Community Sing Planned For Tomorrow Night

"One of the most sparkling variety programs in many a month" has been planned for tomorrow night's Harbor City Community Sing. It was announced today by Delbert Beach, chairman of the popular songfest held every Friday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the auditorium of Harbor City Elementary School, 1508 W. 254 St.

Featured artists will be Randy Arase, gifted 12-year-old accordionist, and John Shamma, who plays the musical saw. Rounding out the program will be Barbara Ann Downs and Gerald Peterson, semi-pros duet who will offer both solo and concerted numbers.

Program opener Henry Hings will lead the audience in community singing of old and popular favorites accompanied by Marie Golden, substituting for Verne Flynn.

Sponsored by the Bureau of Music of the Los Angeles Municipal Art Dept., the admission free sing is now midway in its ninth year of service to the Harbor City area.

CIVIC GROUP TO MEET

Southwest-Keystone Civic Improvement Assn. will hold a business meeting at the 223rd St. School at 8 p.m. tomorrow. The public is invited.

ISLAND CHAIN
There are 29 islands in the Bahamas chain.

NO HIGH PEAKS
The Carpathian Mountains have no peak 10,000 feet high.

Pre-Holiday Bazaar To Be Held Tuesday

Final plans for one of the area's most unusual pre-holiday benefit bazaar and family-dinner-night programs have been announced by Mrs. Charles F. Crawford, president of the Bay-Harbor Osteopathic Hospital Guild. The organization will sponsor a carnival type bazaar from 1 to 9 p.m. Tuesday. Turkey or ham dinner will be served from 5 to 7:30 p.m. The benefit will be held at Ulbrand Hall, 1125 South Gaffey Street, San Pedro.

Featuring a large selection of Christmas toys, the bazaar will be designed to appeal especially to the early Christmas shopper and the children, according to Mrs. Van B. Lisman, Guild vice president, and Mrs. Merritt Shepard, bazaar co-chairman.

Booths to be featured include special arts, toys, Mrs. Lisman's coffee and cookies, Mrs. Shepard's fancy work and needle crafts, Mrs. Knut Nielsen and Mrs. Hermosa Smith's greeting cards, Mrs. John Goderman and Mrs. Tina Martin's white elephant, Mrs. Frank Camillo's...

Dinner committee members include: Mrs. Richard Hozendal, Mrs. William Rassen, and Mrs. Frank Lane Jr.

Funds raised at the bazaar and dinner will go to the $1,100,000 Bay-Harbor Osteopathic Hospital, soon to be constructed in the Harbor City area of the harbor district.
