

Schildmeyer - Morris Betrothal Announced

An announcement of wide interest is being made today by Mr. and Mrs. William A. Schildmeyer, 1938 W. 262nd St. Lomita of the engagement of their daughter, Maxine Elise to George William Morris of Holliston. He is the son of Mrs. Rita Morris of Oklahoma City, Okla.

The betrothal news was first disclosed at a family dinner party at the Schildmeyer home.

A January wedding is being planned.

The future bride was graduated from Narbonne High school in 1947 where she was GAA president and an Exchange.

She attended Redlands University for her first year of college and was graduated from UCLA. Miss Schildmeyer was the first alumna returning as a teacher to Narbonne. At present she is teaching physical education at the Walter Reed Junior High school in North Hollywood.

Mr. Morris received his BA degree from Southwestern Institute of Technology and his MA degree from the University of Oklahoma. He then taught at the Oklahoma and Tulsa Universities. The benedict-lect recently completed his PhD in mathematics at UCLA. He is now employed by Aerolab Development Co. in Pasadena.

Miss Schildmeyer and Mr. Morris are both active members of the Ambassador's of the Hollywood First Presbyterian Church. He held the presidency in 1953 and 1957 and she assisted with the Junior High school group. Formal announcement of the engagement was made at Sunday's Ambassador meeting.

Christmas Program To Herald Holidays

Always anticipated is the annual Christmas program staged by the Las Vegas Women's club chorus with Rosemary DeCamp Shidler as guest artist. This year the program will be given at the Redondo Beach Woman's clubhouse on Dec. 11 at 8 p.m.

First half of the program will be a musical skit entitled "The Night Before Christmas." Featured songs will be Fred Waring's arrangement of "Twas the Night Before Christmas." Three children asleep in their beds will dream of Santa's arrival and the gifts they hope he will bring. The children, portrayed by Nancy Carol and Jimmy Webber, whose parents are Dr. and Mrs. Max Webber of Palms Verdes, will join the chorus in the song and dance, "The Christmas Spirit."

Mrs. Shidler will read a humorous satire, "Get Away from Me with Those Christmas Presents." Other songs will be "The Christmas Carol," "Single Bells," "Santa Claus is Coming to Town," "Silver Bells" and Waring's "Chestnut Roasting on an Open Fire."

Mrs. Shidler's featured reading for the evening will be "Let's Keep Christmas," an inspiring sermon by the late Peter Marshall.

During the second part of the program, Mrs. Shidler will read the Christmas Scriptures interspersed with choral numbers, "O Come, O Come Emmanuel," "Ave Maria," "Jan Kocourek's Carol," "Christmas Hymn," "Gloria Bantimo," "Angels We Have Heard on High," "Bless the Shepherd and Follow," "Birthday of a King," "Carol of the Little King," and "Give to World Thy Peace."

As the songs are sung beautiful lights will be shown.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

Columnist Gives Answers . . .

Dear Ann Landers: What kind of a column are you running anyway? What sort of problem does a person have to have before it gets in the paper? I wrote you a very sensible letter four weeks ago and signed it "Worried Housewife". Did it get into the paper? No it did not.

Yet you print silly stuff about a teenage girl who spends $10 on a sports shirt for her boy friend. When I read the letter from the girl who wanted to know who should remove glasses when kissing, the boy or the girl, I really turned up.

And why do you ask readers for their names and addresses? What do you do with them? While you're at it, will you tell me what you do with the letters when you've finished reading them?—SUSPICIOUS

Dear Suspicious: It would be lovely if everyone who wrote could get his letter and answer in the paper, but it isn't possible. Would you write through 600 letters and answers daily in your paper? Well neither would anyone else. And of course no newspaper could print this load.

It means I decide which letters are to be printed and the others must get their advice in the mail. A letter needs to be earth-shaking to get in print. I often select a letter because it has wide appeal or one that illustrates a good moral principle.

I don't ask people for their names and addresses. I request that they send a self-addressed stamped envelope so I can send the advice in the mail. All letters are destroyed the moment I have finished with them. Relax.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a widow with two small children. I've been dating a divorced man who also has two little ones. Last Sunday I had a dinner party and invited the gentleman. He asked if he could bring his children and I said yes.

When he arrived I was shocked. He also brought his housekeeper—a heavy-haired woman who was shockingly overdressed for the occasion. I did my best to be gracious but I know I failed to conceal my discomfort.

She sat with the invited guests and I didn't know how to introduce her or whether to bring her into the conversation. She made no attempt to watch the children, and with four of

Annual Sleigh Bell Luncheon Set Dec. 2

"Christmas in California" is the chosen theme for Delta Delta Delta's 14th annual Sleigh Bell Luncheon to be held Tuesday, Dec. 2, in the International Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel. The spirit of joyous giving will prevail and the greatest gift of all will be better health for children, as proceeds go to further research in hematology at Children's Hospital. Southern California Tri-Deltas are proud of their accomplishments in the past 11 years, during which time their donation has been over $61,000 toward this medical research program.

Mrs. Rosemary Malley, fashion coordinator for Sals Fifth Avenue, will present the fashion show that will include gifts for the entire family. Colorful green and gold holiday decorations will outline the ballroom and collegiate members of Tri-Delta from USC, UCLA, and Long Beach State will render a background of Christmas carols.

Mrs. James S. White, El Segundo, is president of the Medical Research Committee. South Bay Alumnae are very proud of the work she has done during the past two years, assisted by Frances Oirk Krazevedit, Manhattan Beach, treasurer, and Walter Uptegraff III, Palms Verdes Estates, reservation chairman.

Attending the November Council meeting at El Segundo from the Torrance Women's club were Mmes. Don Wolf, president, John Thuss, Robert Moffitt, Lee McCoy, Helen Mitchell and John Warners.

Karlestedt-York Vows Are Recited at Baptist Church

Miss Haide S. E. Karlestedt of Balboa Island, who arrived in this country less than a year ago, was married Sunday to Jim York, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. York of this city, in a ceremony performed at 2 p.m. at the Torrance Baptist Church, 2118 Carson St., by Rev. Donald Flentje of Culinary Community Baptist Church.

The Swedish bride chose a ballerina-length wedding gown of white chiffon over satin with a matching train. Her bridal bouquet was of red roses.

Attending the couple were Miss Jill Adolfsen, maid of honor, and Michael Vids, Jr., best man.

Mrs. Donald Flentje, organist, accompanied soloist Donald Ogren, who sang "The Cause" and "O Perfect Love." Following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held in the Fellowship hall of the church.

A graduate of Blommenbergs High School in Grondal, Sweden, the bride has been employed as a governess at Balboa Island since coming to this country earlier this year.

Mr. York, who graduated from Gardena High School in 1955, served two years in the Navy. He is presently associated with his father in the carpeting business.

The newweds will make their home at 10807 New Hampshire St.
