Former Herald Staffer Wins Gold Medal for Photo at County Fair

El Camino College photography student Eleanor Gilbert, a former HERALD staffer, was named gold medal winner in collegiate photography competition at the Los Angeles County Fair.

Mrs. Gilbert, of Hollywood Riviera, won top prize for her pictorial division entry "Morning Mist."

Public Notice: The work of six other El Camino students was chosen by a panel of judges to appear in the exhibition. By division they include: PICTORIAL: Raymond Deurloo, Walteria (2); Roy Webber, Lawndale; Ken Whitney, Torrance; Sondra Buffett, Hermosa Beach; Mrs. Gilbert. Photo-Journalism: Ken Huthmaker (2); Gary Dufur, Inglewood. Commercial: Bert Davis, Gardena. Commenting on Mrs. Gilbert's victory, Instructor J. A. Grenier said, "It shows her great all-around versatility. Eleanor Gilbert now must be counted among the South Bay's finest photographers. Last year she won a silver medal in portraiture at the fair. This year she won the National Press Photographers' feature news competition and now a gold medal for landscape photography."
