

Lomita Church Pancake Breakfast Set Saturday

There will be a Brotherhood Pancake Breakfast for the men of the First Baptist Church, Lomita, next Saturday morning at 7:30.

According to the pastor, J. W. Harris, blue-prints have been received from the architectural department of Nashville for the first unit of their new building.

It will be a two-story Educational Building 42 x 80 to provide space for two Junior Departments and for the Young People upstairs and an Adult Department plus two Beginner Departments downstairs.

United Brethren To Hear District Superintendent

Dr. O. E. Schaefer, district superintendent of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, will be guest speaker at the 7:30 p.m. service Sunday. Dr. Schaefer will present his views on the plans and building program of Central Church which were reviewed and approved by the California Board of Missions at a recent session.

Plans and methods of raising the necessary funds were presented to the mission board by Willard Haslam, building chairman, and W. R. Bowen, chairman of finance, as representatives of Central Church.

Rev. Schatz Announces Sermon Topic

Celebrating the third Sunday in Advent, the Rev. William K. Schatz of Seaside Community (E & R) United Church of Christ, 230th and Ocean Avenue, will speak on "Announcing Heavenly Things" at the regular morning worship service to be held at 10:45 a.m. Sunday.

Junior Youth Fellowship will have a Christmas party at the home of Ted Costa, 8428 West 229th Street, tomorrow at 7 p.m.

Senior Youth Fellowship will hold a pizza party in the new unit of the church from 4 to 8 p.m. Sunday. A film, "The Guiding Star," will be shown.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, TORRANCE, 228th and Market Ave.

Broadway Bonds are now being sold to make possible the starting of construction on this building soon. The master plan calls for the converting of their present auditorium into a two-story educational building and the construction of a new sanctuary 52 x 90 feet facing Western Ave.

Last week the ladies of the Church joined other prayer groups in more than 90,000 Southern Baptist Churches across the nation in the special Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions. The programs each morning were under the direction of Mrs. Rachel Kosoff, prayer chairman.

According to the associate pastor and youth director, Peter McLeod, the new youth center was opened with a special fellowship last Friday evening. Many recreational facilities are in the process of being procured.

Recently a television set was given for the youth center and a station wagon to aid in transporting youth groups.

Mariners Club To Install At Yule Dinner

Installation of officers of the Mariners Club of the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena will take place at the Christmas Dinner party to be held at 7 p.m. Saturday in the board room of the new church building located at Gramercy and Redondo Blvd.

Officers to be installed include: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilliver, skippers; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook, first mates; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mobley, log keepers; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mashburn, pursers.

Following the turkey dinner, a gift exchange will take place.

Narbonne Ave Church Notes Anniversary

A double anniversary will be observed at the Narbonne Ave. Southern Baptist Church this Sunday when the pastor, Robert A. Wells, begins his ninth year with the group and the church notes its 14th anniversary.

During the eight years in which Rev. Wells has served as pastor, registration in Sunday school has grown from 126 pupils to 559 pupils.

"God's message to you" will be the topic of the anniversary sermon to be presented at the 8:30 a.m. and 11:50 a.m. worship services Sunday.

New Church to Hold Christmas Program Sunday

The Greyfriars Presbyterian Church will present its Christmas program Sunday at the temporary church facility in the Sea-Aire Park Community Building, 22790 Lupine Drive.

Sunday School Superintendent Richard Goran announced that the Sunday School program will be held at 9:30 a.m. under the sponsorship of Mrs. John Forbes of Palms Verdes Drive. Christmas songs and verses will be given by all departments of the school.

Church services will begin at 10:30 a.m. following the children's program. The sermon will be delivered by Dr. David Calderwood, who will conduct the baptism and receive new members into the church.

A congregational picture will be taken during this period to be forwarded to the editor of the Guardian magazine in Philadelphia, Pa., who was a leader in the founding of the Torrance Presbyterian Church.

Vocalist Mrs. Sarah Mizner of Palms Verdes Estates will continue the Christmas theme with a solo, "Gesu Bambino," accompanied by Mrs. Robert Anderson.

A brief fellowship and refreshments will be featured immediately after the 10:30 a.m. service under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Watkins and Mrs. Joseph Hardey of the Women's Association.

Friends and guests are invited to participate in the entire holiday worship service.

Preservation To Be Topic Of Sermon

The nature of God to preserve and care for man, both by example and by promise, is illustrated in the Lesson-Sermon "God the Preserver of Man" to be heard in all Christian Science services Sunday.

Examples of historical significance and inspired experience from the Bible will highlight the sermon, such as the deliverance of the children of Israel from Egypt, Elijah's being cared for while sheltered from his enemies, the birth and saving promise of Christ Jesus and his resurrection.

Temple Choir To Present Hanukkah Music

To commemorate Hanukkah, the Feast of Lights, the Temple Menorah Choir will present a festival of Hanukkah music at the temple sanctuary, 112 S. Catalina St., Redondo Beach, tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. under the direction of Fay Newman, soprano, and Harry Newman, cantor, who will be featured in an oratorio composition, "In the Days of the Macabees."

Throughout this week the Jewish people are celebrating the rededication of the Temple by Judah Macabee in the year 165 B.C. following the defeat of the attacking Syrian army, by lighting candles in their homes and singing traditional songs.

Following the music festival Rabbi Henry Front will offer explanatory comments on the music and discuss the meaning of Hanukkah.

The music festival is open to the public.
