Chapel Given GOP Backing

Charles E. Chapel, Member of the Assembly, 46th District, has been officially and formally endorsed for re-election by the Republican Central Committee of the 46th Assembly District, according to Frederick C. Sharlow, 937-A Larch St. Inglewood, who is chairman of the Republican Central Committee, 46th District, governing body for Republican activities in that area.

"Assemblyman Chapel is apparently the first Republican candidate for election in 1960 who has publicly declared his candidacy for re-election and received the endorsement of the Republican Party. It is expected that all Republican organizations in the 46th Assembly District will follow the leadership of the Central Committee and also unanimously endorse Chapel for re-election in 1960."
