YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"He Is To Be Pitted..."

Dear Ann: I feel I must write this letter or explode. I hate my father. I wish he were dead. He's a horrible brute who believes the only way to keep children in hand is to treat them like animals.

Today he went too far. He spanked my little sister until she almost fainted. If my mother hadn't stopped me I think I would have killed him. I'm afraid one day I will.

He eats like a pig, coughs on the food and spoils the meals for everyone. I make up excuses to stay away from the dinner table. He's always so surly and unpleasant the house is like a tomb. I don't remember ever having heard him
