Festival of Lights Rules Given for Home Decoration

Explorer Post 241-X
Explorers of Post 241X, sponsored by the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church of Torrance, attended the first Harbor District "Oceany" last week end at the El Toro Marine Air Station.

The Gardena Valley Jewish Center announces a competition for the best decorated homes in the area commemorating the "Festival of Lights"—Chanuka. The rules are simple. Anyone may compete as long as the theme of the outside decorations is in keeping with the observance of Chanuka.

Film on IGY To Be Shown Here Friday

The judges will tour the area to judge all homes where decorations are in evidence even though a post card is not sent.

Members attending were Robert Wilson, Richard Coburn, Robert Popkoff, John Alter, Danny Kirks, Albert Severson, and Fred Coburn. Leaders attending were Post Advisor Bud Blankenship, who also serves as a sergeant in the Marine Air Reserve, and Associate Advisor Earl Shanklin.

For eight days, starting Dec. 18, the Jews in every home light the Chanukah lamp, which recalls a wonderful story of God's salvation of the Jews from ruin and destruction.

SPEED STUDIED

The Los Angeles City Council this week referred to police, fire, and traffic committee a recommendation that the speed limit on Western Ave. between 24th St. and 220th St. be lowered from 55 mph to 40 mph.

There will be two showings of the film at 7 and 8:30 p.m.—because of the anticipated interest in its portrayal of man's current intensive effort to learn more of the earth's interior surface and atmosphere.

It will be shown at the Arts and Crafts Center, 1311 Craven Ave., and refreshments will be served after each presentation. Work of arts and crafts classes sponsored by the department will be on display.

"The Restless Sphere" is the only interpretive presentation of the International Geophysical Year's aims, problems and achievements," states the L. A. of the day.

The Explorers enjoyed the many facilities of the Marine Air Station, including housing in the officers' quarters and dining in the Marine mess. The event was highlighted by the inspection of latest Marine jet fighters and a tour of the Survival School. The event was concluded with a group photo.

They bring to mind the story of the world's first heroes, under the leadership of the unforgettable Maccabean family, who fought and died for the freedom of worship and religion. They teach that those who have faith in God never fail, and that right prevails over might.

Entitled "The Restless Sphere," the color movie is narrated by HRH Phillip, the Duke of Edinburgh, husband of HRM Queen Elizabeth II of England.

Brownie Troop 520

The members of Brownie Troop 520 continue their interesting activities, the most recent of which was a Halloween supper party at which their mothers were guests. The party was held on Halloween Eve in the patio of the home of their leader, Mrs. Phyllis Morgan. The girls were assisted in their entertaining by Mrs. Kay DeWitt, co-leader.
