Lomita Baptist Announces Plans for New Day School

First Baptist Church of Lomita has announced the opening of their new Christian Day School, Sept. 14. It consists of a nursery for working mothers from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., kindergarten, first and second grades. Children may be transferred from the Day School to the nursery for extended hours of supervised play, rest, and guided activity. A full day's program is available and a hot lunch for all who may desire it. Transportation is available to the first twenty-five enrolling in each age division. The room load for each teacher is twenty-five, thereby assuring personal attention for each child.

kindergarten and child psychology. Mrs. Elizabeth Benson is teacher of the second grade. She holds a BA and is doing graduate work in Long Beach State College.

The nursery for working mothers will be under the supervision of competent, trained Christian ladies. All are active in their churches and are dedicated to the work of child guidance.

The same educational requirements are made for all teachers as the public school with the additional qualifications of outstanding Christian character, experience, and love for children.

Republican Headquarters Opens Friday

Grand opening of the Republican Headquarters in Inglewood is slated for 7 p.m. tomorrow evening. Candidates for the assembly and the 17th Congressional district candidate, Tom Coffee, will be on hand for the event. Refreshments will be served.

THE COURSE of study will parallel the public schools plus Bible study and character building. Children of all faiths are welcome and parents may be assured that no attempt will be made to impose the Baptist beliefs on any child. Basic Christian truth will be taught from the Bible only as it relates to Character building.

Charles Chapel, incumbent Assemblyman for the 46th District, and assembly candidates, Robert Gulliver of the 67th District and Richard Glasier of the 68th District, will attend the event in addition to Coffee.

The Educational Director, Mr. W. A. Risinger will be the principal of the school. Mrs. Risinger will be teacher of the first grade. They both are graduates of New Mexico State University with many years of teaching experience.

Mrs. Eva C. Watts, first vice president of the Inglewood Republican Womens Club, has been named to manage the new quarters, according to Ed Caulfield, precinct chairman of the Northern 46th Assembly District which includes Inglewood.

At the location through the elections will be the offices of the Coffee for Congress Committee, Assemblyman Charles Chapel's office, and the Greater Centinela Valley Young Republicans.

People interested in precinct work may also volunteer during the grand opening.
