

VACATION TIME . . . At the Wesley Forsythe home on Falda Ave. these vacation days have been highlighted with kitchen activities. The whole family joins in the fun when it is cookie making time. In this kitchen scene with Mrs. Forsythe are from left, Karen, 16, Teresa, 8, Lynn, 11 and Gary 13.

Mrs. Forsythe Shares Her

Family's Favorite Recipes

A mother of four children, who manages a home and finds time to take part in other activities is today guest cook in the Herald's Favorite Recipe column. She is

Mrs. Waslay, Forsytha, 18022, Folda, Am.

(Continued from Page 9)
Dad's shoes. How would you like to be haulted out of bed at 1:30 A.M. to drive 30 miles and collect some dizzy kids and collect some dizzy kids.

Will Install New Officers from THIS corner, I think you got off easy.

- 1 c cocoanut 1 c fruit cocktail (drained) 1 c sour cream

- OLD WORLD CRESCENTS

54 c butter 1½ tsp vanilla
½ c sugar 1 c nuts
2 cups flour
Mix all ingredients together and form into crescent shapes. Bake at 375 degrees about 10 minutes. After taking out of the oven roll in powdered sugar.

For Your Convenience OPEN EVENINGS Open 8 A.M. 'til Midnight No Appointment Needed

Reg. $10.00 $725 Triple Oil _____ Reg. $15.00 Creme ____ $825 Reg. $20.00
All S 1 025
GUARANTEE of SATISFACTION

CROWNING

INGLEWOOD (3 Doors North 207 No. Market OR 1-9480 TORRANCE (Next Door

Hospital Patients Given

Each person was given a stole and individual gift. Cookies and candies were served.

The Junior Girl Unit, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Johnson, sang Christmas carols. Johnson, sang Christmas carols.
In the group were Jeannie
Bouman, Linda Christensen,
Renee DeVolt, Gayle DeVolt,
Claudia Ells, Linda Ells, Judy
Gurski, Barbara Holliday, Karen Johnson, Barbara Kamler, Jessie Kronberger, Gloria
Sams, Verna Dena Sams. Accordionists accompanying were Pat and Mary Ellen Miller.

Arrangements for the adon.

In the east were Ora L. Wadd-

Arrangements for the adop-tion of the ward and the party were made by Mrs. Anthony Cantabene, rehabilitation chairman.

Auxiliary members attending the party were: Mrs. Bernard Winters, president; Mrs. Steve Enman, second vice president; Mmes. Anthony Cantabene, Evelyn Myers, Neil

... Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 9)

The Forsythes moved here five years ago from the San Fernando Valley. The sy are the parents of Karen, 16, a senior at North High school. Teresa 8, Lynn 11, and Garry 13, all students at the Hamilton School.

This family is active in the South Bay Church of God.

This family is active in the Hamilton PTA and still finds time for her favories which have been at the Hamilton PTA and still finds time for her favories which have been at the hobby, ceramics, which she is studying at the Torrance High school night classes.

FRUIT SALAD

1 c coccoanut
1 c fruit cocktail
(drained)
1 c sour cores.

The Forsythes moved here five years ago from the got off easy.

Dear Ann: I'm 43 and don't look it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I took it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I took it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I took it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I took it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I took it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I took it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I took it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I took it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I took it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I took it. My hair began to turn grey about five years ago so I town in the nice of her families favorite to hold and grey streaks and I think it's very attractive. Now I'm seriously considering the california blonde and grey streaks and I don't know whether to keep it chest-ut? Seriously considering the shade garden, Philip E. Chandler of Santa Monica, horticultural consultant, lecturer and writer, will present and discuss "link it's very attractive. Now I'm seriously considering the shade garden, Philip E. Chandler of Santa Monica, horticultural consultant, lecturer and writer, will present and discuss 'link it's very attractive. Now I'm seriously considering the holdsy and in the toric dark hair with blonde and grey streaks and

Dear Wart: If THIS is all you've got to worry about, consider yourself lucky. I can't imagine anything of less consequence than whether your hair is chestnut tipped with grey or grey tipped with chestnut. Why don't you just leave it alone and let Mother Nature tip it?

