Foster Parents to Meet At Reception Tomorrow

More than 180 men and women who sacrifice to be foster parents to children who must be temporarily separated from their real parents will be honored by the Children's Bureau of Los Angeles tomorrow evening in Hollywood House, Barnsdall Park.
 Included among the persons to be honored tomorrow by the Community Chest agency at the annual Foster Parents' Reception will be three Torrance couples:
 Mr. and Mrs. William D. Harlan, 3502 W. 224th St., Mr. and Mrs. Clyde D. Goodman, 4509 Highgrove Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. James M. Potter, 4433 Highgrove Ave.
 The couples at the reception will discuss special problems they face in regard to Christmas gift giving, according to Mrs. Julius Packer, president of the group.

Rev. Wm. Schatz One Hundred To Talk About Everlasting Life Persons Attend Prospect Dinner

Rev. William K. Schatz, of the Seaside Community Church will deliver the final in a series of three sermons ending the Trinity season this Sunday. His topic will be "The Life Everlasting."
 Immediately following the church service, the men of the church will visit homes of the members in connection with the annual Christian enlistment program. Elmer Peterson is enlistment chairman.
 Over 100 members and guests attended a fellowship prospect dinner held by the First Baptist Church of Loma Saturday night, according to James W. Hardin, pastor.
 Guest speaker was Rev. Charles Ashcraft of Las Vegas, Nev., who is conducting a revival service at the church this week.

'Mission Accomplished' To Be Sermon Topic

"Mission Accomplished" is the title of a sermon to be delivered by Dr. Earl D. Barnum's sermon at the regular 11:00 a.m. services of the Redondo-Torrance Church of Religious Science Sunday. This is third in the November series describing the individual's "Journey Through Life."

chaplain, who won the affectionate title of "Holy Joe" among the men he served with in the Pacific Theatre of Operations, is being assisted by W. A. Risinger of Yuma, Ariz., director of music.

FUNNY BUSINESS . . . Phil Crosssett and Adoree Thom, romantic leads in South Bay Civic Light Opera's production "The Pajama Game" at the Redondo High School Auditorium, are on the opposite sides of the fence, businesswise — but it's a low fence. The show will be concluded this week end with performances beginning at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday. Tickets may be reserved by calling Ed Knowlton of Manhattan Beach. (Milt Srensk Photo)

DISCUSSES ART . . . K. A. Crown, of Manhattan, shows Mrs. Crown and Mrs. Stanley W. Briggs, of Torrance art group, a water color painting of Taos, New Mexico, scene. Crown held an open house in his studio Friday night for members of Torrance group. He discussed his renderings and methods used. He is an art instructor at USC.
