Thriftimart To Open Two New Stores

All 47 Thriftimart Markets will join in the celebration beginning Dec. 1 when two new Thriftimart Markets are opened in Glendale, it was announced this week.

The new markets — which will open simultaneously — are at 2450 Glendale Blvd. (at Silverlake) and in the Glendale Plaza Shopping Center, 561 N. Glendale Ave. (at Doran).

Entertainers scheduled to appear during the celebration inclure Les Brown and Disc Jockey Dick Whittinghill at the Glendale Plaza and Disc Jockey Bill Stewart at the Silverlake and Glendale market.

"I am very happy to witness this development in our expansion program," Thriftimart President Roger M. Laverty said.

"Hundreds of money-saving English Triumph and the Germendous array of fabulous prizes will be given away during the opening at both stores," he added.

Red Cross Asks For Help With Blood Program

Mrs. Robert Orsini, Blood Bank chairman of Torrance Branch American Red Closs, is urgently requesting that any women who are interested in working on bloodmobiles in the Torrance area to contact her at FAirfax 8-0647.

Volunteers needed are typists, canteen workers, and women to work in the donor room where they assist the nurses. The work usually takes from four to five hours and all of the volunteers are from the Torrance area.

Canteen help is very simple, as only coffee, juice, water, and cookies are served to the blood donors, she said.

Creighton To Open New Car Emporium

Bill Creighton's newest imported car emporium at 501 N. Pacific Coast Hwy., Redondo Beach, will be given the full "Grand Opening" treatment on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, he announced.

Creighton, well known in South Bay automotive circles for many years, will celebrate the formal opening of his attractive, brand new building, with a "Grand Opening" sale. Special grand opening prices will be offered, he said, on the specials are planned and a treman Borgward.

Other Creighton location is at 2699 Pacific Coast Hwy., where the principal product is the French Renault.
