

ONE'S FROM TORRANCE — Here are UCLA's four football stars who all answer to the name of Smith, They'll all be seen in action at the Collseum this Saturday night when the Bruins battle Pittsburgh in the season opener. Yes, that's Skip Smith of our town, a 56 graduate of Torrance High. Second from right. The hard-running senior full-back is a key man in the Bruins attack. The others are from left, Earl Smith, senior right end from San Francisco; Bob Smith, junior tailback from Compton; and Rob Smith, soph tailback from La Canada.

Dohner Sparkles for Saxons

Halfback Hot In Practice; Sibley Hurt

Halfback Roy Dohner shone as bright is the 11th hour sun as North High churned through a crisp hour-long scrimmage

The 160 pounder ran in mid-season form as he broke off a 70 yarder and several other good-size gainers during the early part of the Saxons' first body-contact scrimmage.

body-contact scrimmage. Coach Bob Shoup beamed as he looked ahead to the first game, Sept. 23, against Warren of Downey. North has its offensive back-

North has its offensive back-field pretty well set, with soph-omore Carey Hubert at quar-terback, Dohner at half, Derick Busch (who's nursing a bad ankle) at fullback, and peewee Felix Alvillar (130) at the slot-back

Veteran Dan Claxton is set at center and is more advance

. The smallest and one of the biggest FLYING HIGH . FLYING HIGH ... The smallest and one of the biggest gridders at North High dive for loose ball as both condi-tion for first string assignments. Little Felix Alvillar (130) and lineman Gary Sexton (210), both seniors, were two of 31 players who went through hour-long scrimmage yesterday. (Herald Photo).

Best Fishing Lies Ahead

Sportfisher skippers at Re-dondo Fisherman's Wharf an-end.

A center and is more advanced at center-timing than North's last two football seasons at the same stage, Shoup reports. With only 31 players report-ing to yesterday's practice ses-sion, the team's ninth in five days, one player was incom-spiciously absent. He's 220-pound John Sibley, an honor-able mention all-Bay League guard and the team's best line-man. Sibley is out with a chronic bad sacroilliac, but the Saxon coaching brass is hoping he'll be in good enough shape to play by the first game. MCRAE SAID his fleet of three boats are just now start-ing to cash in on large schools of yellowtail, now moving into the Landing's normal fishing grounds from offshore waters. Heavier halibut and greater numbers of halibut are free numbers of halibut are fre-quenting waters, skippers, re-

Prep Backs Shine in Drills; Coaches Beam

Torrance Seeking Linemen

You don't lose the likes of Stan Gonta and Phil Nichol in the line and come back as strong as ever, and nobody realizes it more than Coach Irwin Kasten at Torrance High

Twin Rasten at formatice high this year. Beginnig his second season as head coach, the former Tar-tar alum has a virtual scare-crow staff of linemen to try to emulate last year's stingy and bang-emup front wall which was so much responsible for was so much responsible for any measure of the school's gridiron success.

WITH ONLY two returning lettermen in the line, Kasten is giving a long, hard look to the portion of 53 candidates seek-ing jobs.up front. But things may be looking up, if a couple of "first time" varsity candidates pan out. One of the question marks could be 260 pound sophomore Garlan Roberts, who was too young as a freshman to play varsity ball last year. Others may be slotback Mike Challis, a transfer from South High, and Rick Hood, another trans-fer, at end.

from last year's championship Bee team, has men three deep in the offensive platoon.

BUT SO FAR, returning quarterback Howard Taylor, and lettermen ball carriers Jerry McLean and Mike Irvine are the ones to beat out. Steve Parker, who missed virtually the whole season last year, returns for his senior season and could be a booster if his gimpy knee holds up. Don Dobrick, a letterman, and newcomer John Cambon are giving Taylor a run for his money at the signal-calling po-sition.

sition.

