Official Meets Turkish Attache; Discusses City to City Program

Torrance City Councilman J. A. (Jay) Beasley met with Altmetur Kilit, Press Attache to the Turkish Embassy in Washington, Saturday to discuss Torrance's people to people project with Konya, Turkey.

Kilit expressed deep gratitude to the residents of Torrance for selecting the historic city of Konya as its across-the-seas sister.

During conversation at lunch at the National Press Club, Kilit said: "It seems to me that Torrance is the kind of city where I would like to live."

BEASLEY AND the Turkish Government spokesman then discussed the project in a tape-recorded interview arranged by News Associates.

Both men agreed that two things can be done immediately: Torrance can provide some industrial and business know-how for Konya—which is also stressing industrial development while retaining its historic background. Secondly, school children can exchange letters with the objective of learning about each other's cities.

AN EXCHANGE of official delegates is hoped for in the future.

Kilit made this interesting point: Konya, while pushing modern industry, particularly in textiles, carpets and other manufacturing, also takes pride in the fact that it is the original city of the whirling Dervishes. It has many shrines and is a tourist city and a pilgrimage center.

The Turkish representative said he had already heard that Torrance won the honor of "All-America City," and expressed pleasure that Konya has a model metropolitan center as its U. S. "sister."

Phone Co. Prepares Check For $15 Million for Taxes

Pacific Telephone this week is preparing a check for more than $15 million—an all-time high—to pay its personal property taxes next Wednesday to the Los Angeles County tax collector.

Exact figures on the check will be $15,517,761.02. Benefits from it will go to 80 county municipalities including the City of Los Angeles.

Total Los Angeles County tax the company will pay for the 1948-49 fiscal year amounts to $29,157,015.97, according to Manager H. S. Pyke. The second installment, payable April 16, is $13,640,249.90.

The manager said the total county payment will be an increase of 15 per cent over the company's property tax payment of the last fiscal year.

City-to-City Club Heads Mail Lists

Organizations participating in the sister-city program sponsored by the Torrance Coordinating Council met last night at the Torrance Municipal Plunge to seek similar interest groups in Konya, Turkey, the city recently chosen by Torrance to serve as a partner in its international goodwill program.

The city-to-city executive board will send lists of the Torrance associations' official representatives to Konya upon official acceptance of the Turkish city of the Torrance-proposed sister-city plan.

Scouts Aid TB Campaign

Armed with bundles of Christmas Seal sale posters, window signs and counter cards, members of Harbor District, Los Angeles Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, in celebration of the 1948 Christmas Seal drive, are now distributing their material in more than 200 stores and offices in the South Bay Area.

Bud Blankenship, explorer advisor, Post 241X, and Taylor Marsh, volunteer, Cub Pack 730C, Christmas Seal chairman for the Harbor District, Boy Scouts, report their Scout groups are part of more than 100 service organizations in Los Angeles County aiding the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Los Angeles County to reach its goal of $650,000.

Last year tuberculosis struck 2423 County residents, Bud Blankenship reports, adding that "This number can be reduced through support of the current Christmas Seal campaign."