UCLA and Hollywood and university adult schools.
Chandler is also a Fellow of the Royal Horticultural Society of Great Britain and serves on the board of directors of the Southern California Horticultural Institute. tural Institute.
William L. Taylor of Anaheim, junior past president of the California National Fuch-sia Society, will preside as mas-

CHRISTMAS PUDDING

1 c flour
1 c sugar
1 c sugar
1 c sugar
1 c sugar
1 tsp soda
(including juice)
1/2 c brown sugar
Mix flour, sugar, soda, salt. Sift all together. Then add egg, fruit cocktail, nuts and sugar. Bake about 30 minutes in a 350 degree oven.

In The Navy
Miss Shella J. Snow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Snow (nee Eva Mize) of Hermosa Beach, formerly of Torrance, is in the east with the United States Navy.
Miss Snow is following in the footsteps of her late grand-father, Naval Officer Paul Mize.
Miss Snow is following in the footsteps of her late grand-father, Naval Officer Paul Mize.
Mr. and Mrs. George C lifton and Mrs. Marshlal Cox, Jr., and Erin of Mrs. Frances Mize of Torrance.

Are your parents too strictly too the California National Fuchs Society, will preside as master of ceremonies.
James W. Peters of Bellflower rewll conduct installation of heat on the California National Fuchs Society, will preside as master of ceremonies.
James W. Peters of Bellflower rewll conduct installation of national officers for the year.
An Landers will be sead to help of the closing a stamped, self-addressed and early the poor profile.

Elmer Mason of Long Beach will be seated for his second term as president. On the officers to be installed will include: A. Roy Joyce of Los Angeles, vice-president; S. G. Copeland of Venice, second vice-president; Mrs. Helen Frank Rice of Bellflower, rewll conductions, and the Brith Women will hold a regular business mixed by the profile Mrs. Helen Frank Rice of Bellflower, rewll conductions, and the profile Mrs. Helen Frank Rice of Bellflower, rewll conductions, and the profile Mrs. Helen Frank Rice of Bellflower and the rewll conductions described in the California National Fuchs Society, will preside to the california National Fuchs Society will president to the California National Fuchs Society will preside to members are welcome, and re-freshments will be served. Fur-ther information may be ob-tained by contacting Mrs. Ger-ald Chase of Gardena, member-ship chairman.

Mrs. Leonard Comer, first vice president and program chairman of Redondo Beach Dianas, Marina District, CFWC, junior membership, and Mrs. Robert Shank were party cochairmen. Acting as Santa's helpers by filling the Christmas stockings with toys and candies were Mrs. John Harrison and Mrs. Forrest Johnson.

Kelley of Sioux Falls, S.D., Ray Stein, Lyle O'Hora, Stan Heiman, Fred Carroll, Roger Evans, and Mr. Dan Hutchison. Miss Judy Wolf leaves to day to resume her studies at UC at Santa Barbara after spending the holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf, 21804 Halldale.

FREE

1 0/ NOW TO JAN. 11

AMERICAN

SAVINGS

Party By VFW Auxiliary

William S. Rosecrans, VFW Auxiliary 3261 has adopted Ward C-5, a ward of 28 elderly persons at the Harbor General Hospital. A Christmas party was held in the ward on Dec. 21. A tree with all the trimmings was donated by the auxiliary and the Cootiette Club.

Zollinger, Henry Bouman and Louis P. Smith.

In addition to the party, the auxiliary gave 20 dressed dolls, books and magazines to the children's ward; a knitting matorial to therapy; and records to the TB ward. All decorations were done by auxiliary members.

Preside At

In the east were Ora L. Wad-ley of the 55th district, Mona Lake chapter, and Doris Savage, deputy grand matron of the Wilmington chapter. The 1960 matrons and patrons of the 80th district were also of the 80th district were also introduced.

After the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room which had been decorated in the Christmas theme.

Hostesses were Jane Horton and Esther Anderson. There was a special birthday table for those having birthlays in October, November and December.

The meeting scheduled for Jan. 1 has been cancelled.
District Courtesy Night will be held Jan. 15 and Jan. 17 is the date of the first breakfast.

