Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Burch, 3922 W. 169th St., entertained at a pot luck dinner Sunday evening at their home. An Hawaiian theme was used in decorating and guests arrived wearing island costumes. The menu consisted of foods typical of Hawaii.

Enjoying the party with the hosts were Messrs. and Mmes. Jim McDonald, Louis Fucci, John McVey, Vince Weigle, Howard Hood, and Edwin Olsen.

Utah Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Don Larson and son, 1104 Elm, have returned from a week's vacation in Utah where they visited their parents.

Major Philanthropy

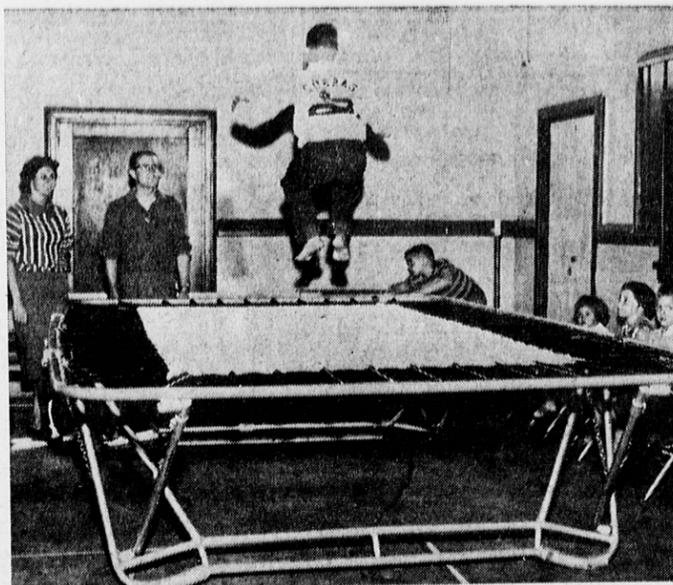

Juniors Complete YM Decorating

Due to the 100% participation of the membership of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina District, CFWC, the goal of redecorating the Torrance YMCA has been achieved, with the additional purchase of several large pieces of play equipment and furnishings and a number of smaller pieces. This project was chosen by the club members as their major philanthropy, and was accomplished entirely by the Juniors with no outside assistance.

Because of the imperman-ence of the present YMCA building, an attempt was made by Mrs. Allen E. Hofferber, philanthropy director, to plan the redecoration with a minimum of expenditures and a great deal of work done by Juniors and their husbands. The redecoration included painting of the complete interior with minor repairs as necessary, and the sewing of some gay striped curtains to give the building a more pleasing appearance.

The remainder of the allotted $1,000 was used to purchase the following articles: a trampoline, a large tumbling mat, 5 feet by 60 feet, fifty-two chairs, and the small equipment consisting of ping pong sets, two battle bird sets and shuffleboard sticks and pucks. This equipment was selected to be permanent assets of the YMCA not only in their present building, but wherever they may be in the future.

ACHIEVEMENT . . . With their work completed, Mrs. Allen Hofferber, philanthropy chairman, and Doug Cannon, associate executive secretary of the YM, look on as the new trampoline is enjoyed by David Stoneberg. At the shuffleboard is Jim Stoneberg. In the audience are Lisa Hofferber, Lynn Stoneberg and Scott Hofferber.

AN EYE TO THE FUTURE . . . Mrs. Allen Hofferber, philanthropy chairman for the Torrance Junior Woman's club points out the possibilities of improving the Torrance YMCA to Mrs. Edward D. Aiken, junior club member. The redecoration and renovating of the local YM was the major philanthropy of the Junior club this year.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"You've Got A One Track Mind . . ."

Dear Ann: What's the matter with the men in this world? I'm married to an old geezer whose eyes practically fall out of his head when a young girl passes. It can't keep a maid in the house because he got smart with every girl who worked for us. We've had to move twice because he became too friendly with women neighbors.

I used to think it was just HIM but now I've decided ALL men are this way. Last week I had to see a lawyer about property problems. He made a pass at me. When I told him off he said I was "imagining things." Even the delivery boys and the electrician in this building have made improper advances.

I'm very good-looking for my age but I never give anyone encouragement.

Don't tell me to see a doctor. I don't trust doctors either. I've been to two in the past year and they both propositioned me — MAN HATER

Dear Man Hater: Go to a woman doctor (head type) and get the help you need. You've got a one-track mind—and the track is a little muddy.

Dear Ann: I've been going with a fellow for five years. There are many good reasons why we can't marry for a while but I won't go into them here.

We exchange presents at Christmas and on birthdays. I'd say he spends between $20 and $30 on me. For the last three years I've asked him what he would like and he says, "Give me the money and I'll buy what I want." So, I've been giving him $25 in cash every Christmas and on his birthday. So far I've never known him to buy anything with the money. I think he just saves it. His birthday is coming up again next month. What shall I do? — GWEN

Dear Gwen: Don't ask questions and you won't get answers. Buy him what you think he'd like and don't let him make a commercial event out of occasions which should have sentiment.

Dear Ann Landers: Your recent advice entitled "Don't be a Pal to your Son" hit us at a very bad time.

I'm the executive director of a well-known national organization. Your advice appeared on the opening day of our national drive to encourage a better relationship between fathers and sons. The slogan for our campaign is "Pals Forever." Needless to say, you've unwittingly dealt us a sharp blow.

