; Unit 3 on Tuesday, Nov. 11, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Robert Christensen, 121 Via Alameda, Hollywood Riviera; Unit 4 on Wednesday, Nov. 12, at 10 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Thomas Konecny, 2304 Finale, Palos Verdes Estates; and Unit 5 on Wednesday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Arthur Engel, 4413 Silver Saddle Lane, Rolling Hills.

Mrs. Harry Morgan is chairman of the group studying water resources, and is assisted by Mrs. Paul Wilson, Harry Johnson, Albert Cook, W. E. Bohner, Glenn Kleinmossler and Louis Lanzer, members of her committee.

A cooperative baby sitting arrangement is available for those wishing to attend the Tuesday morning unit. For details, contact Mrs. Ralph Wuerker, Unit Organization Chairman, 4036 Via Pima, Palos Verdes Estates.

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization open to all women in the South Bay area. Its purpose is the promotion of political responsibility through informed and active participation in government. Anyone interested is invited to attend any one of the unit meetings.

Polynesian To Observe Birthday

Scores of smart-setters from the Torrance social world will be among the restaurant-goers attending the first anniversary celebration of the Polynesian in Waverly on Sunday evening, Nov. 9.

Guests attending the establishment's birthday party, which will be observed during five consecutive nights, will be presented with complimentary island favors and Hawaiian leis. Special South Seas entertainment, headed by outstanding guest artists, will highlight the gala festivities at the Polynesian.

Shower for Mrs. Taylor

Mrs. Norborn Taylor was the honoree at a surprise baby shower given on Tuesday evening by Mrs. Fred Fields and Mrs. Eric Borner at the Fields' home, 26236 Delos Dr.

Mrs. Allen Wickman and Mrs. Robert Kinsman served the guests refreshments in the pink and blue party colors.

Attending the shower were Mrs. Maurice Tyner, Don Whitman, Leonard Cole, James Williamson, Earl Edwards, William Holdt, Marion Travolta, Donald Duro, John McDonald.

Others were Mrs. Robert Powers, Harold Brunner, William Clothier, Fred Field, and Eric Borner, Allen Wickman, and Robert Kinsman.

Unit Plans Activities

A preferential dessert was held by the Delta Gamma chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha at the home of Mrs. Robert Mosher, 18820 Cerise.

This was a "get acquainted" evening and plans for the Christmas entertainment of one of the men's ward at Harbor General Hospital were discussed.

An announcement was also made of the Mira Costa Regional Council Benefit Dance, which will be held at the Mayflower Ballroom in Inglewood, Nov. 15. The proceeds from this dance will go to the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation, Desert Hot Springs.

Those attending this meeting were Mrs. Robert Mosher, Walter Bullock, Carl Osterlund, Jack Clifford, Paul Grossman, William Phillips, and Marguerite Kelsey.

The guests included Mrs. Herbert Goodman, Vance Ansel, Harold Fagan, Eric W. Conner, John Lynn and Mrs. Minnie Smith. Those also invited, but unable to attend, were Mrs. James Stein and Arthur Singer.

Entre Nous Marks 20th Birthday

Twenty years of fun and service were recalled by members of Entre Nous club at a party celebrating their 20th anniversary on Friday evening in the garden patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Schooley.

A barbecued chicken dinner was served and a toast was given by Irene Little, charter member. Other charter members present were Jean Clark and Ethel Wolford. Unable to be here for the occasion were Eva Marsh of Santa Barbara and Lillian Wolford of Washington, D. C.

After dinner the guests participated in games.

Attending were Thekla and Paul Sherman; Ruth and Louis Lutes, Billie and Willie Gaugh, Wanda and Gene Martin, Betty and Jim Bruchle, Phyllis and Jim Fluhner, Jean Clark, Iris Wild, Irene and Norman Little, Ethel and Roy Wolford and Evelyn and Homer Schooley.

TIME FOR FUN... As part of the Torrance Recreation Dept.'s program, local housewives are enjoying the popular bowling sport. Approximately 50 women have joined the groups which have three to six weeks of training and then leagues are formed. Sessions are held each Tuesday morning at 9:30 at the Bowl-O-Palace. Nancy Mogard, Bowl-O-Drome instructor, gives some tips to Martha Neisen, Paulette Horton, Esther Mullen and Marjorie Moore.

