Myrna Osnes Exchanges Vows with George Foster

At three o'clock on Sunday afternoon, Valentine's Day, Miss Myrna Lea Osnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Osnes, 17403 Glenburn Ave. became the bride of George K. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Foster, 17202 Ermanita Ave., Torrance.

The wedding was solemnized at the Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church with the Rev. Monrad Bergesen officiating.

On the arm of her father, the bride approached the altar wearing a gown of tulle over satin. The bodice of the dress was studded with seed pearls and sequins. The full skirt draped into a chapel train. The illusion veil was held by a seed pearl coronet. The bride carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Shirley Montgomery and Mrs. Glenda Rice. They were gown-

St. Lawrence Guilds Hear Dr. McNulty

February meeting of the combined guilds of St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church was held Wednesday, Feb. 17, in the school hall with Mrs. John McCarty, president, in charge. Msgr. Daniel Collins, pastor, led the opening and closing prayers. There were approximately 450 members in attendance.

Mrs. Herbert Grosswendt, spiritual program coordinator, introduced the speaker for the evening, Dr. James V. McNulty, whose subject was "Medical Problems in a Christian Marriage." He discussed the three important aspects of marriage—spiritual, mental, and physical.

Mrs. Grosswendt announced that the March spiritual program for the guilds will be the Natural Law.

Entertains

Mrs. Plu White entertained her bridge club at her home, 1620 Post Ave. last Thursday evening.

Following a dessert, bridge was played with Mrs. Dean Sears holding high score and Mrs. Whyte second.

Mrs. Whyte's guests were Meses. W. I. Laugon, J. B. Scotton, R. S. Sleeth, Alma Smith, D. A. Murphy, Robert Lewellen and Sears.

Mrs. H. A. Barrington will be the club's hostess in two weeks.

In San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ascolei and two sons, Larry and Jerry, 2625 Arlington Ave., spent the weekend in San Francisco.

Gala Party For Parents By Camp Fire

Having received a "summons" to appear at "Neff's Courthouse" at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 17, the parents and sponsors of the Gustu-ko-ha-ni (Girls of the Sky) Camp Fire group in Waleria enjoyed an evening of fun and refreshments.

The girls planned a party for an honor toward their Trail Seekers rank.

Their guardian, Mrs. Al Klempan, explained to new members the purpose of the Camp Fire program.

Gustu-ko-ha-ni sang songs, engaged parents in fun games, and served cider and cookies.

Attending the party were 18 girls, their parents and sponsors, Mrs. R. B. Hilborn and Dr. Eleanor Thill, who is organization representative to the Waleria Business Women's club.

It was a packed "court" and the verdict was unanimously in favor of Camp Fire.

The "girls of the sky" are: Kathy Ball, Mary Ball, Belinda Baty, Sherry Branch, Tauli Crowther, Elizabeth Eidsath, Robin Hilborn, Carole Hoberg, Darlene Labbitt, Sandra Lynch, Jodean Megraw, Cathy Neff, Lynne Ormand, Glenda Parks, Nancy Parks, Linda Pernit, Elene Smith and Debbie Vedborg.

AQUARISTS TO MEET TONIGHT

Harbor Aquarium Society will meet this evening at 8 at the McMasters Hall, 174th and Yukon in Torrance. Vic Boswell will preside.

Guest speaker will be internationally known photographer Gene Wolfshiemer of Los Angeles. He will show beautiful colored slides to illustrate his talk on "Fresh Water Tropicals in the Home Aquarium."

Show fish of the month will be all fish not previously shown.

The door prize will be a five gallon aquarium. Refreshments will be served.

ed in Valentine red chiffon over taffeta and carried cascades of red carnations.

Little Linda Foster, sister of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She wore a flock of red nylon dotted swiss. The rings were carried by Charles Osnes, young brother of the bride.

The duties of best man were performed by Robert Bereskin. Ushers were Bill Yoder, Ellis Hausken, Jan Osnes and Douglas Foster.

After the wedding, a reception was held. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. George Turgeon, aunt of the bride and at the coffee service, Mrs. Lars Hausken, a great-aunt. The 200 wedding guests were registered by Mrs. Luella Frey, another aunt.

Mrs. Ralph McBea played the wedding marches and accompanied Paul Clayton, soloist. The new home will be in Redondo Beach.

The bride was graduated from North High school.
