Harvey Aluminum employees voted heavily against affiliation with the United Steelworkers of America and the International Association of Machinists in an election conducted here last week by the National Labor Relations Board.

"THE LABOR SCANDALS exposed in the Senate hearings have turned a great many from any and all unions," a statement released by the company Monday said.

"Employees at the company's primary reduction plant at The Dalles, Ore., rejected the Aluminum Workers Council and the Steelworkers in a vote conducted by the NLRB three weeks ago."