Party Slated By AAUW

An opportunity to sample the wines from five of California's outstanding vineyards will be offered South Bay residents when American Association of University Women, Manhattan branch, entertained at a wine-tasting party Friday evening, Nov. 14, at the Kiwanis Youth Center, Hermosa Beach. Hours are 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Richard Bector is general chairman of the event. Reservations may be made by calling her. Proceeds from the event will go to the AAUW educational foundation, she announced.

Participating wineries, under the sponsorship of the Prestige Wine Assn., include Christian Brothers, Paul Masson, Almaden, Charles Krug, and Weibel Vineyards. Champagne door prizes as well as other prizes have been announced.

Serving on Mrs. Bector's committee are Mrs. Jerry Seckel, Bert Durst, Joseph Wall, Jerold Harlow, Sherwood Seep, and Adrian Brown.

Others are Mrs. L. Dugham, James Conant, Richard Coulston, M. L. MacKnight, W. M. Kofas.

Club Sponsors Performance

Riviera Garden Club is sponsoring a one-night performance of "Butter and Egg Man" at the Magnolia Theater, 1200 Magnolia Ave., Long Beach on Thursday evening, Nov. 13. Curtain is at 8:30 p.m.; Pat Brown, director of the theater, is playing the lead role. Anyone wishing to attend may call Mrs. Donald Leonard.

Coronado Guests

Mrs. Wayne H. Atkin and son, Mark, of Coronado are spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson, 1416 W. 219th St.

Ann Landers

... the afternoon "for no reason"—there's a reason. I suggest you go to school and learn what it is.

You don't help the situation by passing judgment before hearing the other side of the story. When a child is a minor nuisance in a classroom he's often asked to go sit in the hall or visit the principal's office. But the boy or girl who is sent home usually has had some major difficulty. By all means investigate and get the entire story before you summarily brand the teacher as cruel and sadistic.

Dear Ann: Mother is 65 but young-appearing for her age. Everyone takes her for 10 years younger. She makes her home with us and is a pleasure to have around.

Recently she met a widower, 72. She's with him almost every chance she gets and enjoys his company tremendously. He's a fine man, but the whole idea of people getting romantic at such an age is sickening to me.

Mother has a small income. She does all the cooking, helps with the cleaning and is an avid gardener. She has a full life with us and seems content. The man has a small home, a private income and social security. I'm afraid before we know it these two will want to get married. Please put your opinion in the paper so I can use it as a lever in case this thing gets serious.—E.H.

It sounds as if you don't want to lose a cook and gardener. There's nothing "sickening" about older people getting married and enjoying the evening of their lives together.

I hope you won't discourage your mother and make her feel foolish. Many older people who have lost first mates marry again and find happiness together. Give her your blessings and offer to throw the rice.

Does almost everyone have a good line but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "How To Be Wicked and charming with your request for news in color and a large, self-addressed, stamped reply slip."

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problem. Send three dollars in cash or by check and enclose a stamped, self-addressed reply slip. Copyright 1958, Field Enterprises, Inc.

P.T.A. ACTIVITIES

Parkway

Parent Education Group, sponsored by the Parkway P.T.A. will meet Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 1:15 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The topic for the day is "What is Torrance Philosophy?" A film will be shown and a panel discussion will be held. Participating will be Tony Baratta, school principal and Mrs. Benstead and Mrs. Loomis, teachers. All parents are invited.

Arlington

Arlington Elementary P.T.A. can point with pride to a very successful carnival this year. The many games and booths were patronized by every known kind of goblin, cowboy, witch and fairy. The high spot of the evening was the children's costume parade, from which were chosen four winners. John Lamke as "Mr. Proton" and looking like a man from outer space was chosen as the most original. A little three-year old, Eddie Butke, was the funniest as "Flibble". The prettiest award went to Cindy Wood who was dressed as "To-Teen" and the most weird prize was won by Larry Adams who dressed over as a "Witch".

Members of the executive board got together on Oct. 29 for an informal farewell for Principal Malcolm Richland who resigned on Oct. 31. Mr. Richland will be associated with Rand Corp.

The next association meeting will be held in the school cafeteria on Nov. 13. Mrs. Vernon Voeltz, magazine chairman, and Mrs. Leon Briley, room representative chairman will be featured. The Mother-singers under the direction of Mrs. Jerry Leonard will also make their debut at this meeting.