Taylor - who played both

PROTECTION PLUS... Torrance's 260 pound sophomore Garlan Roberts provides plenty of protection for smallish halfback Mike Cicchini as he takes handoff from quarterback Howard Taylor during Tartar training session. Torrance plans to step up drills as first game in two weeks draws nearer. (Herald Photo)

Independent Survives Rally for fer, at end. But while things are skimpy pfront, backfield coach Clyde Christiansen, who moves up The Independent Builders run shy, leaving dust in the

The Independent Builders run shy, leaving dust in the air survived a 7th inning, back-to-and the bases loaded when the swatted two hits for the losers survived a 7th inning, back-to-the-wall comeback by South Bay Church of God to score a pulsating 5 to 4 victory for the city's Industrial Softball Lea-gue championship Friday night at Torrance Park. The new city champs carried what seemed like a sure and safe 5-1 advantage into the spunky churchmen send nime men to the plate and fall one

In Suburban L.A.

Lakers Card Inter-Squad

Taylor — who played both offense and defense last sea-son — will probably stick to offense this year. KASTEN PUT his charges through a crisp 25 minute scrimmage Friday and was fairly well satisfied with what he saw. However, Dobrick, who could be the best passer of three QBs, missed both ses-sions.

could be the best passed of practice, according to Coach Fred Schaus.
"We are taking a number of morsow morning at 9:30 and again in the afternoon at 3:30.
Hoop Program
The Torrance Recreation Department's Adult Sports Section, under the direction of Elrner "Red" Moon, is planning an enlarged program this year in the wey are taket ball, slowed down to a walk with special rules designed to foll the fast break.)
Two 6-team leagues, organiz- ed last season, participated in Sections.

Sept. 19 Santa Monica Civic Auditorium.

Knights' Backfield Sharp

After seven workouts Coach George Gaunder is beginning to sift the men from the boys at Bishep Montgomery High as the school knocks off drills un-til Monday afternoon.

til Monday afternoon. Gaunder — who says he's concentrating primarily on fundamentals in these early shoulder-bumping sessions — has a fair idea of what could be the Knights' starting back-field combo for the season opener against Loyola in two weeks. weeks.

SO FAR — although there has been just one scrimmage session — halfbacks Dick Cor-win and Dick Moore, fullback Beb Forther and cumatorheau Bob Early, and quarterback John Clark have been impres-

"We have a great lack of tackles and guards and a host of ends and backs," Gaunder — in his first year at Mont-gomery said Friday in a brief evaluation of the Knights' per-

OUTSIDE OF the usual cou-

And while the school's football braintrust is forming ideas about the players, slowly but surely the host of ends and quite — put it on ice in the 7th after Independent scored what seemed at the time like two unimportant "insurance" runs on just one hit and three sonnel. George doesn't know much of anything about returning players and so far cares less. All jobs are open and all can be won in practice. errors in the home half of the 6th.

S.

to lead the game's hitters. ple of pulled muscles and stiff joints, no injuries have riddled the Montgomery training camp.

JOHNSON didn't let a run-JOHNSON didn't let a run-ner reach second base until Reynolds' double in the 6th. In four meetings this season, Independent and Church of God split at 2-2.

Two 6-team leagues, organized last season, participated in school. Sept. 22—Covina Union High rance High School girl's gym-nasium. Players trying the game for the first time, partic-ularly the old time stars who

Sept. 26—Pomona College. Sept. 27—Compton High

PROMISING LINEMEN . . . Jay McBride and Dave Fulford, a pair of rock-built tackles, have South High Coach David Tollefson buzzing about team's possibilities in Bay League this season. Both have unexpectedly bolstered team strength at those spots, once be-lieved to be team weap points. Herald Photo). spots, once be-Herald Photo).

llarly the o ld time stars who are long at the waistline and short at breath, received the new version of the popular pastime with enthusiasm and are looking forward eagerly to the start of the coming season, according to Moon.

according to Moon. Present plans call for the opening of gymnasiums during the months of November and December to enable the play-ers and teams to get in condi-tion for league play, slated to begin during the first week of January. Also in the planning stages are regulation basket-ball leagues.

stages are regulation basket-ball leagues. Providing that sufficient in-terest can be generated, lea-gues will be formed in the following classifications; Open, Church, Industrial, and Facul-ty. All persons who are inter-ested in participating in any of these leagues, as a player, team manager or team sponsor, are urged to contact Moon at the Becreastion Office 1511 1511 the Recreation Office, 1511 Cravens Ave., or phone FAir-fax 8-4108.

