Thornberry Is Soldier Of Month

Mike Thornberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Thornberry, 905 Patronella, has been named soldier-of-the-month at Ft. Lewis, Wash. The 21-year-old private first class is a teletype operator with the Quartermaster Company, Fourth Infantry Division.

Thornberry plans to make police work his career. He hopes to enter the Los Angeles Police Academy upon discharge from the Army this month. He entered the Army in Sept., 1957, and completed basic training at Fort Ord. After service in Korea and at Fort Gordon, Ga., he was sent to Ft. Lewis in May, 1959.

Local Musicians Win Top Honors In Competition

Torrance musicians scored heavily last week in the National Music Festival at San Jose, it was reported here on their return.

A large number of contestants from Torrance, members of Slim Edwards' music classes, competed in the national event. The Mel-O-Dee Band won the trophy for the most attractive uniforms.

Triple-A winners in the competition included Michael Keith, Dwayne Crawley, Jimmy Crawley, Larry Carlton, Randy Roach, Joe Savage, Ronnie Gillian, Carrol Pasey, Bruck Keith, Eddie Fourines, Taylor Sutherland, and Homer and Richard Vandeventer.

First place awards went to Mel-O-Dee's concert, all Spanish, and Guitar bands.

The primary band was rated high by the judges, Edwards reports.

Climax of the contest was a banquet at the St. Claire Hotel in San Jose attended by musicians and parents. Awards were presented at the banquet.
