

DWAYNE HICKMAN To Entertain Y-Day

Y-Day Tickets Available at Torrance YMCA

Dwayne Hickman, star of the "Dobbie Gillis" television series, will be among the 20 stars to entertain at Y-Day in Hollywood festivities on Oct. 15, it was announced here yesterday. Hickman will join such stars as Jack Linkletter, Dodie Stevens, Dennis Weaver, and Jimmie Rodgers in the annual program.

Tickets for the event are being sold now at the Torrance YMCA, according to Doug Cannon, program secretary of the local organization. In addition to the all-star show in the Hollywood Bowl, those attending the event will see the SC-California football game in the Coliseum, and will be eligible to participate in an amateur talent contest. Immediate registration for entry in the talent contest should be made at the YMCA, Cannon said. He also urged early registration for attendance at the Y-Day outing.

Co-sponsors of the event are the Hollywood YMCA and the Hollywood Advertising Club. The club produces the all-star entertainment.

City's Loaded With Gamblers, Merchant Says

The Torrance area is loaded with gamblers, a downtown merchant decided last week end.

Norman Frezekus, manager of Dale's Department Store at 1334 El Prado, tacked up a sign behind the check-out counter Friday stating:

ARE YOU A GAMBLER?
"Would you invest 25c for this package sight unseen? It may be gold, it could be empty. But package must be opened at home. All sales final. Remember... curiosity killed the cat."

By the end of the day Saturday, Dale's clerks sold more than 300 of the boxes to curious customers.

And, the only customer to come back to the store did so to buy more of them, Frezekus said.

What was in the box? Check with one of your neighbors, she probably bought one. By the time the HERALD reporter got there, they were all gone.

But it was easily worth a quarter, he was assured.

Fast service. Fair settlement of claims. Friendly people who are on your side.

You can't buy better protection. Or broader coverage. Or greater peace of mind.

And you save money, too! Lower rates because Farmers insures careful drivers.

Released Time Religious Class To Open Soon

Again this year the Board of Education has granted the privilege of releasing children for religious instruction in each elementary school of the Torrance Unified School District.

Next week each principal will distribute cards to all pupils in the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades. Each parent who wishes his child to be released from school for one hour per week for religious instruction will

Class to Tour Bank

Members of the Van Deene Ave. School sixth grade class will make a tour of the Torrance Branch, Bank of America, on Tuesday, Oct. 4, as part of a social studies lesson. The group, with Lyn White as teacher, will be greeted by Manager Harold Frenz and his staff.

sign the card and return it to the principal of his school.

Questions concerning the religious groups will be gladly answered. Call Father Thomas J. Glynn, FA 8-2776 for information on the Roman Catholic classes. Call Miss Irene Mills, DA 6-3120 for information on the Protestant classes.

Girl Scout Program to Be Explained

A meeting to inform interested parents and prospective members about Girl Scout program has been scheduled for 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday at the Fern Avenue School cafeteria.

All parents who have girls between the ages of 7 and 17 who might be interested in joining a Girl Scout troop are being invited to attend the program.

"Girl Scouting offers many varied living experiences."

Polynesian Scene of Travel Agents' Luau

The Polynesian in Torrance provided an exotic setting for the American Society of Travel Agencies (Southern California Chapter), which this week held its annual party on the restaurant's tropical lanai. Theme of the luau, attended by more than 300 members and their guests, was "All Tahiti Night."

Scout executives report. The experience all tied in with her home and school education, enriching her self-development, adding up to fun plus a learning experience.

Girl Scouting is for all girls regardless of race, creed, or national heritage.

Bowl-o-Drome Slates Gala 'Polio Party'

The extensive "Polio Injection Campaign" going on throughout the island gets an extra boost this Saturday when the Schreiber's throw open the doors of their popular Torrance kegling palace, Bowl-O-Drome, and invite the public to attend their Gala Polio Party.

Drome officials will pass out free candy, ice cream and balloons and a staff of Los Angeles County doctors and nurses will be on hand to give injections against the crippling and often times fatal malady.

Going all out in an effort to help curb the rising number of polio cases reported in Los Angeles county because of people failing to follow-through, or even receive the first of the series of three needed for protection and the yearly booster, Bowl-O-Drome will go half the $1 charged for polio injections.

Saturday's Gala Polio Party will begin at 10 a.m. and last as long as men, women, and children keep coming to take advantage of the opportunity to protect themselves for only 50 cents and have a ball besides. Parents are especially urged to bring their little ones. With all the ice cream, candy and balloons a slight jab in the arm should go off without a hitch.
