

FASHIONS AND MUSIC . . . Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters, have announced plans for their annual fashion show to be held Sept. 21 at Nativity Parish Hall. "Hi-Fi in Fashions" has been chosen as the theme. Talking over their musical decor and their parade of the latest in women's and men's fashions are from left, Mmes. Gerald Young, C. W. Bennett, Don Carlson, Robert Klaesges and Paul McDonald.

A Musical Decor Lavish Fashions to Sparkle at Show

"Hi-Fi in Fashions" will be the theme of the annual fashion show to be staged by Court St. Catherine Catholic Daughters of America at the Nativity Parish hall, Cota and Manuel on Monday evening, Sept. 21. A delightful musical decor will be carried out in keeping with the theme. Originated twelve years ago as a garden party at the home of Mrs. Laura Felker, the fashion show, each September, has served as a major social and fund raising event in the club year.

Arrangements are being made by Mrs. Robert Aguilar, the organization's vice regent, as general chairman with two other officers, Mrs. Frank J. Quinn, decorations, and Mrs. J. W. Crew, tickets, as co-chairmen.

Notes and other musical insignia, records and their covers will be utilized to portray the hi-fi motif, under direction of Mrs. Quinn. Clever mannequins, hand-wrought by the decorations chairman and her committee from wire hangers and sequins, will center the tables.

The program is being prepared under direction of Mrs. Louis Derouin. Other CDA members in charge of some phase of the planning include: Mmes. Noel G. Hayward, refreshments; Gerald Young, models; William McDonald, door prizes; Lyle J. O'Hara, publicity. Other committee members include Mmes. Richard Olson, Andrew Rabel, Frank R. Weston, Tom Moore, John Melville, Paul Hingtgen, Charles Allen and Marie Wubbker.

Fashions, for both women and men will be furnished by local merchants.

According to Mrs. Young, the models will include three CDA members, Mmes. Robert Klaesges, Paul McDonald and Elles E. Cook, and the others from "Mannequins of Torrance" who model as a community service for local organizations: Mmes. George Post, Milton Youngken, Don Carlson, Charles Bennett, Jean Bandoli, and the Misses Claudia Smith and Joyce Cannon. Don Thomlin will display the male attire from his Lomita shop.

The show is set for 8 p.m., with introductions by Mrs. Aguilar and a welcome by Mrs. Richard Ban, grand regent. Kay Starr will be the commentator. A 17-inch portable TV will be the grand prize, with other door prizes awarded throughout the evening. Tickets are available from members of Court St. Catherine, or at the door that evening.

Volunteer Work Topic At Auxiliary Meeting

Everything is planned with a single objective — the ultimate in patient care — overshadowing all other considerations, Mrs. George Leverenz told other members of The Little Company of Mary Auxiliary at their meeting, Touching upon the functions of the Hospital Advisory Board, of which she is a member, Mrs. Leverenz gave an interesting history of this order of nursing sisters and their 43 hospitals around the world of which Calvary in Rome, known as the "Hospital of the Blue Nuns," is most famous.

"Every contribution from the humblest effort of the volunteer to the large memorial gifts in obedience to the divine command to 'Heal the sick,'" was the concluding remark of the speaker, introduced by the Program chairman, Mrs. Harrison A. Storms, Jr. Eagerly awaiting the day when they can begin their service at the hospital nearing completion at 4101 Torrance Blvd., Torrance, members listened enthusiastically to a resume by the Volunteers Chairman Mrs. Ben E. Kuchar, of what will be expected of the volunteer. Information desk, gift shop, feeding the incapacitated, reading to and feeding children, transportation to and from x-ray, sewing and mending, linen changing, and baby photos are among the services to be performed by the volunteer.

The president, Mrs. Frank H. Forester, officiated during the business meeting.
