Polynesian to Hold South Seas Festival July 19

A "South Seas Festival" highlighted by a real Hawaiian-Samoan-Tahitian luau, will be presented at The Polynesian Restaurant, Coast Highway restaurant in Torrance, Sunday, July 19, and will be open to the public by advance reservation.

Five hours of continuous entertainment, featuring a galaxy of outstanding island performers, will add to the colorful, authentic pageant. Musical attractions scheduled include primitive dances of Tahiti, ceremonial fire and sword dances of Samoa, and the traditional hulas of Hawaii.

Tani Marsh and Telu Mansfield will stage the entertainment program at the native feast, which will begin at 2 p.m. on the lanai terrace of The Polynesian.

Opening of the real luau pit will also provide a dazzling "show" at the luau. Tickets for the "South Seas Festival" are now available at the exotic tropical restaurant.

Local Teacher Attends Eight-Week Institute

Peter C. Mentz of 136 W. 213th St. has been selected to attend the eight-week summer institute which began Monday at the School of Mines and Technology in Rapid City, South Dakota. He was one of 112 selected from 1,038 applicants.

Open to high school teachers throughout the United States, the institute offers courses in physics, mathematics, geology, and chemistry. Expenses for the course are paid for by the National Science Foundation, and will include travel allowance, a stipend each week, and all fees charged by South Dakota Tech.

Families of the teachers live in the new dormitories on campus.

Puppet Show Slated for Halldale Kids

A puppet show featuring the masterful manipulations of Patsy Francis is scheduled for the Halldale playground for the afternoon of July 13, it was announced here this week by Mary Halverson, playground director.

Sponsored by the youth service section of the Los Angeles Board of Education, the puppet show, like other playground activities, will be presented without admission charge.

Scheduling the show and presentation is Jack Carr of the south district staff.

As the show is making several appearances that day other playgrounds, the time of the presentation has not been determined Halverson said. She will announce the time at the ground as soon as she is notified, she added.