Circle Has Progressive Dinner. Party

Ruth Circle of the First Lu-theran Church closed its year with a progressive dinner party last Monday evening. The group gathered at the home of Mrs. George Portlock, 1219 Greenwood Ave. for an home of Mrs. George Portlock 1219 Greenwood Ave., for ap petizers. They then went to the home of Mrs. Robert Bruley 23222 Falena, for the salad

The entree was served at the home of Mrs. G. A. George, 1724 Iris Ave.

Proceeding on to the home of Mrs. Lawrence Bergsma, 2759 Monterey the circle members were served dessert and a gift exchange was held.

Others in the party were Mmes. Leonard Swanson, Paul Friedmann, Vincent Zimpfer, Allan Rockwold, George Poch-atco, William Kerr, Charles Wolfe and Norman Matson.

Club Hostess

Mrs. Marshall H. Cox, 2502 W. 179th St. entertained her Secret Pal club at its Christ mas luncheon party last Thursday afternoon.

Miniature nylon net Christ-mas trees decorated the lunch-eon table which was covered with a green and red Christmas members are welcome, and refreshments will be served. Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Gerald Chase of Gardena, membership chairman.

Children Here
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Robison, 24630 Eshelman, Lomita, have as their holiday guests their two daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bigelow, and four children of Las Cruces, N.M., and Mrs. Roy Pulliam and son, Robert, of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mrs. Roy Pulliam and son, Robert, of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mrs. Leonard Comer, first wice president and program the grown of Bednode Beach Salt Nick imself joined the party and dispensed Christmas stockings to the delighted children.

Mrs. Leonard Comer, first wice president and program chairman of Bednode Beach Salt Nick imself joined the party and dispensed Christmas stockings to the delighted children.

Mrs. Leonard Comer, first wice president and program chairman of Bednode Beach Salt Nick imself joined the party and dispensed Christmas stockings to the delighted children.

Mrs. Leonard Comer, first wice president and program chairman of Bednode Beach Salt Nick imself joined the party and dispensed Christmas stockings to the delighted children.

Mrs. Leonard Comer, first wice president and program chairman of Bednode Beach Salt Mischall Susan and Mrs. Cox of Torrance and Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Mrs. Cox of Torrance and Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mischall Susan and Er

ETIQUETTE LESSON . . . Herman Broodman, seventh grade teacher at Fern Greenwood school and a member of the Footlight Theatre was the guest speaker at the meeting the Welcome Wagon at the Plush Horse last week. Mr. Broodman's topic was table etiquette. Here the speaker discusses his subject with two members, Mrs. Phyllis Marsh and Mrs. Mary Gizzi.

Class Opens For Mothers

Dean Family

On Christmas Eve a family cloth.
A gift exchange was held around the white Christmas tree.
Guests attending were Mrs.

rribute gifts to the guests. Refreshments were served after the Santa Claus visit.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dean and Messrs. and Mmes. John Agapito, Larry Herin, Jack Dean, and their families, Mr. and Mrs. James Dean and Tom Gable of Denver, Colo.

PTA ACTIVITIES

For Mothers

Enrollment is again open to expectant mothers in the "Preparation for Childbirth" class sponsored by Redondo Beach Wohmen's Club and the American Institute of Family Relations. First class of the low-cost, non-profit course, taught by Mrs. Robera Gerds, R.N., will meet Tuesday, Jan. 5, at the Redondo Beach Women's Club building, 400 South Broadway, Redondo Beach, at 9 a.m.

Purpose of the class is to make having a baby a happy and safe experience. Each lesson of the 10-week course is divided into two 1-hour periods. The first hour is devoted to lecture and the second hour is spent in physical training. Mothers-to-be may enroll as early as their fourth month of pregnancy.

Expectant mothers may make application for the class is by calling Mrs. Gerds.

Gala Party

Fetes McVeys

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McVey, 17844 Cranbord, was the scene of a gala holiday and anniversary part yon Sunday Dec. 27.

