

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS INJURE FIVE HERE

Three traffic accidents last week and resulted in injuries to five persons here, according to police reports.

A telephone pole was hit by a car driven by Constance Decker, 27, of 18931 Felton Ave., Sunday afternoon when she failed to negotiate a left-hand turn from Garnet St. to Hawthorne Blvd. Passengers in the car, Alvin Decker, 23, of the same address, and Kathryn Decker, 18, of 4314 W. 184th St., Lawndale, were treated with the driver, at a Redondo Beach medical clinic for minor cuts and bruises.

Ave. The Cohen car was making a left turn in front of the motorcycle at 164th St. and Haas Ave. when the accident occurred.

A COLLISION at the intersection of 182nd St. and Hawthorne Blvd. involved Dorothy E. Reichert, 32, of 5105 Sepulveda Blvd. and Lawrence E. Rodes, 36, El Segundo firm employe. The Reichert auto had just stopped for a red light when the accident took place. Miss Reichert was treated for minor cuts and bruises by a family physician.

ALSO RECEIVING minor cuts and bruises was 16-year-old Gary Ashmead of 1553 W. 160th St., Gardena, who was thrown from his motorcycle Saturday night in a collision with a car driven by Joyce V. Cahna, 26, of 16922 Daplane

Obituaries

GORDON K. SMITH

Funeral services were conducted Monday for Gordon Keith Smith, 44, of 24611 Madison, who died at his home last Thursday.

Rev. Wendell Hook of the Wakeria Methodist Church officiated at the funeral services which took place at the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary Chapel.

A native of Bayard, Iowa, Smith resided in this area for five years, and was employed by Sears, Roebuck in Long Beach.

Survivors include his wife, Neta, secretary-clerk at South High School; a daughter, Judith; a brother, Guy Smith of Torrance; and one cousin, Gladys Allen of Iowa.

Dorothy Ann, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sasala of Lawndale, and Mr. and Mrs. William Ross Lower of Torrance; and two local aunts and uncles.

SUSIE E. PIERCE

Funeral services for Susie E. Pierce, 81, of 18224 Grevelia in El Nido, will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at the Dunaway-Fox Mortuary in Hawthorne. Mrs. Pierce died here Monday evening after suffering a heart attack. She had lived here for 20 years.

She is survived by a step-daughter, Mrs. Eva Nelson, of 2363 Eldorado; a grandson, Camdr. Ralph Pierce, of Washington, D.C., and four grandsons. Commander Pierce has returned to Torrance for the services. Rev. Keith McRoberts will officiate at tomorrow's final rites. Burial will be in Inglewood Park Cemetery.

MINERVA DOBSON

Funeral services will be conducted this morning at 10 o'clock for Mrs. Minerva Dobson, 60, who died at her home at 18021 S. Western Ave. Sunday. Burial will be in Roosevelt Cemetery.

Officiating at the funeral at Stone & Myers Chapel will be Rev. Robert Dehn.

A native of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Dobson resided here since 1953. Besides her husband, John, and son Norman, who lived with her, she is survived by a brother-in-law, William C. Dobson of Compton, and sister-in-law, Della Herstein of Lawwood.

City Expects To Set Up Truck Routes

Establishment of specially designated truck routes in Torrance is expected to be forthcoming shortly as a result of a survey being conducted at present by the police department in cooperation with the city traffic committee.

By setting up traffic arteries designated specifically for trucks, it is hoped that excessive wear and tear on streets not designed for heavy vehicles can be cut down, in addition to the added safety afforded by the vehicular segregation.

At the present time trucks

Immortality To Be Theme Of Sermon

"Mortals and Immortals" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at all Christian Science services Sunday.

The sermon is partly built around the experiences of the development of the prophet Jacob, highlighting Jacob's hard won victory over the traits and characteristics of mortality and his discovery and development of his own inherent higher nature and spirituality.
