Their parents take turns dropping them off when they go to parties, club meetings and so on. They say we are more reliable than sitters and we are "handy." What do you suggest?—SILVER THREADS.

Dear Threads: Since you have such a chummy relationship with your children that they feel comfortable dumping their kids on you for dinner several times a week, you ought to get REAL confidential with THEM.

cided it was too late to phone his home so I asked the delivery boy to drive me.

When I got to the porch my boy friend was waiting — mad as a hornet. He said tertible things and accused me of flirting with the delivery boy. Then he slapped my face.

I went in the house and left him on the porch. He knocked for 10 minutes but I wouldn't answer. He has already called my sister and asked her to "fit things up." I really loved him, Ann, but after seeing this side of his character I don't know if I should go with him again. My parents hope I will find someone else. Please tell me what to do.—MISERABLE.
