'Christmas Fairyland' at St. Andrew's on Dec. 6

Guild Hall at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will become a veritable fairyland on Saturday, Dec. 6, when the Women of St. Andrew's stage their annual Christmas bazaar and dinner. Doors to the Christmas Fairyland will be opened at 10 a.m., according to Mrs. Robert S. Sleeth, president.

Baked goods, gift articles of all kinds, candies, and gifts for children, priced to suit the child budget, will be available for every member of the family. The committee for this annual event is comprised of Mrs. Don Wolf, St. Cecilia's guild; Mrs. Flossie Bowman, St. Elizabeth's; Mrs. Mildred Evans, St. Margaret's; Mrs. Richard Sprout, St. Mary Magdalene's; Mrs. Iris Gallagher, St. Veronica's.

State Officers Attend District Garden Meet

November meeting of District 2, Los Angeles Bay Harbor Branch of California Garden Clubs, Inc., was held Friday, Nov. 25, at the St. Regis Administration Building, Hermosa Beach, with Mrs. Frances Young, director, presiding.

The club discussed the annual award meeting which will be held Feb. 12-3 in Long Beach at the Balfour Hotel. The following committee was appointed to bring in a slate of officers at the next meeting of the district: Mrs. Richard Maben, Redondo Beach; Mrs. Jack Bennett, Palos Verdes Estates; Mrs. Edgar Calderwood, San Pedro; Mrs. T. J. McChesney, Manhattan Beach; and Mrs. Leo M. Huffman, San Pedro.

After the roll call, members of the various Garden clubs gave a resume of their activities during the past months and chairman gave their reports. Mrs. Young who attended the state meeting last week in Oakland, gave an interesting report highlighting the "Holiday Decoration Program" which is put on annually in December by the Garden clubs and Park Dept. of that city.

She told the members how the Council was formed, described its many aims and awards that were given at their annual Hobby Show in Long Beach, and later demonstrated the making of a puppet and touched briefly on her hobby, puppeteering.
