FORFEITS CONTINUE TO MAR SOFTBALL ACTION

Four forfeits were posted in city softball action this week as the schedule neared playoff time. The first double forfeit recorded this season was when the Union Carbide and the Coleman Engineering squads failed to show for their game. The Torrance VFW won by forfeit over their Gardena counterparts in the Red League and The Marine Clerks won over the Aeros in an Open League game. The fourth forfeit credited Al's Knolls Drugs with a win over the North Torrance Lions in a Black League game.

Girls' Softball League Reaches Halfway Point

The Girls' Softball League reached the halfway point this week. Two mild games, following the form chart were played Tuesday night at McMaster Park. The Challengers easily handled the Spartettes, 8 to 0. The winning pitcher, Kathy Reed, gave up only 6 scattered hits in her shutout game, and none was longer than a single. The Spartettes lost the game on errors, since the losing pitcher, Acosta, gave up only 7 runs. In the second game the Pythons took care of the Teens, 17 to 10. The Pythons collected a total of 11 hits off losing pitcher Marti Simpson. The Teens led for two innings, until the Pythons suddenly found themselves and scored 9 runs in the bottom of the second. Four Pythons had at least two hits, but none for extra bases. The win goes to a new pitcher, Janet Hock. Janet normally plays catcher.

A SINGLE Red League game

gave the Water Department a 6-3 victory over the JFF nine. Benny Kidner picked up the win while the loss was charged to Ben Hunt.

Industrial League play was capped by somewhat of an upset when the Ryan Aeros defeated the league leading Post Office nine 5-4. The losing pitcher Jerry Duval walked home the winning run in the final frame.

Harvey Aluminium turned in a 15-4 win over the Redondo Central L. L. Officials behind the six-hit pitching of Clinton Smith. The Redondo nine made six errors which proved the difference in the game.

The Fire Department "B" team posted a 2-1 upset victory over Kenny's Shoe Repair in a Blue League clash. Chuck Reinisma posted the win and Bill Reese was charged with the loss.

PROBABLY the most important game of the summer was played Thursday night at WALTERIA Park. This was the one between the Esabs and Vandals with first place in the standings at stake. Both teams were "up" for this one. For two innings it was 3 up and 3 down. Then the Esabs pushed across 2 runs to take a lead they never relinquished. The big blow fell on the Vandals in the 4th inning when the Esabs loaded the bases with two walks and a single. Up came the Esab pitcher, Judy Clements, who promptly hit the most important home run of her life. This put the Esabs ahead 7-0, which the Vandals couldn't overtake in the remaining innings. The Vandals gave it all they had when they combined walks and a single to push across one run. This was a hard, well-played game, one which gives the Esabs a firm hold on first place. The winning pitcher pitched a one-hit game, while the losing pitcher, Gaynell McGee gave up only 4 hits.

In the other games the Mishaps scored a resounding 33 to 0 victory over the Teens. The Mishaps batted around twice in the first inning, scoring 13 runs. After that the Teens were never in the game. The winning pitcher was Aggie Easchlef and Cheryl Rise was the loser.

Shrine Classic to Feature Top California Prep Grid Players

Both North and South are determined to "open up" the game in the Eighth Annual Shrine Football Classic August 7 at the Memorial Coliseum and both rosters are so loaded with offensive stars that the coaches shouldn't have much trouble doing just that. South co-coaches Dave Levy, Long Beach Poly, and Frank Nobe, Fremont, had four brilliant quarterbacks at their disposal when pre-game drills began Friday. The South signal-caller are Ezell Singleton, Cathedral; Jerry Otterson, Paramount; and Bill Redell, San Marino.

Singleton is hailed by Levy as "one of the finest long passers I've seen in high school football." Ezell, a brilliant three-sport athlete who is being pursued by more than a half-dozen major league baseball teams, threw 28 touchdown strikes last fall, completing 107 out of 182 passes for 1,715 yards. What's more, the 160-pound slickster is just as murderous running with the ball when he rolls out of the cup.

Disarufino, nicknamed "The Bullet", was a three-year sensation for Cathedral, rolling up 3,913 yards and completing 58% of his passes. When potential receivers are covered, he also likes to tuck the ball under his wing and head goalward. Otterson, another pass-and-go man, chalked up 1,709 yards via both routes and Redell, CIF small schools' "Player of the Year", collected in excess of 1,500 yards as a thrower and ball-carrier.

In ends Hayward Williams (Santa Barbara), Rich Salvitti (North Hollywood), Danny Spence (Banning), and Marv Fleming (Compton), the South has four excellent receivers in addition to halfbacks Nick McLean (North Hollywood), Ken Del Conte (Morningside), and Kermit Alexander (Mt. Carmel), all of whom are excellent pass snappers. On the ground, McLean, Del Conte and Alexander are all breakaway threats par excellence. Dee Andrews, Long Beach Poly's CIF "Player of the Year" and a 155-pound jet who runs the high hurdles in 14.1s and lows in 18.9s, is certainly a perambulating package of TNT from anywhere on the field and Huntington Park full-back Larry Campbell, a 225-pound bulldozer, runs the 100-yard dash in the 10.1s!

The North, coached by Larry Siemering, Santa Cruz, and Bill Gott, Stagg High of Stockton, is also expected to unleash a swift-striking offense, featuring two talented quarterbacks—Daryle Lamonica of Clovis and Bill Munson of Lodi. Lamonica, an excellent runner as well as a sharp passer (completed 46 of 106), was unanimous All-Northern California choice and Munson, a deceptive ball-handler, connected on 39 of 80 John Sparrow of Novato, listed as a half-back, is also a fine passer, with a remarkable record of 65 completions in 80 attempts and 11 TD's, and Bob Lazark (Norte Del Rio of Sacramento) hit on 31 of 66 passes, giving the North four aerial pilots. For receivers, the North has Gary Casey of Mt. Diablo (Concord), Vince Darone of Pittsburg, Mick Doherty of St. Ignatius (S.F.), all backs, plus ends Willie Brackins of Encinal (Alameda), Tom Fetherston of Turlock, Mel Profit of Camden (San Jose) and Ron Snidow of San Rafael.

To counteract the South's breakaway threats, North offers LeRoy Whittle, whose brother Ed played in last year's game.