Haldale

"Design for Living" is the theme of the next Haldale P.T.A. meeting to be held on Wednesday, Nov. 12, at 1:30 p.m. in the Haldale Ave. school auditorium.

Mrs. C. L. Wilson of 19th District P.T.A. will present a demonstration on holiday decorations and gift wrapping. Mrs. Wilson is noted for her talent in arts and crafts and for many years has conducted work shops for P.T.A. members, Cub Scout leaders and Girl Scout leaders.

A special invitation is extended from Mrs. Frank Bowling Jr., president of the Haldale Ave. P.T.A. to all parents and friends of Haldale to attend. Mothers of the 4th grade will serve refreshments after the meeting.

A Halloween carnival was held at the school on Oct. 31. A costume parade at 10 o'clock was preceded by the color presentation by a Girl Scout troop 2130 guard. The flag salute was led by Robert Smith, third grade teacher, who was also the master of ceremonies.

Welcoming speeches were given by Amanda Wilhelm, principal, and Mrs. Frank Bowling Jr., P.T.A. president.

An added feature was the presence of Monty Montana, television and screen cowboy. He performed with his famous horse, "Red".

Cupcakes and coffee were served by board members under the direction of Mrs. B. N. Kellam and the room mothers directed by Mrs. Henry J. Mozeau.

Fern-Greenwood

A discussion of the "whys and wherefores" of multigrade classes was the program at the recent meeting of the Fern-Greenwood P.T.A. Much in-

Crenshaw

Crenshaw Elementary board members met for the second time the evening of Nov. 5. The minutes were read by Mrs. J. Bramlett.

Mrs. Mark Kline, ways and means chairman, reported there was a profit of $438.41 made on the recent carnival held at the school.

Membership chairman, Mrs. E. Escobar, gave a report on the membership drive. The goal was set at 500 members. This was topped by 66 members. This is the largest P.T.A. membership in Crenshaw history.

November P.T.A. meeting was discussed. The meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 12. The topic is "Fathers at Bat" and all fathers are urged to attend. Mr. Lester Braitenfeldt, McMaster Park recreation director, will speak on the recreational facilities. This should be of great interest especially to the fathers.

First grade room mothers will decorate and serve refreshments for the meeting. Social begins at 7:30 and the meeting at 8 p.m.

232nd Place

Fathers are especially urged to attend the 232nd Place P.T.A. meeting to be held Monday evening, Nov. 10, at 7:30 p.m. Mothers will be on hand to serve refreshments preceding the meeting which will be held in the school auditorium, 23240 Archibald St.

Speaker for the evening is Mrs. Eric Heinman from Youth Services. Her topic will be "To Help and Guide Our Youth."

Riviera

Riviera P.T.A. board met at the home of Mrs. Francis Tymstra preceding the regular association meeting. At this time the last positions on the board were filled and the following chairmen ratified: Mrs. James Harlan, assistant art; Mrs. Robert Plant, assistance coffee; Mrs. U. L. Hudson, parent information; Mrs. Clyde Melton, Newsette.

Plans for the coming year were discussed after reports were heard. Mrs. F. M. Griffin presided at the meeting and Principal Duncan spoke.

"Our Circle Includes Cooperation With Youth Organizations" was the topic at the general meeting held Oct. 15. Activities available to their children were presented to the parents.

Joe Wilson, executive secretary of the Torrance YMCA, was guest speaker as were Mr. and Mrs. Eckhart, Mrs. Shipway, Lt. Col. Hudson and Capt. Spaulding, who discussed scouting and Little League.

Parents of the fifth and eighth grade students saw an educational film prior to the meeting.

Interest was shown as Fern-Greenwood is now experiencing its first multigrade classes in a number of years.

Mrs. Edward Conry, president, conducted a business session at which time members voted to hold a Marionette show in December. Proceeds will be used to sponsor the Torrance Council P.T.A. scholarship fund and the Hot Lunch and Milk Fund.

The 1958-59 budget was also adopted.

Mrs. A. E. McVicar announced that the membership drive was successful and that the P.T.A. now has 688 members.

She also stated that anyone wishing to join the Fern-Greenwood P.T.A. should send their dues in an envelope bearing their name to the teacher in their child's room.
