The Western sports car world is beginning to buzz with anticipation about the 6-Hour Enduro, to be run next Saturday at the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds as part of the big Pomona race week end.

The 6-hour Enduro, first of its type ever held locally since the days of old Torrey Pines, will be held on Saturday, starting at 1 p.m. Regular six-event race meet, featuring one-hour race events for the big modified cars and for those under concentrate on Sunday's action. The latter group includes Max Balchowsky, in his familiar "Old Yeller" and Bill Murphy in his Buick-Kurtis.

Richi Ginther is slated to handle a Ferrari with possibly John von Neumann as his co-driver. Bob Oker will be one-half of the Aston Martin team for Joe Lubin. Ken Miles is set in his familiar No. 50 Porsche Spyder. Pete Lovely and Pat Figgell are coming south from Seattle with their powerful "Team Empire" Lotus and Ferrari.

Dan Gurney is considered a possibility in the Frank Arcoletti Ferrari. Bill Kravitz will be one of the favorites in his powerful "D" Jaguar. Jack McAffee will have the RSE French engine in his roadster, and other spiders will be handled by Charles Howard III and Joe Flynn.

The Pomona course measures two miles and is adjacent to the San Bernardino Freeway. It also has an overpass that carries traffic over the raceway, making easy access possible.

After leaving a freeway, be sure to adjust your speed downward for other types of road, cautions the Automobile Club of Southern California.

NORTH HIGH LIGHTS

By ROSALIE MURRAY

Saxons returned to school this week with memories of the greatest Homecoming North High has ever seen. Patty Reynolds reigned regally, as our Grid Queen, with lovely princesses Esther Yntique, Nancy Mooney, Bobbi Carse, and Nancy Taylor at her side. Beautiful boats, built by campus organizations, circled the Torrance High field before game time, with the Judge's Sweepstakes award going to the Scholarship Society's entry. After our Varsity crushed the Hawthorne squad by a score of 16 to 6, happy North High spectators flooded the Coronation Ball to dance the night away. It was wonderful!

SENIORS WILL take ticket holders into a world of mythical murder in their annual play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," tonight under the direction of Mr. Bernard Hofer. Joy Ring, law and Arts Center star, in the production and will be supported by Jackie Rupp, Richard Lynn and Bob Hattwell. Other participating players will be Jerry Schartoff, Howard Beer, Dick Bybee, Eddie Cason, Gene Horwitz, Paul Clayton, Bob Giffis, Ron Navarro and Don Hollister. Sets will be managed by Robert Armitage and Silvia Anderson, wardrobe mistress, and will dress the cast in fine style.

WHILE OUR Saxon Varsity football team fell victim to a heartbreaking loss to Morning-side recently, we of North High School are proud of their fine spirit and fighting heart which led them to last Saturday's victory over the Hawthorne Cougars. Column cheers go to Steve Mearing, Bill Hall, and Eddie Jauregui.

Presbyterian Church to Receive Large Class of Members Sunday

A large class of new members will be received during the Church Service of the First Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning at 11 a.m. There will also be baptism of babies. The Church Service is held at the new building at 1847 Redondo Beach Blvd., but Church School is held at the old location at 1842 Gardena Blvd. at 9:20 a.m. There is child care available for both Church and Church School at the Gardena Blvd. location. Dr. E. Murray Jones, minister, will talk on "Joining The Church".

The Senior High Fellowship meets at 7 p.m. and the Young Adult Group at 7:30 on Sunday evenings.

Today, Nov. 20, the Mothers' Council will hold its regular meeting at 9:30 a.m. in the Fireside Room of the new church. Guest speaker will be Dr. Jones. Mrs. John Richardson will sing. There will be nursery care for children at the old church. We invite all mothers to attend this meeting.

ALL MEN ARE invited to bring their wives to the Men's Council Dinner meeting Tuesday, Nov. 25. Guest speaker will be Mr. Stoddard, minister of the Angulus Mess Church, who will relate his experiences as an exchange minister in Scotland. Cost of the dinner is $1.75 and reservations must be made through members of the council.

Dorcas Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Jewel Thompson, 1644 W. 164th St.

at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 24, for an Escalada Luncheon and meeting.

The Bible Study and Prayer meetings will be on the subject "The Bible and Our Church" this week. An evening meeting is held at 7:30 on Thursday in the Fireside Room, and a Wednesday morning meeting is at 10 at the old church, with child care provided. All members and friends of the church are urged to attend these interesting and informative meetings.

A special Thanksgiving Service will be held at the Redondo Beach Blvd. location at 9:30 Thanksgiving morning.

Choirs Plan Concert on Sunday Night

The combined choirs of the South Bay Church of God, Yukon Avenue, Torrance, are putting the finishing touches on several beautiful anthems and choral numbers to be sung Sunday evening, Nov. 23, at 7:30 in the sanctuary of the church.

The theme of this program will be in accord with Thanksgiving as will the message to be delivered by Rev. C. L. Tierney, pastor of the congregation.

The public is invited to attend.
