

DAR Chaplain
Urge Aggression

"It is necessary to know the religion of the Revolutionary era in order to understand the spirit of those times," said the state DAR chaplain, Mrs. K. Parker Dunlop, in a talk to the Susan B. Anthony Chapter, following a luncheon at the Hawaiian Restaurant last Sunday afternoon.

Bearing out the theme of the national defense message previously given by Miss Mildred Murphy, Mrs. Dunlop said that as Americans we should be more aggressive in revealing to others what we firmly believe, in order to prevent the infiltration of false ideologies.

The president-general's Thanksgiving letter read by Mrs. Lois Oliver of Inglewood stressed the same ideals.

The regent, Miss Dottie Payell, presided at the luncheon meeting, and the speaker was introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. William B. Spencer.

helping her find a flower she loves.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm about to be divorced from a man who drove me almost out of my mind with his lying and cheating. I could write a book on his mistakes but I won't. I'll just tell you the final break came when I caught him sneaking out the back door with some of my clothes. He'd been giving them to a girl friend. It took me two years to catch on.

The question is this: I want to take back my maiden name and forget I ever knew this lunatic. My relatives say it wouldn't be decent for a woman who has been married to go by the title of "Miss."

I don't wish to pose as a silly pure innocent. What I want is to have identification with this woman. Is it proper for a divorced woman to take back her maiden name and be known as "Miss Jones?"

Nursery School Holds
Theater Party Dec. 17

A VIEW FROM THE BRIDGE will be seen by members and friends of Torrance Nursery School Wednesday Dec. 17 at the Players Ring, 5381 Santa Monica Boulevard. Arthur Miller's popular drama is the group's money-making project for the fall semester.

... Ann Landers

Over your question I'd have to ask you one. Do you and the woman have any children? If so, you owe it to them to keep the Mrs. no matter how strongly you feel about losing identification with him. If you wish to be free of his name and use your maiden name instead, this is permissible, but keep the Mrs. if children are involved.

CONFIDENTIALLY, HAND SOME DON: Please don't send me your picture. I never put one reader in touch with another. If you're as gorgeous as you say, you shouldn't need my help from me.

Are your parents still alive? You can benefit from the experience of thousands of women who have used FIRELADIES new service. How do you like the new concept? Are you a widow? Are you a mother, and a wife? Tell us all about it.

Ann Landers will be glad to hear from you. Write to her care of the newspaper and enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope. Copyright 1956, Fawcett Publications.

Fireladies
Install Officers

Mrs. Billy C. Sloanecker was installed as president of the Torrance Fireladies Auxiliary at a luncheon held in the Port Washington Room of the Fish Shanty, Westerly, Saturday Nov. 15, at 1 p.m.

Also installed by outgoing president, Mrs. James Wess were: Mrs. Ronald R. Cannon, first vice-president; Mrs. George H. Blahnik, second vice-president; Mrs. Ronald A. Power, secretary; and Mrs. Richard H. Sprout, treasurer.

Centerpiece at the head table was a gold-trimmed life-size fireman's helmet covered with white chrysanthemums bearing the letters CNA on the shield. Small red fire helmets were used as candleholders.

Table decorations featured red, white, and gold flowers surrounding fire trucks and fire hydrants. Members of the decorating committee were Mrs. Milton Langum, Mrs. Harriet Whitmore, and Mrs. George Blahnik.

State officers who attended included: Mrs. Jean Harrison of Redondo Beach, Southern vice-president; Mrs. Myrtle Jackson of Alameda, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Ann Fisher of Long Beach, marshal.

Committee chairmen appointed by the new president are as follows: Mrs. Billy J. Wood, post cards; Mrs. William Buckley, cards and flowers; Mrs. Sam Martin, hospitality; Mrs. John Ferradale, Mrs. Robert Browning, and Mrs. Milton Langum, canines; and Mrs. James Wess, Mrs. John Millard, and Mrs. Ed Dolton, turned-out family assistants.

Clubwomen
To Support
CARE Project

Robert Collins of Windsor Florists gave a demonstration entitled "Fall Season in Artificial Flower Arranging" Wednesday at a meeting of the Torrance Women's Club held at the clubhouse at 2 p.m.

Four of the arrangements were donated by Mr. Collins to be raffled. Proceeds went towards the CARE Sponsored "School Kit" program to enable children in Hong Kong and Viet Nam to attend school.

In addition the group voted to make a generous donation from the club treasury towards this project.

Club members further decided that in place of the usual gift exchange at the December meeting they would pool dollar bills on a Christmas tree to be used to purchase the school kits.

"Big Chiefs"

With the Indian theme carried out in decorations and favors, Women's Auxiliary of the South Bay Pharmaceutical Association recently played host to the "Big Chiefs" of the Women's Auxiliary of the California Pharmaceutical Association at the home of Mrs. Fred Reese in Hermosa Beach.

Preceding lunch, Mrs. Donald Damarest poured punch. State officers who were honored included: E. P. Fleming, president, and Mrs. Donald Norton, secretary, of San Diego; Myles M. E. Wright, vice-president; Mrs. J. E. Siverton, treasurer; and Mrs. Fred Reese, parliamentarian.

Other honored guests were: Miner H. J. McManus, Edward Gavins, C. V. Turner, Fred Adams, Len Sterling, Raymond Williams, and Harold Roache.

A luncheon of holiday ham rolls, green salad, relishes, apple crisp, and coffee was served by hostesses: Mrs. Sam Carmelli, Irving Edwards, Clarence Brauer, and Robert Greenlee.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. P. S. Axen, president, introduced Mrs. Fleming and Mrs. Norton; and Mrs. Robert Sherrill, art chairman, presented the visiting "chiefs" with Indian headdresses places made of one-dollar bills, feathers, glitter and sequins to "sit in tray-
