Mr. Chapman escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a ballerina length wedding gown of white Chantilly lace. Her fingertip illusion veil was secured by a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet consisting of white orchids surrounded by white carnations.

Miss Jeanette Kelly served as the bride's only attendant. Her ballerina length gown was of blue crystalline and she carried a shower of pink carnations.

Robert Charles Chapman Jr. stood as best man.

A reception followed in the church social hall where Miss Evelyn Chapman registered the guests. Assisting in service were Miss Nancy Chapman, Rita and Lannis Hrusens.

A party for close friends and family was held at the Chapman home.

The newlyweds have gone to San Diego to make their home where the bridegroom is serving with the United States Navy.

The bride received her early education in Corry, Pa., and was a senior at Gardena High school.

Her husband was graduated from high school in Idaho before entering the service.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

A is for apples, avocados, and artichokes. Also for the appetizer served in the living room before the Christmas dinner. Allows a "breather" for the hostess.

B is for berries, cranberries, and a limited number of strawberries. Broccoli, Brussels sprouts and a few snap beans. B is also for budget. Planning to use thrifty seasonal foods allows splurging on fanciness without depleting the budget.

C is for cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, celery, corn and cucumbers. Also for cheer.

D is for dairy products. Butter, cream, cheese and milk.

E is for egg nog... a holiday treat from the kitchen. Freeze egg nog and slice or scoop into bowl of egg nog to keep it cold while serving.

F is for fruits... beautiful, delicious. Fill the Christmas fruit bowl with apples, avocados, oranges, tangerines, pears... frosted grapes and a holly sprig.

G is for gifts from your kitchen. Your favorite cheese dip packed in refrigerator dish. (Attach the recipe.) A jar of your best barbecue sauce and a set of new skewers. Or to be redeemed later, a "gift certificate" for your prize-winning pie or cake.

H is for the holiday market motto "Be Prepared." Plan your shopping so yourarder holds what you need at the time you need it.

I is for the instant and ready prepared foods to ease holiday cooking. You can make them "your own" by adding special seasonings and garnishes.

J is for jams and jellies you made this year. Fine gifts to give a hostess, or to the person who lives alone... and probably doesn't have a pantry full.

K is for a kitchen, which is Laminated that cook quickly or stews that are even better the "next" time. Steaks, hamburgers, and luncheon meats for light meals and snacks.

R is for refreshments on hand to serve any visitors... cheese dips, baked apples filled with mince-meat, nut and fruit breads and cakes, holiday cookies and candies.

S is for spices and herbs. How old is your present supply? Now's the time to replenish your stock. Be assured of the flavor you want.

T is for Christmas trees. Keep it fresh, safe and fragrant. Cut an inch or two from the butt end so the tree can absorb water. Use a reservoir tree holder... and water the tree regularly.

U is for the unforgettable meaning of Christmas and the joy that comes from giving.

V is for vegetables which grace our tables... a wide selection of fresh, frozen and canned.

X is for the known quality and quantity which makes good food better. It's the loving care you give to preparing foods for your family.

Y is for you, the hostess, and our wish that you and your family have the merriest Christmas ever.

Z is for zero degrees of your freezer which lets you plan, buy and prepare ahead so that you, too, will enjoy the gaiety of the Christmas holidays.
