Overholtz Takes Over Southwood Homeowners

Discussion of parks, library and by-law changes highlighted a meeting of Southwood Homeowners Assn. at the Anza School last night as Austin Overholtz, newly installed president of the group, presided.

AUSTIN OVERHOLTZ
 was elected president of the Southwood Homeowners Assn. at a meeting at the Anza School last night.

Overholtz, a native Californian, and went to school in El Segundo. He was employed by National Supply Co. in Torrance for more than four years, and lived here for several years after World War II. He returned 2 1/2 years ago to make his home in Southwood. He and his wife, Corrine, have one son, Ronald, a first grader at Sepulveda Elementary School.

Overholtz will be making his first speech at the annual meeting of the association, which will be held at the Torrance Community Center on Tuesday, Nov. 17, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be presided over by his first meeting. Overholtz, production control manager in the special products division of Servotronics, Inc., of Hawthorne, was elected last month and installed recently by the board of directors. He succeeds Lee Sechler, who remains on the board of directors.
