Suspected Dope User Dies on Eve of Court Hearing

LARGEST HOME DELIVERY BY FAR

Herald Phone Number

- . FAirfax 8-5164-For Society.
- ► FAirfex 8-4000—For General News, Circulation.
- FAirfax 8-4000—For Classified, Ask for Ad-Taker.

California's Greatest Semi-Week ly - Every Sunday and Thursday

Corrance Berald

IN THE HERALD TODAY

Ann Landers	.9 Ed	itorials	4
Comics	.6 Re	g Man	ning4
Crossword	4 So	ciety .	9-10
Classified 13	15 Sn	orte	2

45th Year-No. 56

TORRANCE, CALIFORNIA, SUNDAY, JULY 12, 1959

10¢ Per Copy

MERCURY HITS SWELTERING 97°

A Penny Thoughts

"What is your favoriae for-mula for beating the heat?"

That was the question the HERALD's inquiring photogra-pher asked several persons on the sun-drenched streets of Torrance one sweltering day this week. Their cool-headed advice appears with their pictures below.

Emma Lee Cadbell, 4718 Carmelyn St.,

housewife:

"Keep calm
and don't get excited. I think about c o o l
things and cool places - and avoid activity.

Catherine Schonau, 21613

Anza, housewife:

"I go to the beach, if possible. It isn't that it's much receive there." cooler there— just that it's much pleasanter there. For at-home heat-beating I'd suggest a tall cool throughout this country and drink and a shady patio.

Bob Purviance, 1561 W. 223 St. office manager, Torrance Van and Storage:

"A nice cool electric fan or an air-conditioner. There's not too much you can do you can do about the heat.

Besides, I like it when it's warm."

John W. Mathew, S. Pasa dena, executive:

"I don't have time to think about it. If you keep busy, you're not as likely to be bothered by the heat. When you're relaxing I recommend salt tablets and lots of liquids."

Mrs. Virginia Reasbeck, 21430 Dolores St., wsewife: have just the sun. It's much cooler indoors."

Hearing on Getty Zone Bid Tuesday

A public hearing on Plan-ning Commission Case 575, a petition of the Getty Oil Co. to rezone 97 acres of property at the southeast corner of Sepul-veda and Crenshaw from manufacturing to residential and commercial, is scheduled for 8 p.m. before the city council position to the petition has been expressed by the Standard Oil Co., which owns land adjacent to the Getty

Overdose of Dope Blamed

A 27-year-old unemployed Torrance man, scheduled to appear in court on a narcotics possession charge, died at Harbor General Hospital Thursday. His death has been laid to an overdose of narcotics.

Hospitalized July 2 after he lapsed into a coma at his he lapsed into a coma at his home was Garrett J. Eustace IV, of 5320 Bindewald Road. Reports that Eustace might have been the victim of a beating were checked by Torrance detectives. They were told that his right arm and leg were swollen and that his abdomen was heavily bruised on his admittance to the hospital. He was admitted 10 days ago He was admitted 10 days ago after his mother found him in

FRANK BLENKHORN

Local Man

Heads US

Creditors

Bay District and Santa Monica

Blenkhorn, who returned to and Hawaii.

comatose condition and called an ambulance. He reportedly told attendants at the hospital that he had administered heroin to himself before he was hospitalized.

Thomas S. Turner, 24-year veteran in the communication veteran in the communication business, has been named to succeed Y. C. Todd as district plant manager for Pacific Tel-ephone in the area that serves Torrance, the company an-nounced this week.

Elected president of the As-Turner will supervise all telephone installation, repair and maintenance work done by a force of 220 men and women sociated Credit Bureaus of America, which represents throughout this country and Canada, at its convention in Dallas, Tex., last week was Frank M. Blenkhorn, president of the Credit Bureau of South

HOT WEATHER AID . . . When the temperature in Torrance soared to 97 degrees Friday, young merchants set up business on the corner of Torrance Blvd. and Cota Ave. complete with a sign advertising "Iee Cold Lemonald." Business was good and by three o'clock in the afternoon 55 cents was in the till at a penny a glass. Co-partners Vicky and Kirk Casaban and Marty and Fay Cox were their own customers while Cliff Larson poured. (Herald photo)

City Awaits Sea Breeze

Torrance along with the rest of Southern California sweltered under the blistering rays of a July sun here Friday as the temperature rose to 97 degrees, one of the hottest July readings logged in this city.

Prospects for cooler days ahead came Saturday as a clouds knocked the edge off the sun's scorching rays, and the sea breezes stirred gently through the area.