Red and silver predominate the McVeys a happy and the Mrs. Elinor Courtney's brook, was the scene of a gala holiday and anniversary part yon Sunday Dec. 27.

Red and silver predominate the McVeys a happy and the Mrs. Elinor Courtney's brook, was the scene of a gala holiday and anniversary part yon Sunday Dec. 27.

Red and silver predominate the decorations. Pinks the decorations. Pinks the decorations are real lands. Narrating for the program was brook, was the scene of a gala holiday and anniversary part yon Sunday Dec. 27.

Red and silver predominate the decorations of the Mrs. Elinor Courtney's brook, was the scene of a gala holiday and anniversary part yon Sunday Dec. 27.

Red and silver predominate the decorations of the Mrs. Elinor Courtney's brook, was the scene of a gala holiday and anniversary part yon Sunday Dec. 27.

Red and silver predominate the marks of the marks of the mother of the mother of the new decrease of the new decrease of the marks of the training division. The least of the audit education teacher at Banning High School, will be the moderator. The Need for Parental Understan

Fetes McVeys
The home of Mr. and Mrs.
Kenneth McVey, 17644 Cranbrook, was the scene of a gala holiday and anniversary party on Sunday Dec. 27.
Red and silver predominated the decorations. Pink punch and hors d'oeuvres were served.
The following gathered to wish the McVeys a happy anniversary: Messrs. and Mrs. Jim Thompson, Gene Flaherties Wendell Morgan, Ernie Hutton, Bill Scally, Joe Adams, Adolph Prarat, Roy Griebel, Kirby Alexander, and Ralph Wieler.
The group presented a gift to the McVeys.

"The Littlest Outlaw" will be shown by the Sepulveda PTA on Jan. 9. There will be two showings, one at 10:30 a.m. and one at 1:30 p.m. Profits from the Saturday movies go to buy books for the school library.

around the white Christmas tree.

Guests attending were Mrs.

Guests attending were Mrs.

Essie Meister and Mrs. Norene Mitchell of Los Angeles, Mrs. Induction and Mrs. Dorothy Wilson and Mrs. Cox of Torrance and Susan and Eric Wilson, Richard Meister and Kenny Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Dean, 820
Felbar Ave.

Santa Claus, in the person of James Dean, paid a visit to distribute gifts to the guests. Refreshments were served after the Santa Claus visit.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Dean, 820
James Dean, paid a visit to distribute gifts to the guests. Refreshments were served after the Santa Claus visit.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Dean, 820
James Dean, paid a visit to distribute gifts to the guests. Refreshments were served after the Santa Claus visit.

Attending were Mrs. and Mrs. Leland Dean, 820
James Dean, paid a visit to distribute gifts to the guests. Refreshments were served after the Santa Claus visit.

Attending were Mrs. Angles, Arabica Lean Refreshments were served after the Santa Claus visit.

Attending were Mrs. Leland Dean, 820
John Stor the school library. The association meeting Jan.

21 will be "Learning the Abilities of Our Teachers," in conjunction with the year's theme "We Come As Learners." Sepulveda's teachers will present the entire program, and a most enjoyable evening is promised.

Gardena

Gardena Council PTA announces that the presidents meeting for this month will be held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Dietz, 15209 Wilton, Gardena on Monday, Jan. 4, at 10.8 m. 10 a.m.
Instruction meeting for all local nominating committees has been changed to Friday, Jan. 15, 9:30 a.m.

Please plan all nominating committee meetings after this instruction meeting. All interested members are valence.

ested members are welcome

Arts and crafts work shop will be held at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 20, at the Stephen M. White School, 22102 So. Figueroa, Torrance.

Birthday Party
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dean entertained family members at a party Sunday to celebrate the birthday of Mr. Dean's sister,

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT . . . Christmas in its truest meaning was practiced by the students CHRISTMAS SPIRIT..., Christmas in its truest meaning was practiced by the statems at the Seaside Elementary school when they helped others. Canned goods have been collected for the needy and the sixth and eighth grades presented a program of Christmas carols. Pictured are students and PTA members Mmes. John Black, Wandell Stillwell, Jack Walters and Frank Owen. A Christmas play was given by students from the