ORDINANCE NO. 395

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF TORRANCE AMENDING SECTIONS 10.17 AND 10.21 OF CHAPTER 10 OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF TORRANCE, 1934 ENTITLED "OIL CODE" SAID SECTIONS RELATING TO AMOUNT OF CHECK PRICE OF OIL WELL HOLE PERMIT FEES AND PENALTY FOR DELINQUENCY AND SUBSTITUTING NEW PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE SAME MATTERS.

The City Council of the City of Torrance does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1.

That Section 10.17 entitled "Amount of permit or oil well hole permit" is hereby repealed and the following provisions substituted therefor, to read in their entirety as follows:

"Section 10.17 Amount of permit or oil well hole permit fees.

Each applicant for a city clerk's initial or interim or oil well hole permit shall, at the time of filing such application, pay to the city clerk a permit fee in the amount of one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125.00) to be designated as a permit fee as the same is now commonly known and used in the industry of the State, for each derrick or oil well hole for which such permit is granted, such application to contain a legal description of the premises upon which the applicant desires to construct such oil derrick or drill such oil well hole.

Each applicant for a city clerk's annual renewal of derrick or oil well hole permit shall, at the time of filing such application, pay to the city clerk an annual renewal permit fee in the amount of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each and every derrick and/or oil well hole permit is required under this Chapter."

SECTION 2.

That Section 10.21 entitled "Penalty for delinquency" is hereby repealed and the following provisions substituted therefor, to read in their entirety as follows:

"Section 10.21 Penalty for delinquency.

(a) Commencement of business without license—penalty.

No person shall own or operate an oil derrick or oil well hole within the corporate limits of the city required to be licensed under the provisions of this Chapter until such license is issued. The fact that a person who engages in the operation of an oil derrick or oil well hole without first having obtained a license or a city clerk shall be an added penalty of ten percent (10%) of the prescribed license fee, and an additional ten percent (10%) penalty shall be added each thirty (30) days thereafter until paid, and the said penalty shall be collected and the payment thereof shall be enforced in the same manner as other licenses are collected and the payment thereof enforced.

(b) Renewal of license—penalty for delinquency.

The several licenses mentioned or provided for in this Chapter requiring annual thirty (30) days following the date of expiration a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the amount of such license shall be added, and an additional ten percent (10%) penalty shall be added each thirty (30) days thereafter until paid, and the said penalty shall be collected and the payment thereof enforced in the same manner as other licenses are collected and the payment thereof enforced.

SECTION 3.

Any provision of the Torrance City Code or ordinance thereto, inconsistent herewith, to the extent of such inconsistency and no further, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 4.

That this ordinance shall take effect thirty days after the date of its adoption and after the expiration of fifteen days from the passage thereof shall be published at least once in the Torrance Herald, a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Torrance.

Introduced and approved this 13th day of November, 1950.

Adopted and passed this 20th day of November, 1950.

ORDINANCE NO. 1066

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF TORRANCE AMENDING ARTICLE 11 OF CHAPTER 1 OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF TORRANCE, 1934 RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF FIRE PREVENTION AND PROVIDING FOR THE ENFORCEMENT AND THE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION THEREOF AND THE LAW HERETO THEREON.

The City Council of the City of Torrance does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1.

That Article 11 entitled "Fire Department" of Chapter 1 of the Code of the City of Torrance, 1934 is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 11. Department of Fire Prevention.

Section 1.1. Creation of Department.

There is hereby created a department to be known as the Department of Fire Prevention.

Section 1.2. Chief of Department.

The Chief of the Fire Department shall be the Chief of the Department of Fire Prevention.

Section 1.3. Duties of Chief.

The Chief of the Department of Fire Prevention shall enforce all ordinances of the City and all laws of the State relating to fire hazards, fire prevention and the storage, sale and use of inflammable liquids, explosives and hazardous materials.

Section 1.4. Inspection of Premises.

The Chief of the Department of Fire Prevention shall inspect or cause to be inspected by his subordinates all buildings and premises as often as necessary to prevent the breeding or harborage of fire which constitute a nuisance to the health or safety of the community or adjoining neighborhood.

Section 1.5. Abatement of Fire Hazards.

Whenever any fire hazard is found to exist on any premises within the City, the Chief of the Department of Fire Prevention shall give notice in writing to the owner or occupant of such premises to abate such fire hazard within a reasonable time after the giving of such notice. Such notice may be given by delivering a copy of such notice to the owner or occupant personally or by depositing it in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the owner at his last known address as the same appears on the records of the Assessor of the County of Los Angeles. Such notice shall specify the fire hazard to be abated and the time within which it is to be abated. Any person receiving such notice who deems himself aggrieved thereby may, within five days after the service thereof upon him, appeal to the Board of Fire Commissioners by filing with the Secretary of said Board a written notice of appeal. Upon the filing of such notice of appeal, the Board shall fix a time and place for hearing such appeal and shall notify the appellant thereof. The decision of the Board shall be final and conclusive.

Section 1.6. Abatement of Fire Hazards by City.

If the owner or occupant of any premises fails to abate a fire hazard within the time specified in the notice provided for in Section 1.5 hereof, the Chief of the Department of Fire Prevention may cause the fire hazard to be abated and may remove or demolish any building or structure which is a fire hazard. The cost of such abatement, removal or demolition shall be a charge against the owner of the premises and shall be collected in the manner provided by law for the collection of taxes.

Section 1.7. Violation a Misdemeanor.

Any person who violates any provision of this Article or who fails to comply with any order of the Chief of the Department of Fire Prevention or his subordinates made pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or six (6) months in the County Jail of Los Angeles County, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court.

SECTION 2.

This ordinance shall take effect thirty days after the date of its adoption and after the expiration of fifteen days from the passage thereof shall be published at least once in the Torrance Herald, a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Torrance.

Introduced and approved this 13th day of November, 1950.

Adopted and passed this 20th day of November, 1950.

Every person engaging, carrying on or transacting any business within a fixed place of business within the city and which is not specifically listed elsewhere in this section shall pay an annual license tax of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) for the first 5 units and One Dollar ($1.00) for each additional unit or fraction thereof.

SECTION 2.

Section 10.67.1 is hereby added to Chapter 10 of "The Code of the City of Torrance, 1934" and reads in its entirety as follows:

"Section 10.67.1 License exemption.

Every person, whether as principal, agent, clerk or employee, transacting, conducting or carrying on in the city any business, calling or occupation, or rendering any of the services hereinafter in this section mentioned, shall pay a license tax in accordance with the following schedule, and in addition thereto, shall pay the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) per employee, with a maximum not to exceed Five Hundred ($500) employees.

(a) Method of computing employee license tax. For the purpose of this section, the license tax for the number of employees shall be based on the number of persons employed on December 31st of each year. Employers in business for a shorter period shall pay a license tax based on the number of employees employed on the last day of each year. Employers in business for less than 3 months shall not be required to pay a license tax.

(b) New applicants. New applicants engaging in a business whose license classification shall be an attendant estimating the number of employees he intends employ to employ for the balance of the year for which he is applying.

(c) Definitions. For the purpose of this section, employee shall mean all persons engaged in the operation or conduct of any business, whether as owner, partner, agent, manager, solicitor, and any and all other persons employed or working in said business for a wage, salary, commission, or board and room.