Friday's high temperatures this afternoon. started early — almost at sun-

A waitress in a downtown cafe who works late and likes to sleep late in the mornings reports that she had a fright when she awakened Friday—jumped out of bed thinking her home was on fire Jumped out or bed thinking her home was on fire.

It just seemed that way, she explained later.

The municipal plunge got a workout as nearly 1000 hit the work as hearly look the heat? program.

For others, the thought of getting out to the plunge was too much. It was too hot to make the trip.

make the trip.
Traffic in downtown Tor-

Official weather forecast is for continued sunny today with slightly cooler temperatures

Coleman Gets New Test Job

Coleman Engineering Co.
Inc. of Torrance this week was awarded an Air Force contract
in the amount of $1,640,000
for the fiscal year ending next June 30 to operate the Hurricane Supersonic Research Site in Southern Utah.

According to T. C. Coleman

make the trip.

Traffic in downtown Torrance was extremely light for Friday, a traditional shopping day.

"But we had a pretty good day," one merchant told the HERALD. The people who did come downtown came to buy something — there were few "shoppers," he explained.

"Southern Utah.

According to T. C. Coleman, president, the site is used to test escape systems for military aircraft in rocket propelled sleds along a two and one-quarter mile track ending at 1,500 foot precipice. Certain missile and parachute systems are also tested at high speeds, he added.

Miller Play to Be Presented At El Camino

Presentation of Arthur Mil-

Presentation of Arthur Miller's dramatic two-act play, "A View From the Bridge," will open the 1959 summer theater program of El Camino College Friday at 8:30 p.m.

Tickets for the performance, which will be duplicated Saturday night, will be on sale in the theater box office. Also available at the box office for the final time on Friday and Saturday will be season tickets which will enable theater-goers to view the entire summer series of four productions for a special rate of $2.

No seats will be reserved for

No seats will be reserved for the summer productions. Tickets for individual performances will be 75 cents each.

DIRECTING the opening play of the series will be Joe D'Agosta, who was the 1959 winner of the El Camino Thespian Club "Best Actor of the Vacy" ward. Year" award.

"A View from the Bridge" ars Chuck Cox and Vivian Rodriguez.

Other members of the cast will be Eric Morgan, Park Har-riot, Tony Castano of Torrance, Winifred Mewborne of Tor-rance, Gary Shaffer of Tor-rance, Bill Ewing, Chuck Strat-ton and Jack Stockdale.

Attempted Murder Case Dies; Mate Won't Talk

this area this week, also holds the office of president of the Associated Credit Bureaus of Charges of attempted murder which were filed against a Torrance woman in April were dropped here Friday when her husband, the victim of the shooting, refused to take the stand against her.

Mrs. Duane Schultz, 42, of 2654 Carson St., was released weeks following the shooting, and the court hearing had been delayed for more than two months until he could be brought to the hearing. California and Pacific South-west, which covers the states of California, Nevada, Arizona Theme of the convention dealt with handling large multiple users currently extending nation-wide credit plans.

EAGER BEAVERS . . . Gathering material already for a Recreation Department camping trip scheduled for the week of Aug. 22 to 29 are Mary Hurth, 10, and Raymond Koke, also 10. The campers will go to Big Bear Lake. Cost is $30. Details are available at the Recreation Depart

GETTING AHEAD . . . in life is Allan Ferguson, of 2545 Lesserman, whose work will soon be exhibited in Canada as well as at Southland showplaces. The El Camino art student has turned his attentions from three-inch wood carved figures to 12-foot giants giving each individualized

M-M-M-M-GOOD . . . Ricky Russell, 9-year-old third-grader, was one of the 100 youngsters who enjoyed a watermelon feed Thursday at the Halldale school playground. Mary Halverson, playground director, assisted by Halldale PTA members, served 15 watermelons for the occasion.

(Herald photo)

Art Student Leaves Teensy Work for Paul Bunyan Types

of Paul Bunyan is the giant a hand-carved chess set made and six feet wide—to be cast step toward success accome in ceramics class at El Camino in a sitting position for a plished by El Camino College College last spring which won "Jack and the Beanstalk" ex-

1 1

From a 3-inch wood carving Co. of El Segundo, landed the of a dwarf to a 12-foot statue job by showing owner Hawes bearded giant, 12 feet high art student Allan Ferguson of 2545 Lesserman St.
Ferguson, 33, who is spending to be assigned to serve as Paul Bunyan—which will be shipped to Caning the summer as sculptor for some small item for his first and then recast standing to serve as Paul Bunyan—which will be shipped to Caning the Alan Hawes Amusement assignment, he was taken back