I'm sure you'll agree a father (Continued on Page 14)

Northern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Perks, 3738 W. 181st and Mr. Perks' brother, Bill Perks, have returned from a trip to Reno and Squaw Valley. In Reno, they were guests of Mrs. Perk's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keife. There they enjoyed skiing at Reno Ski Bowl. In Squaw Valley, they watched the competitions.

Weekend Guest

Miss Nancy Fields of Redlands spent the weekend with Miss Susan Coty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coty, 219 Paseo De Gracia. The girls are schoolmates at Marymount Palos Verdes.

McDonnell - Dante Names Are Linked in Marriage

Two baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli against standards holding lighted tapers marked the place of ceremony in the Nativity Catholic church last Saturday morning when Miss Ann Elizabeth McDonnell became the bride of Lee Andrew Dante. The Rev. Thomas A. Glynn officiated at the marriage ceremony and the nuptial mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ruja McDonnell, 1024 Teri Ave.

On the arm of Edwin Davis, a family friend, the bride came to the altar. She wore a gown of white silk organza trimmed with Chantilly lace. The lace decorated the V-shaped neckline and ornamented the sleeves. Two panels of the lace were down, the front of the full skirt which fell into a chapel train. The elbow length illusion veil was secured by a pearl tiara. White camellias, encircling a white orchid, formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Yvonne Zouain served as the maid of honor. She wore a pink silk organza waltz-length gown. Her bouquet was of pink camellias.

Robert G. Harvey stood as best man and ushers were Bernard Irwin and Thomas Dante.

Mrs. Neil McConologue, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied Ray Negretti who sang "Panis Angelicus," "On This Day" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Plush Horse restaurant for the 175 wedding guests. Miss Margaret Zegers was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are spending a honeymoon in Las Vegas. Their new address is 1395 Monte Verde, Upland, Calif.

The bride was graduated from the Immaculate Heart High school in Hollywood and attended El Camino college.

Her husband attended San Diego State college and is a finance officer with the Mission Supply Co. in Ontario.

Former Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horn and children, Dorene, Jackie and Robbie of Boron, former Torrance residents, spent the weekend here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Oliver, 1814 Middlebrook Rd.

ALICE BULLARD . . . Future Bride

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bullard, 20514 Catalina, Torrance, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Alice Lorraine, to Benjamin Wade Post, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Post of Long Beach.

The wedding is scheduled for the late summer.

The bride-elect was graduated from Gardena High school in 1957. She is employed in South Gate.

Mr. Post was educated in Long Beach and is employed by the Colyear Parts Co. there.

Diane Doyle Becomes Bride Of Thomas Fichter Feb. 27

Miss Diane Doyle was a lovely bride as she came down the aisle of the Nativity Catholic church last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock to plight her marriage promises with Thomas Fichter. The bride, who came to the altar on the arm of her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Doyle, 1410 W. 227th St. Torrance. Mr. Fichter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fichter, 21924 S. Harvard Blvd., Torrance.

The bridal gown was of Chantilly lace and tulle. It was detailed with a scoop neckline, long lace sleeves and a full skirt. The illusion fingertip veil fell from a tiara and the bridal bouquet was two white orchids encircled by white hyacinths.

Mrs. Judi Hanks was the matron of honor. She wore a royal blue taffeta dress and carried a blue carnation cascade. Bridesmaids were Misses Evelyn Burlingame, Faye Gos-

Republican Women To Hear Kramer

Milt Kramer, associate member of the Republican State Central Committee, California, will speak at the luncheon meeting of the South Bay Club of Federated Republican Women on Thursday, March 10, at 12 noon at the Fish Shanty, 4020 Pacific Coast Highway, Waverly. "You and Political Action" will be the subject of Mr. Kramer's talk.

Milt Kramer, a UCLA graduate who served aboard U. S. Navy destroyers during World War II and the Korean War, is now a Commander in the U. S. Naval Reserve. He is a member of the California Republican Assembly, and a past chairman of the Research Committee of the State Central Committee. Mr. Kramer, a dynamic speaker, is well versed in the fields of government, legislation, education and labor. He will stress the urgent need for Republican women to work at the "grass roots level."

For luncheon reservations, call Mrs. Bertha Walters.

Shower For Miss Mullins

Miss Carolyn Mullins, bride-elect of Earl Shanklin, was complimented at a pre-nuptial party given by Misses Shirley and Susie Pryor at the Mullins home, 1541 W. 221st on Feb. 19.

The hostesses chose a pink and white color theme for the party which was carried out with floral arrangements of pink and white camellias. Centering the dining table was a large cake encircled by pink rosebuds. Topping the cake were a cluster of pink roses and two hearts inscribed with the names of the couple. Several appropriate games were played, after which the bride opened her gifts.

The hostesses served refreshments carrying out the pink and white theme.

Attending the party were Mmes. Violet Kauble, Eleanor Shanklin, Lucille Graham, Eleanor Boydston, Cleo Burrows, Glenda Mullins; Misses Jean Burrows and Esther Pryor.

Sending gifts, but unable to attend were Mrs. June Morris and Mrs. Maggie Mullins.
