A "population explosion" is making the need for education and the need for more schools more critical than ever before, John Steinbaugh told 600 high school students and their parents at Torrance's first district-wide Education Advertisement Night at Torrance High.

YOUR

Steinbaugh, now S.C. direct-of admissions and one-time principal of Torrance High, told the group that the large number of post-war babies is nearing high school age and soon will be ready for college. Many more schools will be needed to house these students, he noted, and many private in stitutions may raise their standards because of the large number of applicants.

1960 SINGER

Whittlesey Motors takes great pleasure in announcing its appointment as a factory-franchised dealer for the Singer Gazelle, the elegant economy car built in Coventry, England, by Rootes

Swift and graceful, the Gazelle is an outstanding value for the economy-car buyer. It combines low initial cost with all the luxury, spirited performance and gasoline economy you've been looking for in the imported field.

Make a date to see and drive the Singer Gazelle, as well as the other fine Rootes cars, at Whittlesey Motors soon.
