New Committee Heads Named By CC Prexy

Fifteen chairmen of standing committees were announced this week by Torrance Chamber of Commerce President R. S. "Dick" Pyle. Pyle said in addition to the 15 named, there would be special chairmen announced during the year for area retail groups, Rancho Days, nominations and elections committee, etc. THE CHAMBER leader said this year's "program of work" would be very broad and would cover all phases of community development. He said that often the public is not fully informed of just what the Chamber is. "My definition," Pyle added, "is that a Chamber of Commerce is that organization that does those things for the general welfare of the community that most people think just happen." Pyle said the Torrance Chamber certainly could not expect to be named the nation's finest for two consecutive years, but said that the program planned would be of the same calibre. COMMITTEE chairmen include: Slim Kidwell (Kidwell Aviation), aviation; Mary Pagac (Mary's Color Bar), clean-up; Ralph Morris (Rome Cable), economic understanding; R. L. "Dick" Herbert (Vend-Rite Co.), education; Joan Phipps Luup (James Post Insurance Co.), fire protection; Bill Greenawald (So California Edison Co.), member relations; Gerald W. Eastham, M.D., public health; William J. Mason (Bethlehem Steel), industrial; Robert W. Morris (Southwest Blueprint), legislative; Willys Blount (Kirkhill Rubber Co.), recreation and sports; Joseph Wilcox (Exec. Secretary YMCA), religious activities; W. E. Bowen (W. E. Bowen Insurance Co.), speakers bureau; Donald Hitchcock

Manuscripters Set Next Meet For August 19

Leonard Freeman, writer, director and producer with Warner Brothers Studios, will be guest speaker of the Southwest Manuscripters Friday night, Aug. 19, 8 p.m. at Clark Stadium, 861 Valley Drive, Hermosa Beach. He will speak on "Writing For The Film Industry." Freeman was under contract with National Studios in 1950 as a writer, producer and director. He is past president of the Television Branch of Writer's Guild of America. In 1954 he was nominated for the "Emmy" award for his play, "The Answer." His play received a total of five nominations at that time. As a writer, producer or director, Freeman has more than 100 television plays to his credit. He is now working on a feature film for Warner Brothers Studios, "Gold of the Seven Saints." The Southwest Manuscripters invite all writers, professional and beginner, to attend the meeting and hear Freeman.
